Heavy suits cheap to order at Reiter's. The motion for a new trial in the case of Edwards is to come up before Judge Carson this morning. The Umon Pacific was having its street car tracks in Council Bluffs submitted to the annual measurement yesterday. The resignation of Rev. A. K. Bates, as pastor of the Presbyterian church, was accepted at a meeting of the church and congregation Wednesday night. In the assignments for the June tournament of the State Firemen's association. P. Lacy, of this city, is given the place of superintendent of hose.

The case of A. A. Hazard vs the City is set for trial in the districe court to-day The plaintiff seeks to recover damages for the loss of a fine horse, who was injured by a hole in the street.

There is a rage for Indian clubs at the deaf and dumb institution. The boys are practicing daily, and it will be a hot welcome which will be given the crank who recently threatened to come here to kill one of the professors.

Arrangements are being made for the organization of another lodge of Good Templars in this city. Those who are interested are requested to meet either at Bell & Hall's store, or in Babbit's hall next Saturday evening for the purpose of preliminary organization.

In the district court yesterday the case of Brown vs Wise was on trial. In this case the plaintiff, Mrs. Brown, seeks to recover of the defendant for board for some of his men who stopped at the Broadway hotel. The defense claims that the bill was raid in ful! There is a move on foot for the building of barracks for the Salvation Army. that is, a large wooden building where meetings can be held, and the religious work carried on permanently. Quite an amount has already been subscribed, and it is thought there will be no difficulty in securing the needed cash.

Jacob Ernsdorf, the proprietor of the Phoenix, is to move into Allen & Rapp's olo place on Main street. It is understood that the building thus vacated by him is to be occupied by Royal Amy, who has lately been considering the advisability of returning from Omaha and resuming business here in his old line,

On the 25th a lecture is to be given in the temple hall by State Master Work-man Wheat, of the Knights of Labor. In December he delivered a lecture before the order simply, and now he is to give a public one. This will give the people at large a chance to hear a labor advocate who has already gained an extended reputation as an orator of more than or dinary powers.

Ex-Justice Frainey says he is preparing the papers for his suit against the county, because the board cut down his claims for fees. The courts would be just the place for the clearing up of his offi-cial record, and the result would be watched with interest. The county board does not seem greatly frightened at the prospect, although some of them are prospected upon personal such for maxing voted against his bills.

A man named Gladwin was driving along Washington avenue yesterday, when a crowd of boys amused themselves by pelting him with snow balls. He first boy he could reach, proceeded to turn him upside down. The boy thus seized was one of W. R. Vaughan's sons, who claims to have been innocent of the transgression, and simply looking on at the fun, when he was thus attacked. Gladwin was arrested on a charge of as-

Yesterday afternoon an employe of L M. Aylesworth discovered two men cutting timber from the latter's land, and proceeded to have them arrested for malicious trespass. One of the two thus complained of was Dick Payne, a man who has born an excellent reputation who has borne an excellent reputation He says that he made arrangements wit Mr. Mayne to cut some timber on his land, and that if he had gone over on to Mr. Aylesworth's land it was by mistake, and not intentionally. The case has been continued until next Tuesday

DAILY BEE. TRAP SET FOR DRUGGISTS.

They Should Watch as Well as "Prey When Selling Intoxicants.

HAY AND WOOD MEN MOVING.

Another Sale of Acre Property-Hunting an Owner For a Stolen Cloak-A Boy's Fight and One Hurt.

Blackmailing Druggists.

Under the complications of the present laws governing the sale of intoxicating liquors in Iowa, all sorts of schemes are being worked to bother those who deal either legitimately or illegitimately in intoxicants. One of the latest schemes put up to entrap druggists has been tried on several of the Des Moines druggists, and the scheme is hable to be tried here

A man going about with his hand and arm done up in bandages, pretending to be a wounded coal miner, has had a little boy with him and asked for liquors for medicinal purposes. He has said that, as he was unable to sign his own name, his little boy would sign for him. As it seemed a clear case of need, the unsuspecting druggists, never suspecting other than honesty on the part of the man, sold him liquors and allowed the boy to sign for him. Since then it has been developed that the boy signed his own name, and suits now been brought to tecover against the druggists for selling liquor to i minor, the penalty for which is very heavy. Several cases have been brought in a justice's court, and are actually being tried on so preposterous a basis. Letters have been submitted by the druggists, alleged to have been written to them by the man, in which he wanted them to pay him for leaving town. It is impossible to believe that any such sort of blackmailing as this can succeed. Druggists should be held to as rigid accountability as any one else in the sale of inquor, and pharmacists of fending the law should be treated as rigorously as the man of lower life in clandestine saloon or boot-leg doggery. The severest penalty should be visited upon any druggist the same as upon any other offending vendor. But there can be no sympathy or no endorsement or excuse for those who would go in the name of a good cause, and seek by such a vile scheme as this to bleed reputable business men

Another Sale Made.

Another sale of property on the flats was completed yesterday, and the deed put upon record. J. P. Casady sells to Dr. Maerae live acres in Streetsville for $500 an acre. This is a desirable piece of property for residence purposes, and if platted will sell readily in lots for enough to bring the doctor a handsome return on his investment, and the lot buyers will also have no difficulty in getting an advanced value within the next year. There are numerous such sales being perfected, and as fast as they are recorded they will be announced. These actual sales give the laugh to the few croakers who claim that there is nothing to the boom but talk. There are many inquiries after property daily, and the long hoped for activity is not only coming but has come.

Struck By a Sled. Two boys, James Medley, aged about m, and Walter Paymo, got into some difficulty yesterday. The elder and larger boy struck the other with his sled, causing quite a serious bruise. The Medley boy has been complained of for assault, and will be given a hearing so soon as the injured boy is able to appear in court, Cloaking His Sins.

About a month ago a young fellow was arrested here for trying to sell a $150 sealskin cloak for $25. He gave his name as T. C. Laing, and said that the cloak belonged to his mother, who was at the transfer, and who, needing money, had given him the garment to pawn. There was no such woman to be found at the transfer, and so the young man was jailed on suspicion of having stolen it. No owner was found for the cloak, and the charge of vagrancy was lodged against him. On this he was sent to jail for thirty days. The officers have been watching him, and have been hunting for some clue to his history and as to how he got the cloak. It now appears that he is from Chicago, and that he is there known as "Sheeny" Laing. City Marshal Guanellahashad Laing's picture taken and ent it on there for identification, and it s thought that information now in pos session of the officers will lead to the finding of the place from which the cloak was stolen and possibly evidence enough to lengthen Laing's term of imprison-

Hay, Wood and Stubble.

Yesterday the city marshal commenced the enforcement of the order of the council designating the space between the city building and the city jail as the market place for hay and wood. For some time the hay and wood men have stood their loads on Main street, near the junction of Main and Pearl streets. The marshal was yesterday ordering all such to move to the designated market place, if they wanted to stand their wagons anywhere. The protests were numerous, and as predicted, there was trouble right away. The marshal filed a complaint against Stephen Dunn for refusing to move a load of hay when so ordered to, and his case will be heard this afternoon by Judge Aylesworth. The real cause of the trouble seems to be that there is locate d at the junction of Main and Pearl streets a private scale, which is doing much of the weighing, while the city weighmaster has his scales at the city building, and feels that the weighing should be done by him. As the council will not take any action to secure him the fees which he claims belongs to his office, and of which the city itself is entitled to a per cent, it seems that this move s made to compel the teams to stand where the law requires. The city mar-shal does not enjoy the way he was plamed by some of the council for not en forcing the ordinance and resolution, so he has taken hold. For a long time, even before the coming in of the present weighmaster, there has been much controversy over the question of city scales and it seems high time that the city council settled the matter once and for

If the duties of a city weighmaster are to consist of simply testing the scales of private parties and merchants once a rear, the council should take the re sponsibility of saying so. The council should decide fairly and above board whether anybody or everybody can weigh or not. The constant irritation and the frequent clashing should be don away with. As it is the city is reaping no benefit from what ought under the law to be a source of revenue, and all know that the gity needs revenue badly enough. It is also a fact that the citizens have elected a man to an office, the natural fees of which go into private pockets. It is also a fact, not disputed, that property belong-ing to the city is being used for private scales, and the attects used as a market place largely in consequence of the occu-pation of this property belonging to the If the city is to thus have its own property used for scales it should have its own scales located thereon, and get its share of the receipts, as provided by law, instead of letting its property, rent free, to private parties. So it seems to many who have looked over the situation. If it seems best to let any one and every body do public weighing, then the office of city weighmaster should be abolished or his duties limited, and then let as many weigh as please.

Hot Blaze at Malvern. The Norris block at Malvern caught fire about 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening and the blaze was the hottest one which Malvern has had for some time The block embraced six buildings, and was totally destroyed. The destroyed buildings, all frame, were owned and occupied as follows:

First on the west, two-story, belonging to William Norris and occupied by Me-Cabe & Co. with a stock of hardware. Next east, owned by John Glenn, lower part vacant, upper story used as a resi-dence by Mr. Douglass and family. Third east, Hays Bros., lower room yacant, upper room occupied by Hays Bros. as sleeping apartments. Fourth east, owned and occupied by Mr. M. E. Boehner with stock of groceries Next east small room owned by M. E. Boehner, vacant, and last on alley, two story frame owned by James Churchill unoccupied. There was no insurance or any of the buildings in Norris block. The insurance on the Norris building expired in September, and that on M. E. Boehner's within a week. McCabe & Co's, stock invoiced last week $5,500-insured for $2,000. Consid erable stock was removed, but in a more or less damaged condition. M. E. Boehner is reported to have had $400 insurance on his stock, which will probably cover his loss on the Munger & Goodwin carried $6,000 in surance in good companies. Their damage was estimated at from $600 to $1.000. J. J. Alexander had $5.00 insurance. Loss probably from $75 to $100. L. W. Boehner & Co. suffered comparatively slight damage—fully insured.

It required every exertion to save Roose & Wainwright's lumber yard northwest across the street from the burned block. The Central house, immediately west across the street from the Norris building, a large two story frame, owned by L. P. Anderson (unoccupied), was fired a time or two, but was finally saved with very slight damage.

The above details are gleaned from the Malvern Leader which, with commendable enterprise, got out an extra giving

No More Trouble From Monthly Pains.

Many women suffer intensely every month from the periodic illness of the sex. The following letter shows how the worst cases can be cured. It is addressed to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass. by a lady in Minnesota. "For years 1 have suffered from the falling of the Womb and painful menstruation; and, after using five bottles of your Vegetable Compound, I am almost entirely without pain during my monthly period, whereas before using it I used to be confined to my almost going into spasms, keeping some one waiting on me all the time, putting hot towels on my bowels and hot bricks to relieve me."

PYE VERSUS PYE.

A Habit Easy to Acquire and Difficult to Shake Off.

Texas Siftings: A very queer casethat of Pye versus Pye-was 'called in a New York court It was a divorce suit and the evidence went to show the kiss ing habit is very easy to acquire and more difficult to shake off than the opinm or cocame habit From the evidence it appears that Mr. Tompkins, one of the boarders at the Pye mansion, drifted into the habit of kissing Mrs. Pye. In fact, it is very little exaggeration to say that he became a chronic Pye-biter. They became so brazen that their kisses were suggestive of the ringing of a patent gong. In the Pye family the kissing seems to have been almost as persistent and promiseu ous as that to which the witnesses testi fied in the Beecher case. Mr. Dempsey, who boarded at the Pye house, was put on the stand and exam-

she was not present."
