NEW COLLEGE DEGREE.

A pompous gentleman of this city was recently approached by a friend who greeted him with outstretched hand and a pleasing smile.

Let me congratulate you, he cried.

Your college has given you a degree.

How—what? said the other.

I haven't seen anything of it.

What is it?

They have made you an L. G. G.

No, really, have they? An L. G. G.

CALIFORNIAN SKETCHES.

All Europeans are interested in at least three things in the United States; in Niagara because of its water; in Salt Lake City because of its Mormons; and in California because of its gold.

The December number of the German magazine contains three pictures of California life.

In the first, Herr Reyer gives a detailed and instructive description of the hydraulic gold washing of Nevada county.

He then dwells on the struggle between the miners and farmers.

How the former had the upper hand during nearly a whole generation.

How the latter finally won the victory.

How the former finally won the victory.

How the former finally won the victory.
