

Vigorously protest against the action of General Meigs. These gentlemen affirm that there was no intention of the officers contained in the proposals of the others and to the fact that they were not intended to be taken as such.

THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE

A Full Attendance at the Opening Session at Lincoln Yesterday.

ADDRESS OF THE PRESIDENT

Cold-Blooded Killing of a Deputy Sheriff and Escape of the Murderer—The Train Wreckers—State News.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state.

State Fair Men in Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska state board of agriculture met in the new university building this evening with the complete membership present and representatives from seventy-three of the county societies in the state. of the 15th. McCoy met Gunn on the morning of the 16th in Waters' saloon and pulled his revolver and without any warning shot Gunn twice, the first ball entering his bowels and coming out at the small of the back. The second shot went through his neck, killing him instantly. McCoy then attempted to escape by mounting a horse that was saddled for him, but as he started away the horse stumbled and fell. Deputy Sheriff Owens then opened fire at McCoy, and after two bullets had taken effect McCoy was killed and was instantly handcuffed and stuckled and placed in jail. During the night of the 17th, while Deputy Sheriff Owens was away, McCoy made his escape, assisted by friends, and is still at large. The crime is regarded as a cold-blooded murder, without cause.

Nebraska Firemen's Association. COLUMBIAN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The State Firemen's Association held its annual meeting here. Delegates are arriving. About 120 are expected to take part in the proceedings, which promise to be of special interest to the association and the location of the place to hold the tournament in August. The delegates are expected to arrive tomorrow. It is a very interesting association that has entrusted its interests to their keeping.

Don't About the Confessions. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Though the reported confession of the two train wreckers has been published our officials kept quiet and there is no doubt in the minds of some as to whether a confession has really been made, as there is no very good authority given. This is a mistake. The board of managers and officers can't see a confession. I see present the president of the county societies. I desire, gentlemen, to impress upon your minds the importance of this position. You are by law the representatives of the people. We are not laboring for personal aggrandizement, but for the good of the great state of Nebraska. We feel the responsibility of our respective places. To the railroad we are greatly indebted. We should like to acknowledge our obligations to them and the press of the state. I venture no other state is so favored. We can't be given the people of Lincoln for their energy in making the state fair a complete success. No other state has been so successful. The impression has gone abroad that Nebraska is behind no state in a handsome balance in the treasury.

A Light Vote Pooled. COLUMBIAN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The election held today to authorize the supervisors of Platte county to use $10,000 of unappropriated money now lying idle in the treasurer's hands towards constructing a bridge across the Loup Fork, resulted in a very narrow vote. The majority cast in favor of the appropriation in the city was 475.

Juror Grant Indicted. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—P. G. Grant, a resident of this city, was indicted in the United States court on three counts for interfering with the course of justice and obstructing a jury. This indictment comes from the trouble had with a jury in a case at the recent session of the court in Omaha.

A Three Weeks' Blockade Raised. CHADRON, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—A three weeks' blockade of the Missouri Valley road, between Chadron and Douglas, was raised today by the united work of eight engines and all the available men on the line of the road.

Sledgehammer Victim Improving. COLUMBIAN, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Charles Snyder, the young man in the Union Pacific engine that got hurt at Dunham, with a sledgehammer yesterday, is improving.

A Chadron Hardware Firm Assigns. CHADRON, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Christensen & Anderson, a hardware firm at this place, made an assignment to the sheriff today. Assets, about $10,000; liabilities, about $8,000.

The Omaha & North Platte Road. ASHLAND, Neb., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The extension of the Omaha & North Platte railroad has been completed from the land to Wahoo, and shipments of grain will be made over the road tomorrow. Passenger trains will be put on at an early day.

Her Preaching Too Sanctified. DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—A dispatch from Milo reports great excitement there growing out of the sanctification preaching of a lady evangelist, Mrs. K. Keenan, with whom she was called to assist the pastor, and her efforts have resulted in such intense feeling that one man, a prominent citizen, has gone insane and several others are very nervous on account of their reason. The official members have now decided to refuse the use of the church to the evangelist and she is hoped that the excitement will go down.

Counterfeit Butter Seized. PELLA, Ia., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Ten pounds of bogus butter were seized at a commission house here today, in which the counterfeit was very cleverly concealed. The butter was in two rolls of five pounds each, and the center of each was composed of pure butter. The maker is known and proceedings will be commenced against him at once under the buttering law, which carries a very heavy penalty.

Passenger Train Wrecked. DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—A passenger train on the Iowa Midland was derailed one mile west of Quigley, Clinton county, this morning. The engine and baggage car were badly wrecked. The track was torn up, and the house of Legacies of Clinton engineer, and Mill Tracery of Anamosa, aremen, were badly injured, being scalded by water from the hot water tank.

A Young Lad's Suicide. DENISON, Ia., Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—One of the youngest suicides ever known, Willie Koch, a boy of fifteen years, hanged himself last Sunday in Otter Creek township, in Crawford county. No cause is assigned for the rash act, but the lad's father, who is a farmer, is said to be in debt, and it is thought that the suicidal intent was inherited.

Manning on the Pacific Railroads. WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Secretary Manning has written a letter replying to the senate resolution calling upon him for information regarding the same. The report of the United States by the Pacific railroad companies. The secretary says that the amount of interest due from the companies on subsidiary bonds January 1 was $70,544,000. Twenty-one million five hundred and fifty thousand dollars have been paid on account of interest $49,350,000; aggregate indebtedness due and to become due on September 1, 1887, $21,194,000. The secretary says that if the bill prescribing the method of extinguishing the debt, principal and interest, by constant semi-annual payment becomes a law, it will be of great interest. The secretary says: "The constant semi-annual payment or bond of indebtedness required to control the indebtedness above mentioned, $11,075,100 (principal and interest), in eighty years, computed at the rate of 5 per cent per annum, retroacted semi-annually, is $1,824,063." The secretary says further that it is proper to consider whether the bill should be amended in trust by the government should be freed from offset in determining the indebtedness due the government as required in the bill under consideration.

A Horrible Practical Joke. LONDON, Jan. 18.—A frightful accident happened in this city yesterday. The Hebrew Dramatic club gave an entertainment at a theatre in Princess street, Spitafields, which was attended by about five hundred persons, mostly Jews. Some one in the gallery, who had a bottle of gas, shouted "fire." The gas was immediately turned off at the metre and a terrible panic ensued. People rushed in a mad mass for the door and numbers were trodden under foot. When the panic had subsided, it was found that twelve women and five youths of the crowd had been trampled, the rush to escape and many others injured.

The Beaver City Bank. WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The comptroller of the treasury has authorized the First National bank of Beaver City, Neb., to begin business with a capital of $50,000.

Wanted—Information of one J. E. Kelley, who was justice of the peace in Omaha in the year 1868. He will confer a favor by either coming or sending his address to this office, or anybody knowing his present address in this city.

THE LOVE-STRIKEN MAIDEN

Miss Van Zandt Still Determined to Marry Anarchist Spies.

THE GIRL'S AUNT PROSTRATED

Pittsburg Society Stirred Up Over the Affair—Probably That the Sheriff Will Yet Put a Stop to It.

Annancy and Love.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—A license for the marriage of August Spies and Nina Clarke Van Zandt was refused by the clerk building a few days before 10 o'clock yesterday. The subject, a young girl, was accompanied by Captain Black, called for the document, which was granted without hesitation. The event continues to excite wonderment and disgust, and the action of the girl's parents and herself remains incomprehensible. The Journal, discussing the subject, says editorially: "It is, of course, useless to reason with the demerited girl, who is proud of her demeritation and of the notoriety with which it has clothed her, but the law and the judgment of the court in which Spies was tried give Sheriff Matson control of him as a felon under sentence of death and the power the sheriff should exercise to save the girl from an infamous act and from a future full of woe, upon which she would enter if allowed to carry out the folly and indecency which she is desirous of committing. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is a widow, is under the circumstances, a revolting one. If Spies' cell will be permitted to occupy the cell, the girl will be permitted to occupy the cell, with all the sorrows that it will bring with it. This is a practical and not an indelicate one. It is impressed with irresistible force on every mind that the girl is a young woman, entering in view of the horrible violence of the proposed nuptials and the horrors that they will bring with them. The girl's aunt, Mrs. Van Zandt, who