DULL CABLES HELP THE DECLINE

A Weak and Unsettled Feeling Prevailes in Provisions—Very Little Change in Cattle—Hogs Fairly Active—Quotations.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—If California was in the wheat market to-day as a buyer it was so overwhelmed by the tremendous rush of sellers that it was completely carried out of sight. There was no war news and the quotations that came in this morning showed that foreign stock markets were not only higher but were altogether free from nervousness on the scare of war. There followed every advance in wheat on the false basis of a European war a break in price. Holders were wilder to sell than they were to buy, yesterday, and May wheat sold at the very opening to-day at 84 ⅝c. Cables were dull and helped the decline. New York led in the selling and English houses joined. The influences that were present at the opening lasted all through the regular session and there were no new ones of importance. Dispatches from Duluth showed pretty liberal receipts there—107,000 bushels—and said that the blockade having been raised there, larger receipts were to follow. Cables about noon said the continental wheat situation had improved a little, but it was not improvement enough to affect the feeling here. Cables, private and public, all showed that so far as the war excitement was concerned the foreign stock markets were not to-day much influenced. Prices of consols, of rents and of American securities were all higher considerably to-day than yesterday. From California there was no very exciting news. The weather in the wheat belt continued dry there. The condition of news was fairly illustrated by the movement in prices. The collapse of the war excitement took wheat down to 84⅝c at the very start and there was no fluctuation from that figure all the morning. May opened at 85¼c, sank to and closed at 84⅜c, a drop of 1⅛c on the finishing figure yesterday. February closed at 78c, March at 78⅝c, April at 79⅜c, and June at 86¼c. Corn was weaker and lower. Timid shorts covered on yesterday's bulge. This morning when wheat and provisions broke corn followed. Trading was light and entirely of a small scalping nature within a ⅝c range. May opened at 41¾c, sold at 41@41⅝c, and closed at 41⅜c, a ⅝c decline from yesterday's last sales. The shipping demand for low grades showed a slight improvement at steadier prices. Oats for future delivery were dull and had to be shaded ⅛c in order to effect sales; January 25⅝c, February 25⅝c, March 25⅞c. May sold at 30¾@30⅝c and June at 31c. In provisions a weaker and unsettled feeling prevailed, but the range of fluctuations was smaller. A great deal of long stuff was unloaded as the holder became scared at the break in wheat, the absence of war news and the backwardness of shorts about covering. Mess pork opened 15c lower at $12.65. May sold to $12.77½, gradually declined and closed at 1 o'clock at $12.67½. Lard was offered quite freely by a big operator, and May sold at $6.67½@6.75 and closed at $6.70. June sold at $6.72½@6.80. Compared with yesterday's close mess pork was 12½c and lard 2½@5c lower.

2:30 p. m.—On the afternoon session wheat was unsettled, and after selling lower, closed a shade higher. Corn was stronger. Provisions were steady. Wheat, March, sold at 78¼@78⅜c, April at 79¼@79⅜c, May at 84⅝@84¾c and 84⅝@84¾c, closing at 78⅜c for March, 79⅜c for April, 84⅝@84¾c for May, 86¼c for June. Corn, May, sold at 41⅝@41¾c, June 42c, closing at 41¾@41⅞c for May. Oats, February, 25⅞c, March 26c, May 30⅜c. Mess pork, February, $12.45, March $12.50, May $12.65@12.70, closing at a $12.67½. Lard, February, $6.47½@6.50, March $6.55, May $6.67½@6.70.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—CATTLE—The market to-day was without much change. Salesmen asked higher prices and seemed to think they had good reason for so doing, as the receipts were moderate for the day and were considerably lighter for the week than last week. Sales of the day were made somewhat unevenly, but on the whole prices were about steady. Nebraska 1065 to 1167 lbs, $3.65@4.25; Shipping steers, 1350 to 1500 lbs, $4.50@5.10; 950 to 1200 lbs, $3.40@4.00; stockers and feeders, $2.30@3.40; cows, bulls and mixed, $1.70@3.50; bulk, $2.35@2.80.

HOGS—At the opening business was fairly active and prices fully as strong as Monday, but after the opening of the provision market down town, which showed a lower range of prices, the hog market ruled slow and closed weak and about 5c lower than the opening. A few fancy heavy sold at $5.00@5.10, and best packing sorts at $4.80@4.95, with common at $4.50@4.75. Light sorts sold at $4.50@4.90.

FINANCIAL.

New York, Jan. 25.—MONEY—On call easy at 2@4½ per cent, closing at 2½ per cent.

PRIME MERCANTILE PAPER—6@7 per cent.

STERLING EXCHANGE—Firm but dull; $4.83¾ for sixty day bills; $4.87 for demand.

GOVERNMENTS—Government bonds were dull and rather heavy.

STOCKS—The stock market offered a violent contrast to that of yesterday, and in place of weakness strength and buoyancy were developed. The opening was very strong, first prices showing advances over last evening's final figures of from ⅛ to 1¾ per cent generally, while among the inactive stocks the gains ranged up to 4 per cent. About half of the active list showed advances of 1 per cent and over. Early advances were in many cases lost, with something in addition, after which the market settled down with a firm undertone, and prices slowly but steadily advanced, though subject to one or two insignificant reactions. The close was quiet and about steady at something better than the opening figures.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Tuesday, Jan. 25.

Cattle.

The receipts were heavier than yesterday by a hundred head but lighter than a week ago by 400 head. The market opened active and stronger on all grades of cattle. There were more buyers on the market and not enough cattle to go around. The demand was especially strong for good butchers' stock, such as cows, bulls, etc. The pens were cleared early in the day.

Hogs.

The receipts of hogs were more than double what they were yesterday but when compared with the receipts a week ago they show a loss of 1,300. The market opened active with a strong demand. Light hogs were in better demand than usual and sold for better prices in proportion than heavy hogs. Heavy hogs sold at about yesterday's prices. The hogs were all sold early.

Sheep.

There was one load of sheep in to-day but there was no demand and they were reshipped eastward.

OMAHA WHOLESALE MARKETS

General Produce.

Tuesday, Jan. 25.

The following prices are for round lots of produce, as sold on the market to-day. The quotations on fruits represent the prices at which outside orders are filled.

BUTTER—The receipts are not very heavy but the demand is inclined to be slow. The bulk of the butter has been selling at 16@18c for so long a time that it is difficult to raise the price while the demand is no heavier than at the present time, at the same time a few sales are made as high as 19@20c: Fancy country, 19@20c; choice country, 16@17c; sweet table butter, 14@15c; fair, 10@12½c; common, 8@10c.

EGGS—The egg market is in very much the same condition as it has been for the past week. While the receipts are liberal, taking all kinds of stock together, the receipts of strictly fresh eggs are light. There are a good many so called fresh eggs sold at 23@24c, but strictly fresh and bright stock that has been recandled at the commission houses is bringing 25c.

POULTRY—Poultry is not bringing quite as good prices as a week ago. The market is glutted with turkeys and there is very little sale for them at any price; 8c is about the outside for the best stock while a great deal of it is selling for 7c. Chickens are in fair demand at 8c for the choicest stock while good stock is selling as low as 7c. Geese and ducks sell at 8@9c.

GAME—The market is overstocked with small rabbits. Jack rabbits are also in liberal receipt but aside from that there is very little game coming in. Prairie chickens, quail and venison are out of season and it is contrary to the law for dealers to handle them. The law has never been very strictly enforced, and a good many dealers handle them after they are out of season: Ducks, Mallard, per doz, $1.75@2.00; ducks, Teal, $1.25@1.50; ducks, mixed, $1.25; geese, $2.50@3.00; Brants, $2.00; Jack rabbits, $3.00; small rabbits, 50@60c.

POTATOES—There are no new features in the market. The trade is limited almost entirely to the sale of small lots from the store. Choice stock from store, small lots 60@65c.
