THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, J. S. Geo. B. Tschuck, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company...

Subscribed and sworn to in my presence this 23rd day of January A. D. 1887.

Notary Public, N. P. Felt.

Geo. B. Tschuck, being first duly sworn, deposes and says that he is secretary of The Bee Publishing Company...

The demand for pig iron is now in excess of the supply and prices have been marked up to a point at which it is possible to import foreign iron and pay duty on it.

The repulse of the people will be followed by a rally against the corporations which will rally the venal gang of monopoly-henchmen...

Calhoun, of the State Democrat, takes up the scalpel in opposition to the Herald's scolding knife and handles the instrument in his work of dissecting truth from false democracy...

Frank Hiseock, who will succeed Warner Miller as senator from New York, is a sound and able-bodied representative of the Empire state...

All attempts to whitewash Whitmore will fail in this community. He is too dead to skin. Securing both his nomination and election as an avowed staunch supporter of General Van Wyck...

The movement to secure a reduction in the fees for recording instruments in the offices of our county clerks has taken form in a senate bill introduced early in the session...

Some of the more reasonable among the Canadian papers do not like the prospect of non-intercourse with the United States...

But after all, the blame should not rest so much on weakling and venal democrats. When Van Wyck polled sixty votes on Thursday eight republicans who had voted for him Tuesday deliberately withheld their support...

Betrayed by their Servants.

Before the first ballot was taken last Tuesday, the republican supporters of Van Wyck to the number of thirty-three had signed a mutual pledge to stand by him in or out of caucus as the majority would decide. Had this pledge been faithfully kept Van Wyck never could have been beaten...

and its outcome. They first organized themselves into a little band and threatened to go over boldly into the railroad caucus of which Dewesse and Captain Phillips were chief manipulators...

The Retaliatory Bill Passed.

The bill introduced last week from the foreign relations committee of the United States senate, providing for a retaliatory policy toward Canadian vessels in the event that the Dominion government shall adhere to its policy of excluding American vessels from the ports of Canada...

ushered in and introduced by Captain Phillips and Attorney Dewesse. The Union Pacific came up gently, with catlike, velvet tread, because Mr. Adams is a mild-mannered man...

The Telephone Case.

Bell telephone stock holders will await with interest the outcome of the suit now in progress in the United States supreme court, which is brought to test the validity of the patents under which the great telephone monopoly is operated...

ally combined in the effort to deny Bell's claims to priority of invention, and every phase of the telephone controversy will be brought out. There is a remarkable array of counsel on both sides...

It is Fatal to Fight Railroads.

Mr. Van Wyck has probably found out by this time that it is about as fatal for a republican senator to fight railroad corporations as to stand on the track when their trains go by.

Most Popular Man in Nebraska.

Senator Van Wyck may console himself with the reflection that he is the most popular man with the people in the state of Nebraska, but unfortunately for him, senators are not elected by popular vote.

Monopoly Methods.

An investigation of the methods by which Senator Van Wyck, the foe of monopolies, was defeated would form an interesting inquiry, and perhaps throw some light on certain items among the expenditures of the Pacific roads.

The Monopolies Had No Use for Him.

A man strongly in favor of tariff and known to be unfriendly to railroad corporations is out of place in the republican party. As soon as Senator Van Wyck's party found that he was that kind of man it dropped him.

The Defeat of Van Wyck.

Owing to the momentary stupidity of the democrats in the Nebraska legislature Senator Van Wyck has been defeated, and a man of small abilities, who owes his election to the preference of the money power, has been chosen in his place.

How Little We Know of Each Other.

How little we know of each other. We pass through the journey of life, with its struggles, its fears and temptations, its heart-breaking cares and its trials...

STATE AND TERRITORY.

Nebraska Jottings.

Jack rabbits are barking the fruit trees in Holt county. A bonus of $2,000 will induce the Union Pacific to cross at Wilcox.

PROMINENT PERSONS.

The Bostonians are much delighted with San Jose's provincialisms. O'Donovan Rossa now wears a regular cowboy's hat, but retains his broadcloth frock coat.

Is replaced by General Paddock. It is all right, but the next republican that talks in these headquarters about honor, trust and devotion due from the country to its old soldiers will hear something drop with a noise that will make a hundred-ton Krupp gun fire out for a freeraker.

Deadwood.

The new Presbyterian church at Sturgis has been dedicated. Mr. Box, of Yankton, has a war relic interesting to himself at least. It is a miniature of the battle of Gettysburg, passed downward and to the right and came out under his spine.

Colorado.

The building season has already opened up in Denver. Real estate transfers in Denver for three weeks of the month amounted to $1,000,000.

THE TYPE-WRITER.

It is Not a Modern Invention, but Was Used in 1830. Detroit Tribune: "The idea that the typewriter was invented by John Burt is a popular error."

Syracuse as it is.

It is somewhat of a relief to reach Syracuse after the crowds, and benzoin, and smells, and dirt of other Sicilian towns; moreover, Syracuse is one of the very few places of which the ideal, formed perhaps in years long past, is realized.

Iowa Items.

Belva Lockwood is stamping the state. A clothing factory is to be started in Burlington. Ackley struts to the front with a 900 pound hog.

Nebraska Items.

The Armstrong coal mine at Surrey was sold at public auction for $9,000. Marshalltown enjoyed the novelty of a lightning, thunder and rain storm, Saturday last.

Nebraska Items.

The Marble Rock creamery last year shipped 4,329,299 pounds of butter and 39,870 dozen eggs.

The Old Soldier Hacked.

The country is safe. The rebel brigades who have so long dominated the country will meet their match. One Logan, who claimed to have been a union soldier, has been succeeded by that grand old veteran, Charlie Farwell.

year. Advancing age is the chief motive of his action. Denver capitalists will start a bank in Rapid City. A stock board is being organized in Deadwood.
