CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, Feb. 3,- | Special Telegram to the BEE. |- Wheat opened %c up this morning on a break in consols to 993662100, and a further decline in rentes. The manufal and political news from the other side was exciting and somewhat incoherent, but the main fact that foreigners are themselves alarmed at the war preparations in progress obtruded itself into view in many ways. Heretofore the trouble has been that the excitement had been confined largely to the wheat pit, not being reflected in the fluctuations of French, German or English securities, and not a great while after the opening May wheat was selling at 85c. From 85c the market receded, and the price at 1 o'clock was within a sixteenth of the lowest of the morning session, viz.: 84%@34%c. The feature of the market during the first hour or two was the rather free covering of shorts, Fraley Carter doing perhaps the heaviest buying. The shorts did four-fifths of the buying that was done. The friends of wheat expressed faith that there would be a continuation of the advance. The 1 o'clock range was 1400%e under the top. only 16@14c above yesterday's closings. No export business of cousequence was done, but the increased strength abroad was a quick reflection of yesterday's slicht improvement here, Additional news was received here certifying to the damage to California crops and reduced acreage and further confirmation of the damaging reports from Ohio, Indiana and Kansas were received. But these items didn't have the slightest influence in regulating values. Neither did the fact that western points receipts up to this writing show a falling off of 300,000 bushels as compared with last week. Decreased seaboard shipments and the curtailed production of flour at Minneapolis had a neutralizing effect. There was action in corn to-day and the speculative business transacted was the largest witnessed at a single session since the opening of the new year. The principal feature of the deal was the selling on a large scale by the big longs and correspondingly free buying by the shorts. Jones, McCormick, Kennett & Co. led off by selling in the neighborhood of 1,000,000 bushels, half amount going in two jags, while Hutchinson, Lester & Co., Schwartz

& Dupee and Geddes unloaded large lines. e strength in wheat and provisions and bullish feeling developed in those lines made shorts in corn nervous and in the genmade shorts in corn nervous and in the general rush to cover the price of May property was run up from 41½c at the opening to 41½@41½c on the split. But when the excitement in wheat subsided an easier tone prevailed, prices took a back track and the early advance was lost, Kershaw, Brega & Dwight and Gillette appeared as good buyers and the regular scalpers dodged in and out of the crowd, taking advantage of every turn in the market. It was an excellent trading in the market. It was an excellent trading day for scalpers. The close of the morning session was quite active and at 1 o'clock quotations were \(\frac{1}{2} \) c above yesterday's latest bids. Seller March closed at \(36\) \(\frac{1}{2} \) c and May at \(41\) \(\frac{1}{2} \) c. The market is now believed to be pretty well evened up. Receipts continue higher. Foreign advices noted ceipts continue higher. Foreign advices noted a steady market for spot corn and in New York futures were light. Oats were fairly active and stronger, though prices for futures as usual fluctuated within a narrow range, closing at 1 o'clock at 25% for May. Provisions were active but less excited than yesterday and prices averaged considerably higher. and prices averaged considerably higher, though the closing range shows that the extreme top quotations established were not maintained. May pork opened and closed at $13.25 and the range of the morning was $13.1736(@13.42)4. Fluctuations were rapid. Several heavy local operators were in the market openly as buyers. The 1 o'clock price of May lard was $6.75 and of May ribs $6.80.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.-|Special Telegram to the BEE.]-CATTLE-Offerings to-day were considered only moderately large and there was a better feeling in the market. Salesmen did not get all they asked, but as a rule the market was stronger and values firmer all around, if not quotably higher. The quality was good, and the handy, medium weight cattle were better sellers than the choice heavy grades. Shipping steers, 1350 to 1500 lbs., $4.30@5.15; 1200 to 1350 lbs., $3.90@4.35;

GOVERNMENTS—Government bonds were dull but steady.

Stocks—The political complications in Europe and their depressing influence upon the markets there, and especially the London stock market, again became the most important factor in the course of prices here. The opening was decidedly weak, declines from last evening's final figures being from 's to ½ per cent, the latter in Reading. A steady depreciation took place, and by 12:30 material declines had been established. After that time, however, a better feeling prevailed, and by the delivery hour most stocks were at the highest for the day and considerably above i pening figures. A renewal of the depression occurred in the last three-quarters of an hour, and the market closed quiet and generally weak.

Cattle.

There were no especially new features in the market to-day. Cattle were selling about as yesterday but there were not enough in to make very much of a market.

Hogs.

The receipts were heavier than yesterday by 600. The buyers were all in the pens early. The market opened by one of the buyers, who was particularly anxious to fill his order, advancing the market 5\(\pi\)100 above yesterday's market. Two loads sold as high as $5.00. After buying about eight loads he dropped out and at the same time the other buyers decided they did not want any at those prices. The salesmen held onto their logs, until the afternoon, when they were forced to sell at prices 15\(\pi\)20c lower than the few loads sold early in the morning and 5\(\pi\) 10c lower than yesterday's market. The logs were all sold with the exception of one or two loads. Hogs.
