That Coal Has Been Discovered in Omaha

There can now be no doubt. The most skeptical are ready to admit that such is the case, and the future of Omaha is solved beyond a doubt.

Manufacturing of all kinds will be in full force within one year. Packing houses will spring up like magic in South Omaha. In fact we can not hold Omaha down. Now is the time to buy. Do not wait, as property is advancing every day, and you are losing money every day you wait.

This popular drama was presented at the opera house last evening by Charles L. Andrews' company, with Edward K. Collier in the title role. He portrayed the emotional parts and fully satisfied his reputation. Cecile Rasm, as his mother, Maria Strogoff, elicited applause at every appearance. Florence Arnold, as Nadia Fedor, was excellent. W. C. Crosby, the Irish-American reporter for the New York Herald, invariably came out ahead of the English reporter, Mr. Robertson, who was provided with everything necessary except the latest news, the Herald man appropriating everything belonging to the Englishman, and in return furnishing him the reports.

The scenery was fine and the company carry a large amount of it. Special hall diversions were interspersed by Melville Elison. The minuet drill led by Ida DeLange was a beautiful thing. Kissel, the lightning drill expert, brought down the house by his wonderful handling of the musket.

West Side Items. There is very strong prospect of a new Catholic church being built at this place this spring—over $1,200 has already been subscribed, and the $2,000 required will be raised without any trouble. They propose putting up a fine edifice. There has been some talk of a national bank being started here this spring, but whether the project will be consummated or not we do not know.

Parties have been here to see about buying the steam mill property here, and turning it into a fine roller mill. If satisfactory arrangements can be made it will be done.

The Methodist are in the midst of an interesting protracted meeting which is resulting in many conversions. The K. of L. Lodge is in a flourishing condition, new members coming in as fast as the work can be continued.

Personal Paragraphs. Mrs. L. H. Mitchell has returned from the east.

A. P. Coutant, of Avoca, was in the Bluffs yesterday.

Mrs. T. A. Clark has returned from the west after an absence of three weeks. Rev. A. Rogers has resigned the pastorate at the Congregational church at Dunlap.

Rev. W. T. Smith, presiding elder of this district, holds quarterly meeting services at Dunlap to-morrow.

Will Fapp returned yesterday from his eastern trip. His mother, whose health has been poor, remains for a time longer with eastern friends.

L. W. Ross, of Iowa City, is in the city, planning on soon again becoming a resident of this city, having resigned the position of chancellor of the law school.

Note—Be suspicious of persons who recommend any other article as "just as good," and take nothing else but Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

A party paid ten dollars for a horse at an auction sale. The horse was lame and bruised all over. A bottle of Salvation Oil costing 25 cents was used; he is now valued at two hundred dollars.
