

A ZOO AT THE CAPITAL CITY.

Movement for the Location of a Permanent Menagerie at Lincoln.
BARKEEPER BUTLER HELD OVER.
Arrest of a Woman on a Fraudulent Message—The Normal School Site Lobby—A Reported Elopement.

[FROM THE BEE'S LINCOLN BUREAU.]
A gentleman from St. Louis, Mr. G. M. Ziedervest, was in Lincoln Thursday of the past week looking the ground over with a view of establishing in Lincoln a zoological garden. He has formerly operated at St. Louis and has, it is reported, 150 cages of wild animals. Mr. Ziedervest proposes, if the citizens of Lincoln will donate to him $15,000, to locate in this city, that he will at once proceed to build the necessary houses and become a permanent fixture here. Mr. Z. states that in St. Louis, where he has been a few years, during the year 1886, 67,000 people attended his gardens. He believes that here, should he locate, he could draw from all neighboring towns scores of people to witness his display. In addition to his cages of animals he has connected with his museum a gymnasium and like attractions. He informed the Bee that citizens of Lincoln were considering his proposition and that without doubt it would be accepted, in which event in the early spring he would locate in Lincoln. This will be a new feature for a western city, and will no doubt have a great influence in making this city one of attractions.

BOUND OVER TO COURT.
The bartender, Butler, who disappeared the morning a few days ago accompanied by $150 of his employer's money, was caught at Crete and returned Friday to the city and locked up in jail. When Butler departed he left for the east, but pursuit becoming warm and close on his tracks, he doubled back over the line as far as Crete with the evident intention of escaping in that way. Yesterday Butler was brought before Justice Brown, who held a preliminary hearing in the case and bound the prisoner over under $200 bonds to answer at the coming term of court.

QUEER PROCEEDINGS.
A woman whose name is Mrs. Hall, of Nemaha county, has been in the hands of the police for the last day, having been arrested in this city on the charge of adultery, the order for her arrest coming to the police by telephone from Syracuse, Neb. The telephone message stated that it came from Sheriff Fowler of Nemaha county, and that he would proceed at once to this city for the woman. Yesterday the man who stated that he ordered the arrest arrived in the city, but it proves not to be Sheriff Fowler or any other at all, so far as the police can ascertain, and it looks as though it was a matter of personal or family vendetta into which the police have been entrapped.

AFTER NORMAL SCHOOLS.
A large number of citizens of Nebraska towns interested in securing a new normal school have been in the city the past week. Principal among these delegations has been those from Loup City, who came down in large numbers headed by O. B. Willard, and who made their influence felt for their town as the best location for an institution of that kind. Mr. Willard is one of the appointees of Governor Taylor to attend the American agricultural convention at Lake Charles, La., and he left yesterday for the south over the Missouri Pacific to the point of his destination.

HIGH LIFE ELOPEMENT.
It was reported on the 13th of yesterday that Kirby Hammond, employed in the Capital National bank, had eloped with the daughter of Judge Mason, one of the members of the railroad commission. They are said to have run away together in a hack, and it is not yet known if the daughter's flight. He was opposed to Hammond's attentions to his daughter on the ground of her youth, and undoubtedly will not receive the news with the greatest favor.

CITY ITEMS.
Yesterday a man named George Callan was discharged from the penitentiary, having served his sentence of a year in that institution. Callan was sent from St. Louis, Mo., to county on a charge of assaulting his wife with intent to commit murder.
The legislators started homeward from Lincoln yesterday in large numbers, and the law-makers will be absent until the reconvening on Wednesday. Lincoln citizens are hearing the reports of a sixty-day session with every evidence of satisfaction.

The police are at work ridding the offenders against the city ordinances who have failed to take out their proper license. A hack driver named Wilcox was taken to the precincts of the court yesterday to answer to the charge.

T. P. A. NOTES.
Post A is constantly receiving additions to its membership, and before long the post is certain that it will have to secure new and more commodious quarters in order to accommodate the membership.
The ball and banquet foot up a great success in every particular, and the boys cleared a large sum of money which they will have on hand for the aid and relief of deserving members.

Among the callers at the club headquarters the past week were E. Carehill, New York; E. E. Stovp, Boston; A. Gordon, Wyoming; George M. Wilson, director of the National T. P. A.; J. O. Bure, U. S. Minister, N. Y.; Colman, Chicago; O. B. Willard, Loup City.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.
The Pleasant Hour club held its eighth party of the season on Thursday evening, at Temple hall, and a large number of the club membership were present.

The Capital City club held one of its enjoyable parties at Temple hall on Wednesday evening.
Governor Dawes has gone to Milwaukee for a few days' visit and to meet Mrs. Dawes, who has been visiting with friends in that city for some time.

The Misses Hawke, of Nebraska City, were guests of Lincoln friends the past week and visitors at the halls of the legislature.

YOUTHFUL DANCERS.
Miss Almy's Scholars Give a Fancy Dress Ball.
Masonic hall looked like a small section of fairy land last night. The occasion was a fancy dress ball given by Miss Almy to her pupils, about thirty of whom were present dressed in costumes rich and unique. The youthful dancers ranged from six to fifteen years of age. All of them went through the various dances with an ease and grace which was wonderful. The sight was indeed a pretty one and was enjoyed by about 200 spectators—the fond papas and mammas, mothers and sisters, uncles and aunts of the little ones. Among the other numbers, the gavotte and octagon quadrille, the latest dances, were gone through with to a degree of precision which was remarkable.

Among the dancers noticed in costume were the following: "Little Bo Peep," Florence Morse, "Spring," D'Arleve Helen Cox, "Martha Washington," May Mount, "Red Riding Hood," Bobbie Cinders, "The Fairy," Grace L. Allen, "Fairy," Edith E. Smyth, "Astrologer," Ethel Morse, "Bo-Peep," Mary Morse, "Venus," Susie Hantoon, "Mollie Hubbard," Flora Webster, "Golden Locks," Mabel Hellman, "French Peasant," Lizzie C. Allen, "Margery How," Edith Anderson, "Betty the Lady," "The King of Hearts," "Jack Frost," Edgar Johnson, "Sindbad the Sailor," Charles Farmer, "Jack Sprat," George Ginnings, "The King of Hearts," Eddie Davis, "Papa," Robert Goodwin, "Prince of Wales," Carlton Mathewson, "Puck," Clayton Goodrich, "Highland Lady," Albert Billings, "Knave of Hearts," Arthur Anderson, "Nobleman," Nattie Shelton, "Lord Fontenoy," Harry Stephens, "George Washington," Willie Hany, "Sailor Boy," M. Gordon Clark, "Continental," Victor Paul, "Little Boy Blue," "Chas. Pratt," "Jack Frost," Broder Louis Pratt, "Jack Frost," George Miner, "Page."

Settled the Claim.
In the district court yesterday the Union Pacific railroad company confessed judgment in the sum of $1,000 in favor of Phillip Flannery, who brought suit against the company for damages for that amount for personal injuries sustained by falling through a defective stairway while in the employ of the company at the car shops.

Selling.
The sale of August Dorman's stock under execution, took place yesterday before a large crowd of purchasers.

AMUSEMENTS.
CASTLETON.
Vivacious Kate Castleton and her excellent company closed her season of three performances of "A Crazy Patch" to a large and appreciative audience at Boyd's last evening.
Next Thursday evening, February 20th, Haverly's Minstrels, under the personal management of J. H. Haverly, will appear at Boyd's opera house for one performance. This is Mr. Haverly's big and only minstrel company, the original Mastodon, and includes "Billy" Emerson, the king of minstrelsy; Geo. A. Hyman, Pat's, the champion banjo player of the world; and three Germans, the only producers of minstrel novelties and the only other minstrel profession. Colonel Haverly will be here with the company.

THE WORLD.
The sensational melodrama, "The World," will be produced at Boyd's opera house on Tuesday and Wednesday. A special matinee will be given on Tuesday, the day of its birthday. "The World" is a drama of absorbing interest and has the most realistic scenic and mechanical effects of any play on the stage.

AT THE PEOPLE'S.
The Smart Comedy company has done a splendid business at the People's for the past week. They will continue another week. "The Gold King" will be presented to-night.

THE ROYALS.
To-night the German comedy company, with Mr. Donald, a well-known German comedian, appears in Schiller's "Robbers" at the Play.

A Jeweler's Failure.
P. L. Edholm, who has been engaged in the jewelry business on Fifteenth street near Douglas for the past six months, has yielded to financial embarrassment and surrendered his stock to Edholm & Akin to satisfy a chattel mortgage in the sum of $1,500. There are eastern creditors, principally in Chicago, whose claims will amount to $2,000. The store was closed yesterday. The stock on hand will barely satisfy the claim of Edholm & Akin. P. L. Edholm left the city several days ago and is supposed to have gone to Alabama, where he has relatives. The failure is attributed to Edholm's lack of attention to his business.

An Electric Fire.
Last night an alarm of fire was occasioned by the smoking of the remaining key of the wire by which the Omaha Electric Company supplied electric light to J. Hammer's store, 723 North Sixteenth street. When the engines reached the store it looked as if the casement over the entrance were on fire and water was applied and eventually the panes were cut open. But no flames could be found. It then became evident that all the smoke had come from the regulating mechanism of which had been overloaded by electricity.

Her Husband Was Cruel.
Maria Borth commenced suit in the district court yesterday for a divorce from her husband, Valentine Borth, to whom she was married in Omaha in December, 1877. The plaintiff alleges that on account of the extreme cruelty of her husband she was compelled to leave him in 1883, and has not since lived with him. She prays for a divorce and the custody of their children.
