

LEGISLATIVE FORECAST.

The Order in Which Business Will Probably Be Transacted at Lincoln. MUCH WORK FOR THIS WEEK.

A Drunken Gambler Ruins the Town of West Point for a Short Time.

A Nebraska City Poisoning. The Legislature's Work. LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 22.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Practically, thus far, the legislature has done nothing.

Three Burglars Captured.

Boonville, Mo., Feb. 22.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Last night burglars entered the hardware store of Clara Bruns at Madrid, this Boone county town, and carried off all the fine cutlery, revolvers and silverware in the store, walking out through the front door. They stole a hand-car and proceeded to Grimes, where they left it and started across the country on foot.

The Governor's Ways Done.

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 22.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The governor has done nothing to-day. The legislature has done nothing.

A Machinist's Horrible Death.

Mount Pleasant, Ia., Feb. 22.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Charles From, a Swede employed in the Western Wheel and Scrap works, was killed to-day while working about the machinery.

Struck by a Train.

Lucas, Ia., Feb. 22.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—At 10 o'clock this afternoon the west bound fast mail struck and instantly killed W. H. Townsend, bookkeeper of C. C. Haskins, lumber dealer. He was forty-five years old and leaves a wife and two children.

A New President Elected.

Grinnell, Ia., Feb. 22.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The trustees of Iowa college met here to-day and elected as president of the college Rev. George A. Gates, of Montclair.

Indiana Prison Horrors.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 22.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—A member of the house committee engaged in investigating the affairs of the Indiana prison, and the result of the investigation is that the warden, who is charged with the management of the prison, has committed many crimes of a most revolting nature.

Condemned by Nebraska Veterans.

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 22.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska veterans have condemned the president of the Nebraska veterans' association for his conduct in the matter of the pension bill.

Fire at Columbus.

Columbus, Neb., Feb. 22.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—James M. Cresop lost his dwelling and part of his furniture this morning between 10 and 11 o'clock.

Executed by Nebraska Veterans.

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 22.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska veterans have condemned the president of the Nebraska veterans' association for his conduct in the matter of the pension bill.

Set Aside the Verdict.

Columbus, Neb., Feb. 22.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The Nebraska veterans have condemned the president of the Nebraska veterans' association for his conduct in the matter of the pension bill.

Flooded With Electric Light.

Webster, Neb., Feb. 22.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The long expected electric light made its debut in Webster to-day.

Poisoned by Impure Food.

Nebraska City, Neb., Feb. 22.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The family of J. W. Black, president of the Nebraska City Canning company, consisting of his wife, three children and mother-in-law, is lying in a precarious condition resulting from eating impure food.

A Successful Revival.

Wahoo, Neb., Feb. 22.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The union revival meetings have closed and the result is very creditable.

An Emigrant Injured.

Columbus, Neb., Feb. 22.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—Henry Mariatt, of Louisville, Ill., was moving out to Odessa, Buffalo county, Neb., and while attending to a car of stock near the switching of the rails at this place this morning cut his right foot between the bumpers, crushed two of his toes and the front part of the foot.

Survivors Start Out.

Norfolk, Neb., Feb. 22.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—A party of B. & M. railroad survivors started here to-day, engaged teams for several months and drove west, ostensibly to Nebraska, but in fact they would not disclose their purposes.

Fatal Accident at South Bend.

South Bend, Neb., Feb. 22.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—An man named Cox was run over and killed by the evening train to Lincoln last night, near South Bend. Cox was an old man, living near South Bend. He was hit in the head and in some way he was caught on the track and run over.

Busington Wins the Shoot.

Keosau, Ia., Feb. 22.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—A contest in pigeon shooting between Busington and another man took place at Keosau to-day. Busington won the contest by a large margin.

Law and Order Officers.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 22.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The national convention of the law and order league was held here to-day.

Cyclones Cross the Rockies.

Orville, Cal., Feb. 22.—A cyclone passed near here last night and for a distance of six miles carried everything before it, destroying fences and cabins. Its breadth was about fifty feet. It has never reported west of the Rocky mountains.

Many Nominations Confirmed.

Washington, Feb. 22.—The following were the postmasters confirmed to-day: L. P. Howe, Editor; E. J. Hines, Advertiser; G. C. Rodman, Washington, Ia.; George P. Neal, Columbus Junction, Ia.; William H. Knox, Des Moines, Ia.; James N. Davis, Knoxville, Ia.; Alexander Charles, Cedar Rapids, Ia.; E. A. Kammeyer, Beardstown, Ia.; G. B. Foster, National Stock Yards, Ill.; W. A. White, White Hall, Ill.; G. A. Kellenberger, Mendota, Ill.; J. A. Able, Auburn, Ill.; Charles Wiseman, Beardstown, Ill.; George C. Mendenhall, Beardstown, Ill.; David Hauser, Mitchell, Dak.; M. M. Tohey, Sank Center, Minn.; E. S. Kemp, Montevideo, Minn.; P. V. Cottrell, Fort Howard, Wis.; E. A. Glover, Jr., New Richmond, Wis.; W. A. Wheeler, Alton, Neb.; A. F. Bigelow, Keosau, Ill.; and Alvin H. Gray, Keosau, Ill.

Who Will Succeed Sherman?

Washington, Feb. 22.—There is an impression abroad to-night that either Senator Hoar or Senator Ingalls will be elected to succeed Senator Sherman as president of the senate. It is not known that either is a candidate for the honor, and the impression has for a basis only informal preliminary talks this afternoon among senators. In addition to their well known names, the names of experience both are expert parliamentarians. It is thought that the senator selected will fill the position at merely during the recess but during the next congress.

Patrol Tickets for Sale.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Patrol tickets for sale—A very choice seats. Enquire at the Cozzens.

Ruby's Denial.

Ruby Baker, an inmate of Olive Branch establishment, called at the Bee office last night to deny the published statement that she had attempted suicide by swallowing morphine yesterday morning. She explained that she had been rushing the blood from her head, and that it was one of those affections that caused her illness.

Chief Galligan says that the patent extension ladder, ordered some time ago in Chicago, will be shipped from that place to-day.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

Senator Sherman Tenders His Resignation as President Pro Tem.

MORE GRAND ARMY MEMORIALS.

Representative Dragg Reports a Substitute for the McCaddo Coast Defense Bill—Proceedings in Both Houses.

SPORT ON THE WING.

Grand Sweepstakes Shooting Matches at Sportsmen's Park.

The grand sweepstakes shooting matches, under the auspices of Penrose & Hardin, commenced yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, with the promise of an excellent day of sport.

THE LABOR CONFERENCE.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 22.—The industrial labor conference called by a meeting held in Indianapolis last September, was to have met to-day at noon, but at that time the doors of Music hall were closed and a knot of half a hundred delegates stood on the steps awaiting admission.

THE TURNER BALL.

Three Thousand People at the Mardi Gras at the Expositions.

THE BICYCLE TOURNAMENT.

On Sunday evening the lovers of bicycle sport will be given an entertainment of exceeding variety and excellence at the exposition building.

THE BICYCLE TOURNAMENT.

On Sunday evening the lovers of bicycle sport will be given an entertainment of exceeding variety and excellence at the exposition building.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—Mr. Bland of Missouri, as a privileged question, called up the vetoed bill increasing the pension of John W. Ferris.

THE MARDI GRAS.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 22.—[The Rex process] this afternoon was a brilliant affair, embracing a series of humorous and burlesque tableaux.

Who Will Succeed Sherman?

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—There is an impression abroad to-night that either Senator Hoar or Senator Ingalls will be elected to succeed Senator Sherman as president of the senate.

Patrol Tickets for Sale.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—Patrol tickets for sale—A very choice seats. Enquire at the Cozzens.

Ruby's Denial.

Ruby Baker, an inmate of Olive Branch establishment, called at the Bee office last night to deny the published statement that she had attempted suicide by swallowing morphine yesterday morning.

Chief Galligan says that the patent extension ladder, ordered some time ago in Chicago, will be shipped from that place to-day.

A NEW PARTY IN THE FIELD.

Proceedings of the Industrial Labor Conference at Cincinnati.

TEN LADY DELEGATES PRESENT.

One of Their Number from Michigan Makes a Speech Which is Most Enthusiastically Received—Other Delogues.

THE LABOR CONFERENCE.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 22.—The industrial labor conference called by a meeting held in Indianapolis last September, was to have met to-day at noon, but at that time the doors of Music hall were closed and a knot of half a hundred delegates stood on the steps awaiting admission.

THE TURNER BALL.

Three Thousand People at the Mardi Gras at the Expositions.

THE BICYCLE TOURNAMENT.

On Sunday evening the lovers of bicycle sport will be given an entertainment of exceeding variety and excellence at the exposition building.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—Mr. Bland of Missouri, as a privileged question, called up the vetoed bill increasing the pension of John W. Ferris.

THE MARDI GRAS.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 22.—[The Rex process] this afternoon was a brilliant affair, embracing a series of humorous and burlesque tableaux.

Who Will Succeed Sherman?

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—There is an impression abroad to-night that either Senator Hoar or Senator Ingalls will be elected to succeed Senator Sherman as president of the senate.

Patrol Tickets for Sale.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—Patrol tickets for sale—A very choice seats. Enquire at the Cozzens.

Ruby's Denial.

Ruby Baker, an inmate of Olive Branch establishment, called at the Bee office last night to deny the published statement that she had attempted suicide by swallowing morphine yesterday morning.

Chief Galligan says that the patent extension ladder, ordered some time ago in Chicago, will be shipped from that place to-day.

A VERY MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR.

A Man Supposed to Have Been Murdered in the Boom.

A mysterious and somewhat startling find was made in the bottom south of the city yesterday afternoon, by Messrs. Ryan and Patton, two men employed at Max Meyer & Bros.

AMUSEMENTS.

"THE WORLD."

J. Z. Little, an actor of considerable ability, opened an engagement at Boyd's opera house yesterday afternoon in "The World," a melo-drama abounding in fine scenic display and mechanical effects.

THE COUNCIL.

President Boehl, Councilman Dalley and City Clerk Southard met at the council chamber last evening and after an exchange of opinion as to what kind of a law the city councilmen who are south are having adjourned for one week.

A Varnish Manufactory.

Mr. J. H. Guilford, recently of Detroit, has removed to Omaha and is looking for a location for a varnish manufactory.

Violently Insane.

Conrad Eggert who lives in West Omaha was arrested yesterday on the charge of being insane. He was amusing himself by throwing bricks through his neighbor's windows while the officers found him. He will be taken before the commissioners of insanity to-day.

Cigar Makers Rebel.

NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 22.—The tobacco workers' and cigarette makers' assemblies of the Knights of Labor of this city have decided to hold a strike in honor of the anniversary of the Knights of Labor.

The Howe-Sheehan Marriage.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—New Haven dispatch to the Herald quotes Miss Fannie Howe, who married Edward Sheehan, as declaring that she was under the influence of drugs prescribed as medicine when she married.

Care for the Children.

Children feel the debility of the changing seasons, even more than adults, and they become cross, peevish, and uncontrollable. The blood must be cleaned and the system invigorated by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Purify the Blood.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is characterized by three peculiarities: 1st, the combination of precious agents; 2d, the proportion; 3d, the process of securing the active medicinal qualities.

WANTED.

RAW FURS!

WEAK MEN.

Dr. Chase's Last Receipt Book.

MEMORIAL EDITION.

Dr. Chase's Last Receipt Book.