CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

Cattle Active and Higher—Hogs Still in Demand.

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—CATTLE—There was more life in trade to-day and prices were generally about 5@10c higher on all good stock. Desirable cattle sold fully 10c higher than Friday and considerable better than the lowest days of last week. Among the offerings were some Illinois Hereford steers and heifers, averaging about 1050 lbs, sold at $4.55. The market was not very active, but the trade was fairly satisfactory to salesmen. Shipping steers, 1350 to 1500 lbs, $4.60@5.15; 1200 to 1350 lbs, $4.15@4.60; 950 to 1200 lbs, $3.65@4.15. Stockers and feeders, $2.50@3.80; cows, bulls and mixed, $2.00@3.65.

HOGS—During the week ending Tuesday night values advanced 25@30c, with active demand from day to day. Although the numbers received are fully up to the corresponding time in February last, the weight and quality are lower and of less value. Prices are now higher than any time in 1886, and the outlook is that values may go as high as in 1884. The receipts for the day were 16,000, for the week so far, 27,800, and for the same time last week 20,150. Business was again active, with an advance of 5@10c, a few fancy heavy selling at $5.80@5.95, and packing sorts at $5.60@5.75, with common at $5.40@5.50. Light sorts sold at $5.25@5.60; Yorkers, $5.40@5.50.

Miss Maud Banks, daughter of General N P., is now regularly on the stage. She is playing Parthenia in "Ingomar" in the small towns of Pennsylvania. The general, who is seventy-one years of age, still holds the office of United States marshal in Boston, and runs an experimental farm of sixty acres just outside of the city.

William E. Ries, of Newcastle, Pa., put his horse and cutter under a shed while he transacted some business. The horse backed out, trotted to the railroad bridge over the Nashannock creek, and then walked deliberately across, stepping on the ties, which are from one to three feet apart, and dragging the cutter after him.

For several months Mev. Henry Newton, of Union Point, Conn., suffered from slight pains in his left arm and thought it was rheumatism. The other day, while he was dressing, the arm broke in two places above the elbow. Examination showed that the bone had been eaten by cancer. The limb was amputated and Mr. Newton is in a fair way to get well.

In 1863 William Cooper, of Yell county, Arkansas, enlisted in the southern army. In 1863 he was captured and sent to Illinois. He escaped and went back to Yell county, but could not find his wife. Then he became a tramp until a few days ago, when he found his wife at Shiloh, Ark. She had married and buried two husbands and separated from a third, and was mighty glad to see William.
