

THEY RAISED THE LONG HAUL. The Burlington Road Turns the Tables on Governor Larabee's Request. IOWA HARD CIDER MUST GO.

It Jumped the Wrong Way. Des Moines, Ia., March 6.—[Special to the Bee.]—The business men of Des Moines and generally, are very much concerned over the effect upon commerce of the new railroad law. There is a good deal of western and half-concerned fear that western interests are more likely to suffer than to be benefited by its operation.

THE WEEK IN WALL STREET. The Course of Speculation Very Erratic and Disappointing. New York, March 6.—[Special Telegram to the Bee.]—The week taken together was a disappointment in various interests in the stock market, the course of speculation having been very erratic and frequently the reverse of what was expected.

THE ROMANCE OF HISTORY. The early history of Louisiana reads like a romance of the middle ages. Its pages seem to resound with the warlike din of trumpet-blasts, the clashing of arms, the frequent marshaling of knights to battle—or else with the soft, sweet strains of minstrelsy.

THE HAUGHTY CREOLE. He so demeaned himself. Up to a date shortly preceding the late war Creole society remained as exclusive, as difficult to penetrate, as the most fastidious and aristocratic of the old world.

THE WIFE OF THE FUTURE. The woman of the future will be a woman of the present. She will be a woman of the present, and she will be a woman of the future.

THE PATRONS OF THE NATIONAL GAME. The patrons of the national game in this country are getting very enthusiastic over the prospects of the Des Moines club this season. The way the club has started in New Orleans has raised public expectation very high.

CONCERNING THE CREOLES. Romantic History of This Peculiar Class of Southern People. SENSITIVE, SOLDIERY, SOCIAL.

Old Times in New Orleans—Fighting Under Jackson—Great Mistake in the Meaning of a Name. Pure Whites. A New Orleans correspondent of the San Francisco Chronicle writes: Although the early history of that large territory which was once embraced under the title of Louisiana is closely associated with the names of Hernando de Soto in 1539, of Joliet and Marquette and La Salle in 1673 and 1682, yet these first explorers left no colonists behind them.

March April May

Are the months in which to purify the blood, for at no other season is the body so susceptible to being attacked by miasmata. The peculiar purifying and revivifying qualities of Hood's Sarsaparilla are just what are needed to counteract the effects of the system, and its debilitating effects of mild weather. Every year increases the popularity of Hood's Sarsaparilla, for it is just what people need in this season. It is the blood purifier of the age. If you have never tried it do so now, and you will be convinced of its peculiar merit.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. "Seven months I suffered greatly. My whole system seemed to be entirely paralyzed. My ambition was gone, had pains in my back, and a feeling of lassitude which could not throw off. I was treated unsuccessfully for kidney trouble. One day at my brother's I saw a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and determined to try it. Before the first bottle was taken I felt several things, and succeeded in losing the medicine off on an evening, and recommend it for kidney or liver complaints."—MRS. W. H. STUART, 557 Allen Avenue, New York, N. Y.
