

SUTTON'S ONWARD PROGRESS

Interesting the Vatican were yet ripe for discussion. "So, like a sensible pontiff," said a prominent Catholic to-day, he felt it wisest not to compromise himself.

After the secret consistory the new cardinals held the customary receptions. Cardinals Gibbons and Taschereau received the congratulations of their friends in one of the halls of the propaganda palace, but, like the pope, they were non-committal in expressing their views.

"JO-HE"

The above is the name of a MAGNETIC OIL, which flows from the rocks in Texas and that I candidly believe possesses MORE REAL MERIT AS A CURATIVE than ALL OTHER REMEDIES. I believe the people of Iowa and Nebraska will agree with me in this after having tested its MAGICAL HEALING POWERS.

Subjoin a few extracts from letters received, also a few testimonials. Read carefully and write to any of these parties enclosing a stamp for reply, and learn what they will say.

Allow me to say in conclusion that I have the general agency for Iowa and Nebraska for a term of ten years, and shall make Omaha my home for the time, so that all will have an opportunity to test the merits or demerits of King "Jo-He."

The distressed who are too poor to pay full price for this GREAT CURATIVE will on proper wording be allowed a reduction of one-half the regular price.

I believe in Jo-He and wouldn't offer a can of it for sale if I did not. These living outside this city, in Nebraska or Iowa, can have it sent them with safety by mail express.

Price of large cans, $2.50, small trial size, one-fourth pound, 75 cents. J. B. Jones, of Burgoon, Washington county, Texas, discoverer and sole proprietor.

T. B. FORGY, Agent for Iowa and Nebraska, Omaha, Neb. ROOM 5 ARCADE HOTEL.

Extracts from a letter from Mr. H. B. Jones, written February 19, 1887. "Mr. Forgy: Yours received. Glad always to hear from you. I have been cured of my rheumatism and I mean it is 20 per cent better for some time."

March 1, 1887. Mrs. D. R. S. Tonney writes me: "There are not few physicians who are willing to give up the cure of a patient, but I have been cured of my rheumatism and I mean it is 20 per cent better for some time."
