

AFTER HIS REINSTATEMENT.

FAVORABLE ACTION EXPECTED.

The Cozad Roller Mill Incorporated—A Bad Burglar Sentenced to the Pen—Capital City Happenings.

[FROM THE BEE'S LINCOLN BUREAU.]

Yesterday in supreme court a petition was presented to the honorable court by J. M. Woolworth, of Omaha, asking the reinstatement of L. C. Burr, of Lincoln, who about a year ago was disbarred by the court for a term of two years for his relations to the state as attorney for Matt Zimmerman, the Minden murderer. As mentioned in the Bee some time since this action asking for reinstatement was commenced by friends of Mr. Burr and the petition as presented shows the signatures of many of the prominent attorneys in the state, including the committee that recommended his disbarment. There seems to be no opposition to Mr. Burr's reinstatement and action favorable by the court is expected. The following named attorneys signed the petition asking reinstatement and a personal letter from General Cowin is appended: N. S. Harwood, L. W. Billingsly, Jno. M. Thurston, C. A. Tibbitts, K. R. FIVE YEARS IN THE PEN.

The young highway robber who entered Senator Sprick's room sometime back and attempted, by revolver and threat, a robbery, has been sentenced in the district court to five years in the penitentiary. The trial was short, the testimony direct, and it took the jury but very little time to find the chap guilty. He appealed to the mercy of the court, but the judge saw no grounds for leniency, especially as he had been on trial in the full term for attempted robbery at state fair time. The man has gone under the name of Lewis while he has been hanging around Lincoln, but the name is an assumed one and he has respectable people living in Illinois.

ABOUT THE CITY.

Sheriff Skinner, of Clarinda, Ia., was in Lincoln yesterday after the man Doc Wilson, who is wanted at Essex, Mo., for burglary committed a year ago. Wilson was captured in Lincoln last spring and has not been back until the present time when the police immediately effected his capture.

The city council unanimously confirmed the action of the mayor in reinstating Chief Beach in the police department and the final act of Officer Post's brief career was to file charges against Officer Malone. These charges were referred to the council committee on police and at Officer Malone's request will be considered immediately. It is to be hoped that the personal warfare will terminate to-day General Thayer goes to Omaha to attend the annual business encampment of the G. A. R., of which the governor is commander. A large delegation of soldiers will accompany the governor to the metropolis.

Secretary of State Laws has been at McCook the past few days attending to business matters at that place, his former home. He is expected at the office to-morrow.

Captain J. H. Stickle, of Thayer county, accompanied by Mrs. Stickle, were in Lincoln a few hours yesterday, en route for Omaha, at which place the captain is a delegate to the G. A. R. encampment.

AT THE HOTELS.

Among the arrivals at the Lincoln hotel yesterday were noted the following Nebraskaans: L. D. Fowler, Sutton; H. Baker, C. B. Thompson, S. J. Zateman, Grand Island; W. H. Dillide, J. B. Ballinger, Hastings; A. Shoky, Friend; J. H. Rushton, Fairmount; G. Borcher, Holdrege; C. F. Needham, Omaha; F. Holt, Picher; E. C. Wyges, Alfred Hazlett, Beatrice; P. J. Mygerson, W. A. PUTTING ARMY DOCTORS.

The New Surgeon-General and the Secretary of War.

CHICAGO, March 15.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—The Daily News' Washington correspondent says he is told, on what is good authority, that the resignation of Secretary Endicott has been tendered the president, and will be accepted. The immediate cause is said to be trouble with the new surgeon-general of the army, Dr. Moore, who was recently elevated to his post from the station in San Francisco. It is said that Surgeon Baxter wanted the position very badly, and log-rolled through Adjutant-General Drum very assiduously. Dr. Huntington, who was assistant to the last surgeon-general, and who had been in charge of the office for a number of years, told the president that his friend, Dr. Moore, of San Francisco, was the best man, and the president appointed him, being attracted by his ability and the fact that he was about the only man of his rank that had not applied for the place. The story goes that Baxter and Drum were very wroth and cast about in their minds for some scheme of revenge. It soon matured in the shape of an order on the secretary of war transferring Dr. Huntington to the Southern California post without consulting Surgeon General Endicott, who was first informed the latter had a notice in the papers. He was naturally hurt and went to the secretary to protest against changes in his corps without his knowledge and consent. He asked that the order be revoked. The secretary refused to revoke it. General Moore then appeared to the secretary. The latter took the case under advisement and promised Moore an answer soon. This was nearly a month ago. In the meantime the order of the secretary has gone into effect despite the protest. The surgeon general has therefore been compelled to take the only course that is possible for him under the circumstances. He has addressed a letter to the president as commander-in-chief of the army, asking to be relieved from duty as surgeon-general. He assumes that the refusal of the secretary to let him perform the duties which by law and the army regulations are his, is an act of insubordination upon his official integrity and ability, and to submit to such treatment would be to admit his own incompetency. He therefore declines to hold an office the duties of which he is not allowed to perform. The letter of the surgeon-general was referred to Secretary Endicott, and his position is now. It is said that he handed an answer to the president last Thursday. What it was no one knows, but it is supposed that the secretary will stand by the position he has taken. He issued an order, he has refused to revoke it, and will undoubtedly continue to refuse it, even if the secretary of war should do so. The president therefore will be compelled to choose between his secretary of war and his surgeon-general. Unfortunately, Secretary Endicott, precedents are all against him. Such a thing as ordering about subordinates of a corps commander without consulting him is unheard of, except during some emergency at the outbreak of the war. The president selected Moore for the duties which the secretary of war is now urged by Endicott to perform. The trouble all arises from the refusal of the president to give the place to Dr. Baxter, who was warmly urged by Endicott. Baxter, says a correspondent, is behind the whole scandal, and it is not the first time he has been mixed up in one.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN BUFFALO.

Buffalo, March 15.—At 8:35 this morning the large brick building of Miller, Green & Co., opposite the Commercial Advertiser office, burned. Within half an hour after the fire started its walls began to fall. The building with its contents is an entire loss. The loss on the building is $200,000, on the stock $250,000, insurance heavy. The upper floors of the building were occupied by the Masonic hall, which is also a total loss. The insurance at present is unknown. It is reported that two or three firemen are buried under the ruins.

LOSS BY DESTRUCTION OF MASONIC HALL.

The loss by the destruction of Masonic hall is about $35,000, insurance $25,000. All Masonic lodges and other bodies met in this hall on Monday, and its destruction is keenly felt among the members of this order.

DE LESSEPS IN BERLIN.

Paris, March 15.—A large number of the intimate friends of De Lesseps met him at the railroad station on his return from Berlin last night. In the interview he expressed the greatest pleasure at the kind reception accorded him by everybody in Berlin. As the result of the conversations he had with Emperor William and Bismarck, he said he could affirm there would be no war. The emperor told him Sunday that Germany would never attack France. The emperor asked him to leave his plan of the Panama canal with her. Bismarck said he would like to see the French ambassador to Berlin, who, the prince says, is making himself beliked by everyone.

A Youthful Crook Starts West.

New York, March 15.—Albert Paro, a sixteen-year-old messenger boy employed by the Wall street firm of Abright & Winter, was sent to the bank Monday with $25,000 in checks and some cash for deposit. He did not go to the bank, but started out tramping west. He got as far as Williamsburg when he met some men who spent the night with him, and then discovered they could not cash the checks which they tore up. The boy and his companions have been arrested and the Wall street firm is trying to get duplicates of the checks.

The Dead and Living.

St. Petersburg, March 15.—The imperial court yesterday attended the funeral service before the late czar's tomb in the cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul. The services were held in all the churches and at the shrine of the late czar when the czar was killed. In the evening the city was illuminated in honor of Alexander III. All theatres, grog shops and other places of resort of the people were closed.
