

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS

OFFICE, NO. 12, PEARL STREET. DELIVERED BY CARRIER IN ANY PART OF THE CITY AT TWENTY CENTS PER WEEK.

MINOR MENTION. N. Y. Plumbing Co. New spring goods at Beller's, tailor.

J. W. & E. L. Squires' abstracts are giving good satisfaction. A full line of new millinery just received at H. Friedman's.

Justice Barnett yesterday married Alex Turner and Miss S. B. Wilson, an Omaha couple. This being the 17th of March the Ancient Order of Hibernians give their ball this evening.

Squire's park addition is a sure investment. Pacific avenue will be built up with store buildings within a year.

D. P. Dorrill and Eliza Crooks, young folks from the northern part of the county, were yesterday happily married by Squire Biggs at his office.

The electric light plant is to be doubled. The demand for new lights is great, especially since the merchants have taken in hand the lighting of streets. Let the town blaze.

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Crabbe, mother of Mrs. S. Farnsworth, is to be held at the daughter's residence this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The remains will be interred in Fairview cemetery.

The wheelmen have started in their organization with Frank Cook as president, and Irving Parsons secretary and treasurer. Perry Badollet and Clarence Judson will serve as an executive committee.

From the Boston Globe it appears that Mr. Lewis does the most remarkable fall at the end of the third act of "The Creole." After the fall for a couple of seconds, all is still as death, then the cheering begins, and Boston was set wild after night.

Billy Pierson and a fellow named Sweigart, who have been occupying an old rookery together, got into some altercation yesterday which resulted in Sweigart being put behind the bars on a charge of assault and Pierson being laid out in one of the hospital rooms up stairs with a bandage over his head. The scalp wound will probably heal soon.

Another beauty of the dear old lady's "boiler iron" edition was apparent yesterday morning. One column of the column-reading matter had a double head on each end. The top was concerning Mormonism, and the bottom half of the column was upside down and finished off with a heading about the column concerning Cassius M. Clay. It isn't every one who can make up a paper so that two men can sit opposite each other and read with equal ease at the same time and in the same column.

The first duty of the new council should be to find some outlet for the Pearl street sewer. The business houses along that street have been waiting patiently for some move. The sewer is laid along the street to Fifth avenue, but as there is no sewer for it to run into the pipe cannot be used.

The nearing of completion of the court house is a reminder of the necessity of having some sewerage for that building. It has been proposed to build a Fifth avenue sewer for that purpose, and let the Pearl street sewer empty into that, but what sewer empty into? The sewer empty into? It's a puzzle, but the city fathers will doubtless solve the problem. One thing is certain, it has got to be solved in some way, and the sooner the better.

An Omaha couple, Hugh Thompson and Anna Mach, were married here one Sunday in January by Justice Barrett. Now turns up wife No. 1, who claims that Thompson is a bigamist. Detective Edgerton was over here last week looking up the record, and now Thompson has got to face the music. The wedding is well remembered here, as the couple got lost on the bottoms and had occasion to spend the night in the BEE at the time. They were very particular about having the BEE reporter excluded from the room during the ceremony, and warned the officiating justice not to let the marriage be published. The appearance in the BEE attracted the attention of the woman who claims to be the only and original wife and she started on the warpath.

Electric door bells, burglar alarms and every form of domestic electrical appliances at the New York Plumbing Co. L. B. Crafts & Co., are loaning money on all classes of chattel securities at one-half their former rates. See them before securing your loans.

Wild Over Lots. The opera house last night was packed with an enthusiastic audience, who gave a most hearty welcome to Lotta as "Musette," or "Bright Eyes." Scoldon has there been such a scene in the opera house as last evening. From beginning to finish there was the greatest enthusiasm, and applause followed applause interspersed only with laughter. Lotta appeared as ever, inevitable, indescribable, a bundle of nerves with the quickness and keenness of lightning, and the winsome simplicity of sunshine. She had a peculiar charm which wins and enthralls any audience.

Dr. Hanchett, office No. 12 Pearl street; residence, 130 Fourth street; telephone No. 10. Our large stock of Carpets and dry goods is now arriving and being placed in store. From this date we shall be pleased to meet our friends and customers both day or evening at the old stand, No. 401 Broadway. HARKNESS BROS.

Star sale stables of Council Bluffs. The largest stock of horses and mules west of Chicago, which will be sold at wholesale or retail and satisfaction guaranteed.

Personal Paragraphs. J. P. Organ, of Neola, visited the Bluffs yesterday. H. Mendel, the Neola merchant, was here yesterday. Fred Wallway leaves this morning for a day visit to Nebraska. Hiram Poulson, son of Dr. Poulson, expects to spend the summer here. B. Siloway, formerly of the Ogden house here, has sold the Clifton house at Cedar Rapids. J. R. Beard, of Harvey & Beard, Neola, was in the city yesterday on his way to Grant, Neb., accompanied by his wife. Charles Wilson, the well-known turfman, and former owner of Little Sioux, will remove his family to this city in a few days. He will also bring a number of speedy horses with him. W. K. Hoagland, president of the Peru Plow and Wheel company, Peru, Ill., returned to his home yesterday over the Rock Island, after a day's visit with his brother, C. G. Hoagland, of this city.

The best stock of shells, ammunition and sporting goods at 41 Main street, Cole & Cole.

A MURDEROUS MYSTERY.

Was Irvin First Foully Dealt With and Then Put On the Track?

THE HIGH SCHOOL GOING UP. A Soft Stranger Believed of His Roll While Seeing the Sights—One Workman Hits Another With a Spade.

Was He Murdered? The finding of the body of the man Irvin near the Broadway crossing on the Northwestern railway, continues to be a mystery worthy of the shrewdest detective investigation. The supposition that while drunk he carelessly came to his death by being run over by the cars does not seem to satisfy the friends, and various circumstances indicate that such a theory is not altogether reasonable.

Yester day another brother, from Madison, Neb., arrived here and spent the day in investigating the matter, by the aid of Chief Mullen. A number of circumstances are considered as so adding to the mystery as to make it at least possible that the man was foully dealt with, and then left there for the train to finish. The railway men are puzzled over the fact that no one knew when he was run over, or how. No outcry was heard, and nothing at all known of the occurrence until the finding of the body at daylight.

It is said that seldom, if ever, an accident of this kind occurs, without there being some cry or groan loud enough for some of the trainmen to hear. The most suspicious circumstances, however, are in regard to money matters. The unfortunate man left his brother's home in Madison, Neb., with a cousin, on the 21st of last month. He then had with him several hundred dollars in cash. He was not given to spending money, and had no bank anything for a month, although before that time he had some, and occasionally got on a spree. He went to Fremont county, selling some patent right which he had. On his person were found some tax receipts, showing that he had recently paid some taxes at Sidney. It is possible that he may have bought some real estate there with his money, but equally probable that he got the real estate in trade for his patent. He had in his pocket about $5.30 when found, but as he was in the habit of having more money than that, it awakens some suspicion. More suspicion is aroused, however, from the fact that the revolver which was found upon him, a search was made about the city yesterday, and at Goldstein's pawn shop on upper Broadway, were found a watch and a revolver which are believed to belong to the dead man. The brother is certain as to the watch, identifying that positively. As to the revolver he is not so sure, but thinks it was the one he owned. Mr. Goldstein says he sold the watch for $7 by a man who came there early in the evening of Monday last. He describes the man who left the articles there, but the description apparently dead, it seemed that it was a very serious one, and the reports concerning it did not grow less as they went.

Star sale stables for mules and heavy draft horses. A Family Reunion. Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Young yesterday celebrated their twelfth wedding anniversary and last evening they were the happy victims of a surprise party. The peculiarly pleasing feature of the gathering was the reunion of Mrs. Young's brothers and sisters. John Tompleton, chief of the fire department, is a brother. Mr. W. H. Campbell, of Missouri Valley, one of the sisters, was here also with her husband and daughter. Others of the relatives came, it being the first reunion of the Tompleton family for twenty-five years or so. They all seemed happy indeed.

For acre property, residences and business property call on W. C. Stacy & Co., No. 9 Main street. New Embroideries just received at Harkness Bros. Call and see the stock of horses and mules at Star Stables before purchasing elsewhere.

Miss Lewis. To-morrow night Miss Lillian Lewis is to appear at the opera house in "The Creole." The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says: "She is beautiful and her impersonation is highly intelligent. Her facial expression and her play are exceedingly clever and her impersonation well rounded and altogether delightful." Saturday afternoon matinee, "Frou Frou" will be presented and Saturday night "Leah, the Forsaken."

An immense stock of dry goods and carpets arrived at Harkness Bros. yesterday. Card of Thanks. We tender our sincere thanks to those of our neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the illness of our late brother, who passed away the 11th inst. at 10 o'clock on March 15, also to his many friends and to the members of the order for the many sympathies they manifested in his behalf. Respectfully, MR. AND MRS. D. S. BRENNEMAN.
