McCloud and Brooks, the two young men arrested for stopping and robbing a stranger, were yesterday released, the victim not returning from Nebraska to prosecute. He promised to be here as soon as he got through some pressing business in Nebraska, but it seems that he has either changed his mind about the two young men being guilty, or from some other cause has concluded to let the matter drop. It is said that the friends of one of the young men gave him money to leave town, and if this is so it may account for his failure to return to prosecute.

No Money For Juries.

The United States courts meet here next Monday, Judge Love and Judge Shiras presiding. There will be no jury cases, as there is no money with which to pay the jurors. This may seem strange to many, and the idea badly presented that Uncle Sam has not enough money to pay jury fees, is a decidedly sensational one. The fact is, however, that there is nothing so very sensational about it after all. Uncle Samuel is not so near bankruptcy as the statement, without explanation, would imply. Under the appropriation bill a certain amount is set aside for the juries. This is divided up into allowances for certain periods of six months each. For instance a certain portion of the appropriation was for jury fees during the six months ending June 30. That amount has already been exhausted. The amount appropriated for the coming month has not yet been touched yet. This has frequently happened in the past, and such deficiencies have been bridged over in various ways.

Generally the marshal borrows the money necessary to run the courts, and gets it back by a deficiency bill passed by congress. A deficiency bill was in the last session, but it failed to get through, being crowded out. Marshal Root used to advance the money, borrowing it on his own responsibility. Colonel Chapman used to do likewise in such cases. Colonel Root at one time had thus advanced about $1,000, and he had quite a delay in getting the money back. He was so slow and minute as the movements of government, Marshal Campbell does not propose to be pinched in any such manner. He has already advanced some, and he will not follow further in the footsteps of his predecessors.

Such is the situation financially, which causes an abandonment of jury trials during the coming term of court. The terms will be set at a great deal, therefore, and may litigants having cases pending will be obliged to wait until the next term if they want to have the cases heard by juries.

 ness property call on W. C. Stacy & Co.,

For Both Summer and Winter.

A number of real estate dealers and property owners went on an inspection trip to Lake Manawa yesterday afternoon. The exact purpose of the excusion is a mystery, revealed only to the initiated. Numerous are the conjectures, but in view of the proposed great improvements in this summer resort, the visit evidently has something to do with that feature of the boom.

Considerable more stock was yesterday subscribed to the Lake Manawa street railway company, and it is certain that this enterprise will be pushed to a speedy completion. The amount of travel to and from the lake is so great, amounting in fact to a daily rush, that it is evident with increased accommodations and attractions there will be a greater crowd this season. The lake itself is a beautiful country, and this time last season, and everything indicates that it will be much more popular than ever before. The stock of this railway will therefore prove profitable to investors, and at the same time will help the growth of the city. These enterprises, if thus quickly and liberally started, will make this season the most prosperous Council Bluffs ever enjoyed.

It is proposed not merely to make this a summer resort, but a winter one as well.
 There is no reason why cold weather amusements should not draw big crowds with the easy transit and comfortable accommodations being planned. An ice carnival, toboggan slide, skating and other frosty fun is promised for next winter. Such a place as is to be prepared will draw people here from all parts of the west, as there is no such place for many miles in any direction. Last season there was very little there to draw people, in comparison with what is now being planned, and very few accommodations in proportion. But all remember what crowds went there, and what in times were had, even under such rude and improvatory arrangements. With the improvements to be made this spring, the crowds will form almost a crush.

AMBITIOUS AMERICANS.

Musical Students in Italy Who Suffer Privation and Misery.

New York Commercial Advertiser: A correspondent writes from Milan that the condition of young women there and in Italy at large who wish to sing in public is deplorable. He says the city full of American girls with operatic aspirations that are doomed to bitter disappointment. Some of them are positively suffering for want of the necessities of life. No one, he adds, can be a singer in Italy without money. Most of our countrywomen pay for the privilege of appearing on the stage; pay for notices in the newspapers; pay for everything like costumes or for the hire of a few of them there, and after spending several thousand dollars find that they have gained nothing. A New York girl wrote home not long since: "The amount of misery, hope and brokenheartedness in this city (Milan) can hardly be described. It is dreadful to think of unprotected girls coming here, where the men have as a rule, no principle and are absolute scoundrels of morality." The agents who undertake to manage their affairs are almost always rascals of the vilest sort, such as would not be tolerated for an instant in the United States. Italy is, as respects an opportunity to sing, a delusion and a snare. The Italians who have any connection with the opera-houses are morally robbers, and even worse. Their influence can scarcely be conveyed in this country, where, happily, they have no parallels.

I hereby give notice to all concerned not to trust my wife on my account after this date, as I will pay no bills of her contracts. F. W. BOWELL, Council Bluffs, March 21st 1887.

Contractors and builders will find it to their interest to get prices on lime, cement, plaster, hair, etc. from the Council Bluffs Fuel company, 530 Broadway, Telephone 136.

Building Improvements.

Besides the several large buildings, so often enumerated, there are so many smaller ones planned for, and some already commenced, that it is difficult to keep track of them. It is estimated that this season will see at least 800 dwelling houses built here, and many predict more than that number. There are many who have already started in improving property already occupied by them, enlarging, refitting, and making various changes for the better. Plumbers, painters, carpenters, paperers, all are being kept busy. Architect Maxon says he has drawn more plans, and that there is more building in sight for this season than ever before in the history of the city. Among them is a series of flats on Seventh street, near the Bloomer school building. There will also be a Queen Anne cottage built by Judge James W. Martin Hughes, Owen Wickham and others will put up several residences. J. W. Peregray, W. A.
 Maurer and others are planning on putting up fine residences. There is a great demand for tenement houses, and capital will be invested largely in this direction this season. There are many workingmen who are planning on putting up homes of lesser value. With lots so cheap here, a home is within reach of a man of moderate means. The building association is entering upon the liveliest year of its history, and with its assistance alone there will be a new house built every fifteen days throughout the season.
 The lumber yards are doing a business more heavily than ever, another sign of the boom, and they are expecting a big demand for boards.

Was She Kidnapped?

Yesterday afternoon a little daughter of Samuel Emerson, night watchman at the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, disappeared in a mysterious manner from her home, No. 917 Third avenue. She was playing around the yard, and a few minutes later was not to be seen anywhere. The neighbors saw a man in the yard, talking with the child, who is only three years old, and saw her going down the street with him, he having her by the hand. This gave rise, naturally, to the report that the child had been kidnapped.

 The distracted parents entered upon a search of the city. About two hours later, as Chief Mallen was on duty on Broadway, a lady came to him with the child, saying that the little one was evidently lost, and had come from the direction of Washington avenue. The child was taken to the station, and the news of the finding telephoned to the anxious home, so that the little one was speedily restored to her parents. The little one said that she went off with a man, but she is so young that no very intelligent details could be learned from her.

The City Fathers.

The city council did not meet until 8:30 o'clock last night, but like their previous meeting, did a large amount of business.

Petition of W. A. Maurer for a reduction of city taxes referred.

Bond of A. A. Avery approved, as was that of C. J. Beckman, street commissioner and coal tax collector, respectively.

Petition of C. A. Wagner for a correction of assessment referred.

Committee on streets and alleys reported favorably on the petition of John T. Stewart to place a sidewalk, also reported an ordinance granting the same, which, under the suspension of the rules, was passed unanimously. The report upon the grade of Commercial and Angle streets being favorable, was concurred in by the council and referred to the city engineer to report on the grade.

On petition of C. Bosen and others for grading, curbing and paving Mynter street, the committee reported favorably; concurred in. The committee reported favorably on matter of grade on Third avenue and Ninth street, also reported on petition of property owners on Glen avenue for sewer favorable.

A resolution ordering a sewer on Washington avenue between First and Second streets was adopted.

A resolution ordering $100 drawn, for the purpose of buying feed for the fire department horses, was adopted.

A resolution ordering curbing and parking with cedar blocks the following streets: Scott, Sixth and Seventh streets between Mynter street to Broadway.

Mynter street from Sixth to Eighth streets, Glen avenue from Broadway to reservoir, Washington avenue from First to Second street and High school avenue from Park avenue to Glen avenue; adopted.

A resolution ordering Fourth street and Fifth avenue sewered as called for by the city plan, adopted.

A resolution ordering the city attorney to report an ordinance on the grade of West Broadway from Twenty-sixth street west to the river was adopted, and the ordinance was then reported by the city attorney which upon suspension of the rules was read the second time. Alderman Danforth said he would like to hear from the city engineer on the grade. After an explanation by Engineer Ostevim, the mayor suggested the ordinance lay over until the rules, which was ordered.

Adjournment was then taken until Saturday night.
