THE BEE PUBLISHING COMPANY, PROPRIETORS. E. ROSEWATER, Editor.

THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas.

Average: 14,428. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 29th day of March A. D. 1887.

[SEAL] N. P. FEIL, Notary Public.

Geo. B. Tschuck, being first duly sworn, deposes and says that he is secretary of The Bee Publishing Company...

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 9th day of March, A. D. 1887.

[SEAL] N. P. FEIL, Notary Public.

An exchange refers to him as the "pictorial fraud Paul Vandervoort."

The waterworks company can now move its works ten miles up the river.

We are now living under the new charter, but not knowing just exactly what its provisions are.

It is a common experience for honorable men to be ousted with prodigious scorpions, as it were.

By all means let the legislature appoint a committee to investigate the anti-gambling bill conspiracy.

It is now getting along to that time of year when the ravages of festive lightning rod agents are reported.

CLARENCE COOK, of Cincinnati, it is said, will be chosen by President Cleveland for United States treasurer.

MAYOR BOYD wants to be a second Grover Cleveland. He carries a bundle of ready-made vetoes in his pocket.

HEREAFTER no job can be rushed through the city council by ordinance, in a single night, by suspending the rules.

The street commissioners cannot too soon order a thorough cleansing of streets and alleys.

MR. CLEVELAND will make a tour of the west during the month of May. Omaha will be pleased to extend a welcome to the nation's chief.

MAP makers will be obliged to visit Nebraska soon. The legislature has carved out many new counties, and made a wonderful change in the north-western part of the state.

TONIGHT at 12 o'clock the twentieth session of the Nebraska legislature passes into history. And a sorry history it will make, too.

OMAHA has a new charter, but she has the same dangerous railway crossing on Tenth street.

THERE is a sad suggestion in the thought that the legislature adjourns one day after the railroad passes have been called in.

THERE can be no doubt that Phil Armour, the king of packers, has an eye on Omaha as the proper place to embark in business.

THE New York Sun continues to boom one Bill Coleman, of San Francisco, for president.

OUR state legislature has sent Mr. Parnell, by cable, a few hundred words of sympathy.

It is pleasing to know that Mrs. James Brown Potter has finally made her debut at the Haymarket theatre.

THERE have been so many things said recently unfavorable to the official conduct of Mr. Endicott, secretary of war...

Raising a False Issue. The appeal to prejudice, made by the saline land jobbers against Omaha...

For the Last Time. A dissolute dead beat who gained infamous notoriety in Colorado as the boon companion of prostitutes...

Let Him Come. It is to be hoped the report that President Cleveland is contemplating a visit to the west is well-founded.

The railroad managers will now close their oil rooms, order in their capers and retire from Lincoln.

The bidders and sell-outs of the legislature have a champion who is worthy of their companionship.

Fortune and Misfortune. Lucy Zirola earns the largest salary of any dwarf in the world.

Mad Bears said to be the wealthiest Indians in Dakota, being the possessor of extensive herds of cattle and horses.

A Newspaper Man All Over. There seems to be a combination between the Omaha dailies to do up the BEE.

Newspaper Exposures. A Chicago grand jury has found thirty-two bills of indictment against corrupt officials.

Social Scandal. Then would a splendid city rise to view. With carts and cars and coaches, roring all wide and abroad.
