ROSENMUND'S.

The Elegant Resort Being Completed on Farnam Street.

In the way of super excellence in the combination of hotel, restaurant and sample room, Louis Rosenmund will this week lead the list. His place is at Nos. 1013 and 1015 Farnam street.

It is a three story brick building with a light, lofty and ample basement. The latter will be a bowling alley of the finest kind. The first floor will be devoted to the bar, lunch table and dining room. On entering, a large, handsomely carved, white oak screen with a circular stained glass center, in which is worked the trade mark of Frederick Krug. A colored glass urn surmounts the screen over which electric and gas light appropriations are pendant from the ceiling. This latter is neatly papered in large, paneled patterns, while a pink tint suffuses the walls. The bar is surrounded partly at the bottom with a brass foot rest, and at the top with massive mahogany arm-rail. The bar is of oak, scrolled and carved, with painted glass panels, and brightened with round mirrors, worked into the wood. Back of this is the immense mirror fifteen feet long by five feet high, well protected by wooden pillars and framing. The dining room is in the rear through a quaintly carved archway. In this dining room stained glass windows and transoms admit a mellow cheerful light. On the second floor are the living apartments of Mr. Rosenmund and his family, also two offices, one being already taken by the Phoenix Mutual Live Stock Insurance company. The kitchen is also on this floor. A dumb water runs through every floor of the building. There are eleven handsomely furnished rooms for the use of transient guests. Mr. Rosenmund's large acquaintance with the commercial travelers throughout the country assures him a patronage of the best class. The house is fitted up throughout with bath rooms, closets and all modern conveniences. It is heated with steam. This place promises to become very popular in Omaha. Mr. Rosenmund formerly resided in this city. Last year he was manager of Tony Faust's exposition in St. Louis. He was also widely known among the wealthy clubs and society people as St. Louis' peerless caterer. He catered for the Germania and Harmony clubs of that city and was ordered to Kansas City to superintend a noted wedding which Kingsley, the noted Chicago caterer, sought to obtain. Mr. Rosenmund comes to Omaha with the highest recommendation from the best people in St. Louis. He will keep in stock none but the best liquors and cigars, his menu will be complete and he will employ none but the most skilled and courteous aids. His success is a certainty.

Monday, Monday, Monday.

On Monday we will make the largest sale of silks we have ever made. The goods are splendid in quality and will be offered by us at wonderful prices.

An importer closed out his stock at public sale. The goods went low and we bought heavily. We offer the goods on Monday, giving the public all the advantage of our bargain, as we are marking the goods with our ordinary profit. The quantity is large, but at the prices they must go out quick.

A FEW WORDS

About SOUTH OMAHA, and what may be expected there.

The year 1887 will witness an activity in this young Giant City, that will surprise the most sanguine.

WE MUST bear this fact in mind,—that

GREATER INDUSTRIES than those now existing

ARE TO BE established in SOUTH OMAHA this year.

LABOR will find abundant and steady employment, and

BUSINESS of all kinds will start up—making things lively.

RAILWAY companies were never more active.

IN any city in the country, to secure favorable

GROUND, on which to build depots and lay tracks.

HENCE, it is not too much to say that

THE boom in SOUTH OMAHA this year will be immense.

SOUTH OMAHA is becoming the great packing town of the country.

OMAHA is enjoying wonderful prosperity, but

LARGER interests will concentrate in South Omaha than EVER contemplated or expected for the Gate City.

OF all the railway centres in the great

WEST SOUTH OMAHA is so favorably situated that

NONE CAN SUCCESSFULLY COMPETE with it as a stockmarket.

EVERY week, almost, brings out another important

RAILROAD move, to gain entrance to SOUTH OMAHA.

ON EVERY HAND are contemplated new packing houses.

FEEDING YARDS, and manufacturing enterprises,

ALL BOUND to participate in the BIG BOOM

LONG FORESEEN by shrewd financiers, who

BEFORE this time invested heavily in approved

REAL ESTATE in the growing busy Packingtown.

IN buying property in SOUTH OMAHA,

GREAT CARE should be taken to ascertain

How the property is situated with reference

TO RAILWAY FACILITIES and distance from the center.

West Leavenworth's First Brick Building.

To-morrow morning Jacob E. Troie & Co., the hardware merchants, open for business in their new brick building, 2709 Leavenworth street.

It is but one year since Mr. Troie started the business at the head of 85, Mary's ave., at first in one small store, then in a double store and now in a handsome two-story brick, with full basement, built and owned by the firm. This building is the first brick building to be erected on West Leavenworth street, and if signs count for anything, it is not the only one to be erected within a block this summer.

The wonderful success attending Messrs. Troie & Co. in their business, is due in a great measure to the long experience of Mr. Troie and his obliging manner. The firm have always aimed to carry the very best goods in their line and are selling them at a close margin.

Their sales of the Crown Jewel gasoline stove and the Jewel stoves and ranges, as well as the White Mountain ice cream freezers, have given them an enviable reputation as to handling first-class goods. They carry a full line of builders' hardware, cutlery, tinware, etc., having a well appointed tin shop in connection. Their new store is worth seeing.
