George W. Thompson & Co., real estate.
There is to be a meeting of the boat club to-night.

J. R. Ferguson was last night arrested for being drunk.

Palm Sunday was yesterday observed in the usual manner in this city.
Typographical union No. 29 held their regular monthly meeting yesterday.

C. J. Colby has faith in the boom, as is shown by the large new safe just put into his office.

The police force made a change again yesterday. Officers Stevens and Hendricks going on duty today.

The Women's Christian association will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. D. Montgomery.

The street cars yesterday did a good business and were crowded all day in consequence of the disagreeable weather.

The Alpine Choir and Tyrolese company appear in matinee and evening performance at Dohany's next Wednesday.

The last stone pier of the Union Pacific bridge is almost completed, only eight feet more stone having to be put on it.

Mr. Chapman, of Vermont, who is visiting J. W. Squire, sang a very pleasing solo at the Congregational church yesterday.

Rev. Dr. McCrory at the Methodist church yesterday morning answered the query, "Is the world growing better?" in the affirmative.

The funeral of William Smith, who died suddenly on Saturday, will take place this afternoon from the residence of Mrs. M. Maloney, No. 722 Fourth street.

The regular monthly meeting of the city council takes place to-night. The session will probably be occupied entirely by the allowing of the regular monthly bills, etc.

John Grahgan, who resides on Tenth street between Seventeenth and Eighteenth avenues, is putting in some improvements, as well as having completed a fine residence.

The Globe editorial force has been reorganized, with Colonel Keatley at the heavy gun and Mr. Hobson as the city editor. Mr. C. M. Hayward continues in the position of business manager.

Dr. Patton, the city assessor, will ask the council for an extension of time, to enable him to complete his work more satisfactorily. There have been so many changes in real estate that the assessor is more difficult than two years ago.

It is now stated that the test of the new fire and police alarms will take place within the next two weeks; that the company have tested it to their own satisfaction. If the test comes off it will be a relief to the public who are becoming tired of waiting.

The sum total of the street cleaning in Des Moines this spring, according to the Register is that one horse and one wagon working half a day. The same paper suggests that the street cars there had better be mounted on boats and run by paddle. This is from the "boom edition" of the Register.

Yesterday was about as disagreeable a day as has been in a long while. The wind sent the dust in all directions and made it extremely unpleasant for those who found it necessary to be outdoors.
An April shower such as makes the "flowers bloom in the spring" would have been very acceptable, had it put in an appearance yesterday morning but the shower got frosty, and turned into flakes of snow.

Still Jealous.
W. A. Still, who resides on Sixth avenue near Eighteenth street, was complained of by his wife on Saturday night and the police put him in the city jail until such time as he could overcome his anger. Upon being arrested Still told the officers that his home had been frequented by "Cap" Hayes and that he was conspiring to injure him in his wife's estimation; that he had attacked Hayes, yesterday Still said Hayes and his wife's sister were still intimate; that he didn't want Hayes about his home but that he was fined for disturbing the peace he intimated that informations would be filed against the trio whom he believed had conspired against him. It looks as if the old case was again to be shaken up.

PLANNING FOR FACTORIES.

A Number of New Enterprises Promised Council Bluffs.

A JEALOUS HUSBAND.

Marched in By the Police in March—The Bible Meeting Last Night—Brief Bits of News.

A Bottom for the Boom.

Not only is there a large amount of building going on in Council Bluffs just now, but many new buildings are being planned, and as soon as it is settled, so far as spring is concerned, and the city has its last snow storm of the season, then the building season will open. But so long as such storms as visited this city yesterday evening continue the building season will be apt to lag a little.

A week ago this morning the Bee contained two and a half column list of the buildings that are now being erected.
This list did not comprise the larger buildings, most of which have been confined to the small ones, principally residences costing from $500 to $1,000 each, of which several hundred are being erected. But one of the more encouraging features of the boom and a stronger foundation for it is the awakening of interest in the advantages offered by this city as a great manufacturing center. There is not a day passes but some one from the east is here looking over the ground with a view to engaging in manufacturing.

The success of the factories already established here, such as the cracker factory, the canning factory, handle factory, the harvester manufactory, the candy factories, earlidge factories, the paper mill and numerous others has demonstrated that Council Bluffs has peculiar advantages in this line. Several of these factories are enlarging and some are doubling their capacities.

A number of manufacturing enterprises are being planned, the arrangements for which are being perfected as rapidly as possible considering the magnitude of the enterprises.

The move for a starch factory is progressing and the home capital is ready to invest without delay as soon as arrangements can be made for procuring the necessary and experienced management.

The recent transfer of the property known as the Hendrie foundry insures the revival and enlargement of that important industry. F. Ogden, who made the purchase in the interest of the Mount Vernon Co., iron works, of which he is part owner, is thoroughly experienced in this line of manufacturing. Abundant capital backs the enterprise, and the works are to be enlarged and improved. The company taking hold of the works have a national reputation and a large western trade, which this move will enable them to handle more easily and more satisfactorily both to themselves and their customers.

A new enterprise for this city with old experienced gentlemen behind it, is that of the cash, door and blind factory of Messrs. Strook Bros. These gentlemen have owned property in this city for three years past and until recently intended locating on it, but now they have concluded to build on other property which they are negotiating for. They have $20,000 worth of machinery in their present factory in Illinois which they are now preparing to ship to Council Bluffs and they propose to have their Council Bluffs factory going by July 1, next. Should they fail to purchase the property they now desire, they will no doubt locate on their own land.

The paper mill which has been so successful in its attempts to increase its capacity to five tons per day, which is encouraging to say the least, and they have already ordered more new machinery.
They have been unable to supply the demand for the paper.

There are a number of lumber firms that are contemplating establishing new yards here. Mr. Reed, of the firm of Hilwirth & Reed, one of the largest lumber concerns of Chicago, has been here several days looking over the ground with a view of establishing general western headquarters in the lumber jobbing line. Mr.
Reed is anxious to have the companies represented here concentrate their yards and form a lumber district.

There are numerous other projects.
The meeting of the city first convention is sufficient to indicate that Council Bluffs is in a fair way to speedily become one of the greatest manufacturing centers in the west.

The Book of Books.
The Century Bible society held its annual meeting last evening, with union service at St. Paul's Episcopal church, the Presbyterians, Congregationalists and Baptists joining. Despite the blustering weather there was a large congregation. The scene presented was strikingly suggestive of the increasing liberality among the churches and the breaking of denominational seclusions. It was a pleasing picture to see the Methodist divine, Rev. Dr. Mc-Creary, reading the forms of prayer within earshot of the pulpit of the pastor, Rev. T. J. Mackey, in his ecclesiastical garb, led in the responses. Rev. Dr.
Cooley, of the Baptist church, and Rev.
G. W. Crofts, of the Congregational church, also participated. The chief address of the evening was by Rev. Mr. Hood, the state agent of the Bible society. He spoke mainly on the word of God as "The sword of the Spirit." He pointed out the power of the word of God, which had been going on since the beginning of the world. He claimed that the only safety to this country, and to the world, was the church of God, with the Spirit in the church and the sword of the Spirit—the Bible. This was quick and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword.
It was a quick cure of sin, and healing of human life. It was powerful convict and convert. As it was necessary for the body to have constant food, so the soul needed the head of life. The Bible was like a surgeon's lance, piercing sin-cely, and letting out the corruption, affording relief and restoring health.
The labor question, the temperance reform, army and all of these matters must be settled on the basis of the word of God.

Following his address came the annual business of the society. Mr. Thomas O'Brien, as treasurer, read the thirty-first annual report. J. D. L. Bloomer reported that it was the best report he had known of during his thirty years' connection with the society.

On motion of Rev. F. H. Fleming the old officers were re-elected, with the addition of Frank Cook as secretary, to fill

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: MONDAY, APRIL 4, 1887.

A vacancy. The officers are now: President, D. C. Bloomer, vice presidents, N. P. Dodge, Dr. H. W. Harse, secretary, Frank Cook, treasurer, Thomas O'Brien, dep. secretary, D. W. Bushnell.

Mr. Fleming, who is the county agent of the society, presented his annual report, showing his receipts to have been about $1,000, and his expenditures, including salary, $881. The number of miles travelled by him 2,850; number of families and business places visited, 2,063; number of families found destitute of the Bible, 426; number supplied, 251; number of destitute individuals supplied, 322; number of books sold, 477; number donated, 203, making a total of 1,475 books distributed since the canvass began two years ago.

He reported that this city and all the towns in the county had been canvassed, and all the townships except about twelve.
