CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, April 8 .- | Special Telegram to the BEE.]-CATTLE-Certain kinds of desirable light and medium weights that had fat and good quality sold very readily at 5@ 10c advance, but as a rule the market was not quotably higher, and trade was certainly not active. There were some rough, fat cattle weighing about 1,400 pounds, for which there was literally no demand, and which had to be sold after very hard work at a sacrifice. Fat "little" cattle were the best sellers. There were a good many good to choice, though not many fancy heavy cattle among the offerings. There were some 1,400 pound cattle sold at $4.40. Fat 1,150 to 1,180 pound cattle sold at $4.40. Fat 1,150 to 1,180 pound steers sold at $4.80; also thirty-two 1,185 pound steers at $4.75, while in another pen were thirty-two 1,155 pound steers at $4.75. Still another car of some 1,327 pound steers, and some averaging exactly 200 pounds less sold at $4.70. and light ones were in each case much easier to sell. Shipping steers, 1350 to 1500 bs, $4.80@5.25; 1000 to 1350 lbs, $4.40@4.75; 950 to 1200 lbs, $3.90@4.40; stockers and feeders, $2.60@4.25; cows, buils and mixed, $1.50@4.35; bulk, $2.70@3.15; through Texas grassers, $2.55@3.50; corn fed, $3.75@4.35.

A dull market. Hogs close lower.

J. E. Hunt, Papillion, was in with a load of nocs. He is feeding 170 head of cattle on meal.

E. A. Wood, of Chicago, of the firm of Wood Bros., live stock commission dealers of Chicago and Omaha, was at the yards. He was on his way home from Cheyenne.

plus stock the first of the week and during the past few days the receipts have not been quite equal to the city demand. While the bulk of the stock has been moving at 10c, dealers have been trying to force the market up and an occasional single case has been sold at 1014c.

DRESSED POULTRY—The warm weather

DRESSED POULTRY—The warm weather is making it more difficult to handle dressed poultry to advantage, commission men being compelled to sell on arrival whether they get their price or not. The receipts, however, of all kinds of poultry have been so light that most anything would sell quickly at logile, and fancy stock has brought even more. By reason of the light receipts of chickens, turkeys have been selling fairly well at the and ducks at about the same price. Dressed poultry is practically out of season and the present high prices are due largely to the scarcity of live poultry.

LIVE POULTRY—There is a good demand for live poultry. Chickens are selling readily on arrival at $0.00@3.50 according to size. Large fat hens are in the best demand and fancy stock might bring a shade more than the quotations. Large and choice ducks sell the quotations. Large and choice ducks sell at $3.00@3.50, and small varieties at $2.75@

Was sired by Gideon, and he by Rysdyck's Hamble-tonian—dam by Twombly horse, son of Winthrop's Messenger, and he a son of Imported Messenger. His colts have proved him to be second to no horse in Nebraska! This horse will make the season at the COKNER OF SAUNDERS AND LAKE STREETS, AT TWENTY DOLLLARS. All mares not provings with foal may be returned next year. Terms, cash at time of service.
