Governor Thayer's Selection of the Six New District Judges.

THE SATISFACTORY SELECTIONS

Groff and Hopewell in Third-Marshall in Fourth-Harrison in Ninth, Powers in Seventh - Kinkaid in Twelfth.

The New Judges.

If expressions by attorneys are to be regarded as authority, the appointments of Lewis A. Groff and Melville B. Hopewell as judges of the third district are highly satisfactory. At the office of Groff & Montgomery it was learned yesterday that Mr. Groff was in California and will return in about a week. His partner, Mr. Montgomery, said: "I have no doubt but that Mr. Groff will accept. Before he left for California he told me that if I would tender him a satisfactory agreement for dissolution of our partnership, I should say to Governor Thayer for him that he would accept the appointment. Subsequently I wrote him a proposition for dissolution of partnership and he telegraphed his acceptance. I told the governor, accordingly what Mr. Groff had said. I have telegraphed him of his appointment but have received no reply. "Mr. Groff," continued Mr. Montgom ery, "is forty-five years of age. He has resided in Nebraska seventeen years, nine of which he has been in Omaha. Previously he resided in Kearney and Lincoln. I am his partner, and what I would say might be deemed to be colored on that account; but I can assure you that I only speak justly when I say that of all the applicants for the appointment none stand up to Mr. Groff's shoulders, as lawyers. He has, with the exception of Judge Wakeley, no more learned col-league on the bench in the state. We have been together eight years, and I can therefore speak of his personal character. He is a most worthy gentleman. We have yet to have one word of dissension or disagreement. He is a man of inde-pendent means, or else he could hardly afford to accept the appointment, because afford to accept the appointment, because he gives up a practice worth $6,000 annually for the $2,500 salary, which the judges draw. Mr. Groff has never been a politician, and is purely a lawyer."

Judge Lake said—'I regard the appointments as very good ones. I don't see why they shouldn't give general satisfaction. I have known both many years and regard them as fair lawyers of excellent habits. Both are upright men and of good parts. Neither are politicians." After speaking of Mr. Groff in much the same vein as Mr. Montgomery had spoken of him Judge Lake said: "Mr. Hopewell, of Tekama, is a man of sound judgment and the strictest integrity.

There were nine other applicants, two of whom reside in Washington county.

Arthur C. Wakely, Esq., said that the expression of attorneys generally was that the appointments were excellent and that the appointments were excellent and the best that could have been made from the list of applicants.

Lewis A. Groff was born in Wooster, Ohio, December 31, 1841. He read law in Napoleon, Ohio, and was admitted to the bar in 1867. In 1870 he removed to Lincoln. In 1872 he became associated with J. H. Mr. Marshal was born in New Rumley, Harrison county, O., July 29, 1833. His father moved from there to Coshocton county, Ohio, when William was a child. He was captain of Company G, and was mustered out as lieutenant colonel of the same regiment. He returned to Ohio and remained there until June, 1866, when he came to Monmouth, Ill., where he lived until October, 1876, engaging in law practice there. He graduated in the literary department of the University of Michigan in 1859, and in the law department in 1868. He was a state senator in Nebraska in 1879-80, and was for a term county attorney for Dodge county.

Hon. Isaac Powers, of the Seventh district, was for many years a resident of Dakota county, which he represented in the state senate ten years ago. In 1882 he was elected attorney general, serving one term. He has since removed to Nor-folk, where he has been engaged in the practice of law.

Hon. T. O. C. Harrison, of Hall county, appointed judge of the Ninth, is a leading attorney of Grand Island. Mr. Kinkaid represented his section of the country in the state senate in 1883, and was the chairman of the judiciary committee of that body.

DEATH CRIES, "KENO." One of the Oldest Members of the Fire Department Dead.

When the alarm for fire sounded at noon yesterday a fatal accident happened at No. 3's house on Harney street. "Keno," the oldest member of the company, was run over by the hose cart and killed. Dr. Chambers was immediately called, but it was seen at once that life was extinct. "Keno" was a remarkable dog, and for twelve years he has run to every fire in this city and was always on the lead. Born in Scotland, he was imported to this country by Cal Woodward, the well known Merchants' expressman. In 1879 he was transferred expressman. In 1879 he was transferred to the fire department and No. 3 was his guardian. He has had a very remarkable existence. At one time when there was a fire on Fifteenth street, "Keno,' attempted to enter the premises, forgetting that he did not have his badge on and one of Billy Hagedorn's butchers sliced him with a clever. Several times he had been badly burned and scorched. Yesterday he would not have lost his life had it not been for a tenderfoot dog which attempted to interfere as the cart was go-

RAIL NOTES. Condemning Property for the Ne-braska Central-Other Matters.

Constable George Karl has been busy for the past day or so serving notice on the property owners of the lands which have been condemned for the Nebraska Central railroad. There are about thirty or forty blocks which have been condemned for this road, and the board of appraisers will set apart one day to hearing the demands of the owners of each block. It will thus be seen that the work of appraising all the property will require more than a month. The work of surveying is being rapidly pushed under the direction of Chief Engineer Way.

The Union Pacific is running very leavy overland trains these days. Thursday night's train pulled out five emigrant sleepers, five Pullman sleepers and five two sections.

KATE GETS FIVE THOUSAND

Big Verdict Against a Rich Texan. Kate Murray was awarded a judgment by the jury in her suit against Alfred F. Lyon, of Texas, for slander yesterday morning, giving her the full amount claimed, $5,000. The most expensive good-bye kiss of Mr. Lyon's experience is the one which he gave Kate as she started from Fort Worth. That kiss contradicts all his subsequent allegations against her.

Chase County.

OMAHA, April 8 .- Hon, E. Rosewater, Editor Daily BEE, Dear Sir: The editorial in last evening's BEE in which you say that presumably Chase Chase county, Nebraska, was named for Salmon P. Chase, of Ohio, induces this reply.

In 1873, while I was a member of the legislature from this city, and chairman of the committee on counties and county organizations (the other members being Silas Garber, Ed Parker, Henry Sprick, and J. B. McDowell) we defined the boundaries of six new counties and named all but one of them in honor of some resident of the state. Red Willow with local name; Furnas for Hon. R. W. Furnas, of Brownville; Hitchcock for Hon. Phineas W. Hitchcock, United States senator; Dundy for Hon. Elmer S. Dundy, United States district judge; Keith for Hon. Caught by a Foot Runner.

Abe Emerson, a young negro, was arrested about two o'clock yesterday afternoon for stealing some shirts from the pile in front of S. P. Morse's dry goods store. Floor walker Bloom saw the fellow snatch the shirts and gave pursuit. At the corner of Thirteenth and Farnam he snatched the shirts from the negro, who then ran down the alley between Far-nam and Harney streets. Bloom folnam and Harney streets. Bloom fol-lowed him, when the negro picked up a brickbat and hurled it at the pursuer, narrowly missing hitting him. Homer Kirk, a foot runner, who happened to be near, saw the negro running, gave him a chase and caught him. The cul-prit was turned over to Special Policeman Coyle, who took him to jail.

Whereas, A number of the members of the organization known as the Salvation army were on the 6th of April arrested and lodged in the city jail in the city of Omaha, without any just and lawful cause for the same; therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the members of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, of Omaha, Neb., do hereby express our unqualified disapproval and indignation at the said arrest and imprisonment, believing, as we do that it was an illegal and unwarranted interferance with the civil and religious rights of our citizens.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished to the city papers for publication.

Three Fire Alarms. The fire department was called out twice yesterday, once to put out a fire in a parn near Twenty-eighth and Poppleton avenue, and a second time on a false alarm from Simpson's carriage repository on Fourteenth and Dodge streets. A de-fective stove was sending out volumes of smoke into the street, and some bystander, supposing that there was a fire pulled the alarm. Another fire did slight damage at Harris & Fisher's packing house.

Arrested for Burglary. Constable Rust 1 yesterday brought Nate Spicer and Frank Sheets into Justice Anderson's court, where they pleaded not guilty to a charge of burgiary and were granted a continuance until this afternoon. Spicer and Sheets were arrested for breaking into the safe of the Club Stables in December, 1885, and stealing $100 in cash and a gold watch. The case was hunted up by Constable Rustin, who put in some clever work on it.

Closing the Freight Clean-Up.

Assistant Division Superintendent Deuel stated yesterday that the Union Pacific was enjoying a big clean-up of freight which had been billed under the old rates before the inter-state law went into effect. Everybody was afraid of the law and had therefore shipped a great amount of goods which could be used during the season. The aw acted like a cut rate.

Appraising the Poor Farm. The county commissioners and appraisers departed yesterday morning for the poor farm and were out there all day papraising the property which it is con-templated to put upon the market as Douglas addition.

The commissioners returned at 2:30 p. m. The poor farm has been appraised at about $211,000.

The Robber of Major Bush Believed to Have Been Apprehended. An extremely brief telegram received at army headquarters yesterday announces that a man answering to the description of Chas. Parker, who robbed Paymaster Bush about a month ago, has been captured at Van Couver barracks, Wash ington territory.

Since Parker committed this bold deed, by which he gobbled up at one swoop $7,500 of Uncle Sam's money, the officers of the United States govern-ment with hosts of scouts have been on the trail. The government has offered a large sum as reward for his cap-ture and the pursuit has been a brisk one. It is now believed that he has been run to the earth. Major D. S. Barriger on Slack. OFFICE OF OMAHA ELEVATOR AND GRAIN COMPANY.

April 8, 1887. To the Editor of Omaha Bee: The article in the BEE of the 4th inst., entitled "Slack vs. Lump Coal," and the correspondence from manager of Council Bluffs waterworks and Mr. Clark Wood-man on the same subject, ought to be of interest to all fuel consumers, besides interesting to manufacturers in this locality.

As out of the mouths of many witnesses a fact is often established, we would like to add our say on burning slack. With the exception of a short time, when first starting, we have used slack coal under the boilers at our elevator, as we found the difference, on account of price, much in favor of sinck count of price, much in favor of slack over lump coal. We thought we were down to bed rock, as regards economy in fuel; however, about a year since we allowed a set of so-called "Dorrance" grates, to be placed on trial under one of our boilers, and its advantages were so manifest in saving of fuel and increased steaming capacity of the boiler that we soon put them under two others, leaving soon put them under two others, leaving only one boiler with old style grates, which we will also change soon.

To our surprise we find these grates have made a saving in our fuel bill of twenty-five (25) per cent, using stack coal in both cases, and the labor is fully one fourth less than the former style.

fourth less than the former style. We find our men are enabled to keep clean fires now at all times, removing the clinkers through the grates without open-ing of the fire doors (as formerly) and cooling furnaces at the expense of fuel

That such a large saving can be made by simply changing of grates, strikes us of sufficient importance to publish in ad-dition to what has been said, and we think you wilf agree with us.

Vice-president.

A SEASON OF SONG. The Great National Opera Tronpe-Great Sale of Seats.

While the sale of seats has been very satisfactory for the engagement of the National Opera company at the exposition building on Monday and Tuesday evenings and Tuesday afternoon next, yet it is fair to presume that the people of Omaha do not fully understand how great this attraction is. This is the largest traveling company, of any description, in the world. No opera company that has ever been placed on the road has numbered as many people as Manager Locke has gathered together in the company that will be here next week. the company that will be here next week. Theodore Thomas, and his orchestra of sixty musicians, furnish an entertainment of themselves, and for which people have paid the prices of admission in past seasons for this entertainment alone. The operas that the company produce, with such principals as Emma Juch, Myron W. Whitney, William Ludwig, Mathiide Phillips, Jessie Bartlett Davis, William H. Fessenden, and many other equally noted principals are an other equally noted principals, are an equally distinct entertainment. Then the corps de ballet, with Miles. Giuri, De Gillert and Carozzi, with M. Cammarano as principals, supported by ninety-two coryphees and pupils of the ballet school coryphees and pupils of the ballet school of the opera, is also a separate entertainment. The grand chorus of this company numbers nearly one hundred singers, most carefully selected by the managers of this American opera school in New York city, from young ladies of good society, who had a desire to study for the opera stage. Their voices are all well trained, and they have been selected from several hundred applicants for position in this company.

This grand aggregation of principal singers, orchestra, chorus and ballet will give an entertainment such as has never been seen or heard in Omaha, and such been seen or heard in Omaha, and such as is not likely to be produced in this city again for a long time. The carrying of such a large company, with its exceedingly heavy bills for transportation, salary, hotels, etc., is a very venturesome experiment, and the expense is very large. The public, however, by reason of the great size of the exposition building here, will have the benefit of this magnificent entertainment. The prices are very reasonable, and while a large number of seats have already been sold, yet equally choice seats reyet equally choice seats re-main, which can be obtained to-morrow at Max Meyer & Bro.'s music store. Coming as these entertainments do, immediately after the close of Lent, when society has been so long de prived of amusement and pleasure there is no reason, so great as this at traction offers, why the exposition build-ing should not be filled to its greatest capacity during this engagement. We capacity during this engagement. We can safely promise to every person who attends, the fullest value for their money.

The holders of tickets for the main floor will be admitted through the Fifteenth street entrance. The holders of gallery tickets will be admitted through the main entrance on Capitol avenue, and general admission tickets will be sold at the latter entrance. Thus the sold at the latter entrance. Thus the crush that took place on the Patti night will be entirely obviated, and all ticket purchasers will be enabled to enter the building quite rapidly. It only remains now for the people to testify their appreciation of the enterprise of the exposition building managers in se-curing this entertainment and of Manager Locke in bringing such a very expensive and attractive company to this city, by giving their best patronage to the operas that will be produced here, and favoring the management with an overflowing house.

EARLY SACRIFICE.

A large eastern manufacturer, in order to close out a line of nearly 1,000 Spring Overcoats, made us an offer at a figure so low as to scarcely cover cost of the material in the garments. We bought the entire lot in addition to our enormous regular stock of these goods on hand. We had grave doubts as to whether we could dispose of such a quantity of Spring Overcoats in time to accommodate our Summer Goods. In order to dispose of them, immediately, we marked down the price of every spring Overcoat in the house, to such unheard of prices as to force sales. The sweeping reductions on these from our former prices are as follows:

A line of Hancock Cassimere Overcoats, from $7.50 to $4.90

from $11.00 to $8.50 - $13.00 to $9.75 A line of all wool Meltons, from A line of English Homespun cloth, a nobby
