

THE SUNDAY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS OFFICE, NO. 12, PEARL STREET.

George W. Thompson & Co., real estate and J. P. Weaver starts up his brick yard to-morrow.

There are now about thirty first-class bicycles in daily use on the streets here.

Permit to wed has been given George W. Killien and Miss Florence H. Earnest, both of Oakland.

The funeral of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Josselyn occurred yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of Frank Ries.

The board of supervisors adjourned yesterday to meet in two weeks, to then meet and pick out furniture for the new court house.

The wind blew so yesterday that men had to quit work on the roofs of the new court house and the new government building.

The county board has secured the services of Anderson's merchant police to look out for thieves and fires around the county offices.

The BEE office in the Bluffs is being refitted and refurnished. It is badly torn up at present, but in a few days will be through its spring house cleaning and re-generating struggle.

C. W. Partridge has purchased a White Sewing machine on monthly payments, and it is claimed, disposed of the same. Yesterday he was brought before Justice Barnett and his examination is set for hearing on Tuesday afternoon.

Officer Unthank was yesterday wearing that peculiar smile which naturally leads to the query, "How are the folks?" "It's a girl." Between whiffs the fact was learned that Mr. Unthank now has two pairs, and every one of the four was born on Friday, and yet all seem lucky.

The laying of the corner stone of the new Catholic church will probably occur two weeks from to-day. The stone will be laid by Right Rev. Henry Cosgrove, bishop of Davenport, Rev. J. N. Nugent, of Des Moines, will preach the sermon, and other reverend fathers are to be here.

The Mueller music company reminded the Council Bluffs BEE man yesterday that it was Easter time. The reminder was in the form of a unique and beautiful ink wiper. The Mueller company always has in stock the latest novelties and is always generous in its treatment of friends and patrons.

The Pottawattamie School Journal is the name of a paper published at Carson, under the editorship of County Superintendent J. W. Laird. The paper is not a beauty topographically, and the editorials have a little sophomoric tinge, but the journal has most interesting matter, matter, information, and suggestions which will prove valuable doubtless to teachers.

Harry Rice and Archie Miesler, two Council Bluffs boys, are reported as having started out with the usual ambition to become rollicking cowboys, or brave layers of redskins, and their parents are consequently anxious about them. The boys have been employed in a Pierce street barn, and have been spending their leisure time in preparatory reading.

The wind yesterday tore down the large cloth sign of a Pearl street real estate firm. The cloth stretched about the telegraph lines, and scattered the board frame to the danger of passers-by and the adjacent windows. It would be well if the wind net demolished all the other cloth signs. They are not permanent, and they are not consistent with the feeling that the boom is permanent and that the firms are here to stay.

Harkness Brothers, at No. 401 Broadway, are not only having a good local trade in dry goods and carpets, but are receiving many orders from outside parts of the west. The fact that mail orders are given prompt attention, and customers at a distance receive as fair treatment as those who buy in person is causing the firm to have a steadily increasing trade away from home as well as at home.

The policeman are selling tickets for their ball, which takes place May 5 in Temple hall. It is their annual benefit, and they certainly merit a liberal one. As all know, the police are paid small salaries, not enough to cover the exposure and arduous service expected of them. Once a year this opportunity is given the public to show their appreciation and help the boys out a little and at the same time get their money's worth in a jolly evening.
