DISTRICT COURT. James Creighton Resigns the Trusteeship of Funds of Creighton Estate. James Creighton, one of the executors of the will of the late Mrs. Edward Creighton with Herman Kountze and John A. Creighton, as also one of the trustees of the several amounts bequeathed to the heirs of that lady, filed a petition in this court yesterday morning asking for a showing of the condition of the latter as also his discharge from the position of trustee with reference to the bequests in question.

After this showing, Mr. Creighton states that he is advancing in years and his business engagements are such that he cannot, without injury to his personal interests, give to the affairs of the trust the time, perhaps, demanded. He asks that guardians ad litem be appointed for the infant defendants, that an account be made of all the dealings of the trustees, that the securities be examined, and that his resignation be accepted and some other party appointed in his stead.

THE THIEF STILL AT LARGE. I find the following in the Army and Navy Journal of April 16th: "Paymaster General Rochester has received a telegram from Chief Paymaster Jewell, reporting that Charles P. Parker, the man who several weeks ago robbed Paymaster Bash of $7,400.00 has been captured."
