May 3 .- The case of David S. eringham, the Adams express messenndicted for complicity in the robbery of company on the St. Louis & San Franrailroad last October, was begun in the of tailout rast October, was begin in the bihal court to-day. After the jury was rn, Assistant Circuit Attorney McDonald and the case for the prosecution in a long ement, in which he enumerated the ous things which the state expected to re during the trial. Among these is that by of his statements are not correct, all is to show that he was in collusion with robbers.

and "No not keep them open until these men Broatch r Marshal Cummings gave the devote.' sirous voters two minutes grace and then ordered the judges to close the polls, which was done. Thereupon a loud wail arose and there were as many protests and as loud from the men in the line who claimed that they were being deprived of their rights as American citizens as if they had been industriously employed elsewhere all day instead of sitting around in the immediate vicinity of the polls. But their pro-tests were of no avail and their purchased votes did not count. The polls had just closed when P. Ford and Dr. Hartzmann obtained admittance to the judges' room. Subsequently after considerable dispute, Dave Mercer and one or two others were admitted and the counting commenced. Good votes were polled in both precincts of the Fourth ward with less scratching than was noticed in some of the other wards. In the Fifth and Sixth wards wards. In the Fifth and Sixth wards light votes were polled with republican majorities. The main interest in the Seventh ward was upon the fight for councilmanic honors. Alexander in the first district led by a nice vote which was plinost equalled by Megeath's lead in the second district. Lee and Boyd, republi-bean and democrat, polled large votes for councilmen - at - large in both precincts. The scratching fever both precincts. The scratching fever was very noticeable in both precincts of the Eighth ward, the straight votes polled being very few in number. In the Ninth ward a fight was made on Kierstead in the second precinct while in the first precinct he carried everything. It vident at 3 o'clock that the democ racy had lost hope of electing Garnean for mayor. There was a spasmodic effort at a rally to his support and then the ranks broke and the last three hours of voting trading of all kinds was in-dulged in for the benefit of minor parties on the ticket without any regard whatever for the democratic head. At poon even money was offered at the Turf Exchange pool rooms that Garneau would be successful. At 3 o'clock most of the money was taken down and at the tume the polls closed offers of $10 to $7.50 that Broach was elected found no takers. that Broach was elected found no takers. Owing to the fearfully mixed condition of the votes returns are very diffi-rult to obtain with any degree of accuracy.
