

UNITED WORKMEN CONVENE.

First Day's Work of the State Grand Lodge A. O. U. W.

NEW BOARDERS AT THE PEN.

Little Biographical Sketches of the Prisoners Received This Month - The District Court Docket - Other Lincoln News.

FROM THE BEE'S LINCOLN BUREAU. Nearly two hundred delegates and representatives of the different lodges in the state A. O. U. W. met yesterday at 9:30 a. m. at Temple hall in grand lodge session, Rev. J. G. Tate, of Shelton, grand master workman, presiding. The morning session was devoted to the reception of delegations, to the opening ceremonies in the grand lodge, the appointment of and report of committee on credentials, and the conferring of grand lodge degrees. Nearly every subordinate lodge in the state was represented and the attendance at the leading hotels was greatly accelerated. The afternoon was largely devoted to the introduction of new business and financial matters, the election of officers being fixed upon for to-day.

RECORD OF CONVICTS RECEIVED. The following is the record of convicts received at the penitentiary since the first of the month: George Conrad (colored), sent from Cherry county, sentenced April term to twenty years in the penitentiary for rape, aged twenty-seven; native of Kentucky, by occupation a soldier, and in politics a republican. James Westbrook, sent from Dixon county, sentenced to two years imprisonment, aged twenty-eight, occupation brick maker, a native of Iowa, a Methodist and a republican. Robert T. Simpson, sent from Cherry county, and sentenced to eighteen months imprisonment for horse stealing, aged twenty-one, occupation farmer, native of Canada, a member of the Episcopal church and a republican. James Bohannon, sent from Cherry county, sent for eight years for horse stealing, aged twenty-four years of age; occupation a laborer; native Illinois, a Protestant and a republican. Edward K. Hill, sentenced at the April term from Sherman county to two years for rape, aged thirty-two years, occupation farmer, native New York, a member of the Episcopal church and a republican. Charles K. John Moore, sentenced from Dawson county to one year in the penitentiary for false pretense, aged thirty-two years of age, by occupation a farmer, native of Ohio, a member of no church, but a follower of the republican party.

DISTRICT COURT DOCKETS. The trial docket for the coming term of the Lancaster county district court have been received by the clerk and distributed. This session commences on the 16th of this month, and it will have before it 357 cases for adjudication. It will not of course be expected that all these will be disposed of, for with the multitudinous delays that the law knows it is never possible to clear a docket. Of these cases a great number are taken from lower courts. The divorce business looms up in the usual grand proportions with 41 cases and the criminal docket has 21. Many of them are deferred ones and the criminal business arising since the last term has been unusually small.

THE CITY WILL PAVE. The result of the city election held Monday under special call to vote upon the proposition to pay for paving roads and granting a franchise to the cable railway company resulted in a light, but practically unanimous vote. The result is viewed with a great deal of gratification by the progressive citizens of the city, and once the commencement of active work in the newly created paving districts. The granting of a franchise for a street cable railway will be a great step in the city's progress, as such assurance has been given that the road would certainly be built. About 600 votes were cast, less than a dozen of which were against the franchise.

FIGHTING ON A NEW ORDINANCE. At the council meeting Monday evening Councilman Billingsley, in response to voluminous petitions, introduced an ordinance amending an ordinance under which Mr. Sawyer exhibited himself Sunday last by ordering its enforcement and running away from it. The new ordinance provides in substance as follows: The ordinance amendments provide that it shall be unlawful for any person to engage in any dancing, running a foot race, or fast driving of horses or other animals, playing at ball, or any other game, or any other boxing, fishing, discharging pistols or other fire arms, beating drums, or playing upon other loud sounding instruments, except at funerals, to engage in or exhibit any show, play, opera, theatre or public amusement, exhibiting sacred comedies, or any admission fee is charged. It shall also be unlawful for any business house, bank, store, saloon, or any office, to be open for any persons to be admitted there for general business on said day, excepting only offices of physicians, telegraph and telephone offices, hotels, restaurants, cigar stands, ice cream parlors, fruit stands or other like places of business in the sale of goods and commodities of a perishable character, street cars, railway passenger trains, livery stables, vendors of ice, bread and milk, and drug stores for necessary purposes; meat markets shall be permitted to open till the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., and bath rooms and the printing of newspapers and distribution thereof shall be open till the hour of 12 o'clock noon. The ordinance provides a penalty of from $5 to $100 for violation of said ordinance.

ABOUT THE CITY. The proposition to advertise the city in the east made by the gentlemen from the east and now under the management of a committee of the board of trade, promises to be successfully carried out. Anything to advertise the city is eminently in order, but people who are in earnest in support of present plans, forget that two home men in Lincoln, who have in their special field worked for Lincoln in darker days, recently made a proposition to advertise the city in the best possible way for one half the expense of the present undertaking. Their names were Sam D. Cox and J. D. Cahoon, but they were not from the east. Their plan was to work with the thermometer in the vicinity of the minuties. There is nothing intended in this to chill in any manner anything that advertises the city, but it is such a pat illustration of the fact that a stranger can work an advertising scheme when responsible home men are distracted that it is hard to suppress passing comment. A Omaha man of much experience in such matters was in the city yesterday arranging with a number of leading citizens for the incorporation of a second electric light system in Lincoln. It was understood that the consummation of the plan would be made and the articles filed, but the work was evidently not completed then but may be looked for daily. The water question was up before the city council at its last session again, and numerous propositions were before the law-makers setting forth what the projectors would do. The city, notwithstanding the fact that at the great fire of Saturday last the supply never weakened, still seems to labor under the impression that there is a shortage. One of the remarkable accidents of the last few weeks was the breaking of the skull of a man named Marvin by a hatchet in the hands of a woman named Berry and her son. The associated press was flooded with this item as a murder, yet Marion is getting well and was able Monday to attend at police court and testify against his assailants. The police judge before whom the hearing was had bound the woman and her son over to district court under $1,000 bonds each. The couple failed to have the necessary backing to get bonds and went to jail. The police force yesterday had warrants out for the arrest of a German who lives southwest of the city in the bottoms. The night before this man's wife appeared at police court, stating that her husband had taken some $50 that she had earned and saved, and coming up town, had spent it all at the saloons. When he went home he immediately commenced abusing her, biting and beating her until she made her escape. At noon he had not been apprehended. In district court business there was added yesterday a petition of H. J. Walsh asking that through the court the Academy of Music property might be taken up and divided between himself and the heirs of Putnam, who was jointly interested with him in the building and ownership of the block. The monthly report of the city treasurer shows the receipts to have been $60,476.01, mounding a balance from the month before. Some $15,000 were paid out, and the balance on hand was $70,052.92. There were no prosecutions under the Sunday closing law up to noon yesterday, and at last reports the mayor was still in the city. The latest and greatest labor saver is Electric Lustré Starch.

Sir John Astley and the Pickpocket. St. James' Gazette. At Epsom police court today John Reagins was charged with stealing a gold watch valued at £90, the property of Sir John Astley. The prosecutor stated that as he was going into the paddock yesterday afternoon he saw a disturbance, and in a minute the roughs surrounded him, when one of them snatched his watch. He ran after him and succeeded in effecting his capture, when the prisoner took the watch from him and ran away with it. He ran after him also, and on reaching him knocked him down. By applying a little pressure with his knee on the man's stomach [laughter]-he got his watch, and then he gave him a little tap on the right eye so that he might be sure of recognizing him. [Laughter.] A policeman then came up, and, though perhaps it was not his business to say it, he might have put in an appearance before. [Laughter.] They were all "very fine and large" on the course, but they were not much good on that occasion. [Renewed laughter.] The prisoner, who at first said he ran after the first man to get his watch, but afterward pleaded guilty, was sentenced to three months' hard labor.

There are many cheap cosmetics offered for sale, which claim to contain nothing injurious to the skin. This is all bosh, all, or very nearly all are compounded from the most deleterious and poisonous drugs in the market, and they destroy the vitality of the skin, making the consumer prematurely withered and old. J. A. Pozzoni guarantees his medicated complexion powder entirely free from all injurious matter, and will gladly pay $500 to any practical chemist who can find upon analysis the slightest trace of white lead or arsenic. Use none other and you will never regret. Price 50 cents, and $1.00 per box. Sold by all druggists and perfumers.

One Way to Do It. Patronizing every agent that shows you an advertising tablet, card, directory, dictionary, or even an advertising bible, if one is offered at a reasonable price, shows that you know where to invest your money. But don't think of advertising in a way that will injure your newspaper. Not for a moment. Your advertisement would be nicely printed, and would find its way into all the thrifty households of the region, where the farmer, the mechanic, the tradesman, and others live, and into the families of the wealthy and refined—all who have articles to buy and the money with which to buy them; and in the quiet of the evening, after the news of the day has been digested, the next day people would come down to your store and patronize you, and keep increasing your numbers, and you might have to hire an extra clerk or two, move into a larger block and favorable location, and do a bigger business; but of course, it would be more expensive—and bring bigger profits.
