

HOME STOCK AT A PREMIUM.

The Denver Sluggers Defeated By the Omaha Team Yesterday Afternoon.

SALISBURY WILL PITCH TO-DAY.

Results of Other Diamond Contests Yesterday—Good Hitting at Louisville—Closing Day of the Maryland Meeting.

The Denvers Defeated.

The Denver base ball club, which opened the league season by a series of victories, has been having bad luck outside of Colorado.

A Clipper Race.

NEW YORK, May 13.—The clipper ships Seminole and Charming, started yesterday in a race of 17,000 miles to San Francisco.

The Hanlan-Gaudaur Race.

WORCESTER, Mass., May 13.—It has been decided to row the Hanlan-Gaudaur race on the 30th inst., at Pullman, Ill.

Inter-State Commerce.

KINGSTON, N. Y., May 13.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Inter-State Commerce Commissioner Schoonmaker, who is at his home in this city, has received from Judge Cooley a draft of a proposed letter to Secretary Bayard in answer to his communication transmitting a letter from the United States commercial agent at London, Ont., in which the latter predicted disastrous results from the inter-state commerce law.

The Range Cattle Industry.

BOZEMAN, May 13.—The Commercial-Bulletin publishes to-day a special report of the range cattle industry. The reports are furnished by special correspondence of thirteen states and territories, covering the whole field. The conclusions arrived at indicate that the early reports of winter losses have been considerably exaggerated.

Big Opium Seizure.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—The customs officers to-day seized 115 cases marked "nut oil" on the steamer Rio Janeiro, which arrived from China yesterday. The cases, upon being opened, were found to contain 16 metrically sealed cans of opium placed in nut oil. The seizure is valued at $24,000.

Chicago Building Suspended.

CHICAGO, May 13.—To-night all the building operations under the control of the contractors who are members of the Master Masons' association, were suspended, and the work done so far as the bricklayers and stonemasons are concerned. It is estimated that fully 10,000 workmen are now idle in the building trades of this city, as a result of the strike.

Struck For Their Pay.

MINNAPOLIS, May 13.—A special from Ironwood, Mich., says that the miners of the Bonnie, Blue Jacket and First National mines are out on a strike to force the payment of two months' back pay.

Murderers Confess Their Crime.

NEW YORK, May 13.—James F. Taylor, who, together with Henry B. Chamberlain, was arrested yesterday for the murder of Mrs. Morgan and E. Earnest in New Haven, has made a detailed confession in writing, which is being used by the attorney who is charged with being the leader throughout, in the robbery and murder.

The Conductors.

NEW ORLEANS, May 13.—At the annual session of the order of Railway Conductors yesterday, the office of grand conductor was made a salaried one, and he will be expected to devote his entire time to the business of the order.

A Slight Shake.

CHARLESTON, S. C., May 13.—There was a slight shock of earthquake at Summerville and slight rumbling at Charleston last night. The vibration was not greater than would be caused by a loaded wagon passing along a street.

Arrived in Port.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—Dispatch to the Merchants' exchange from Port Townsend states that all the crew of the Oregon King, burned and abandoned on the Oregon coast Sunday last, have arrived at that port.

National Wool Growers Adjourn.

ST. LOUIS, May 13.—The National Wool Growers and Sheep Shearers' association has adjourned sine die.

Personal Paragraphs.

Max Meyer returned yesterday from a northern trip.

UNDER THE NEW MANAGER.

The Union Pacific Has Passed Into Mr. Potter's Hands.

HIS ARRIVAL LAST EVENING.

President Adams Speaks of Mr. Callaway's Capacity and of the Affairs of the Road—General Rumblings of the Rail.

Adams, Ames and Potter.

The Union Pacific triumvirate of magnates, President Charles Francis Adams, Director Fred Ames, and General Manager Thomas J. Potter, arrived from Kansas City last evening at 5 o'clock by special train. They were driven to the Millard hotel.

What Extensions Does the Union Pacific Contemplate in View of the General Management Being Assumed by Mr. Potter?

Mr. Adams replied: "None that I know of." "Will the Cheyenne and Northern, which runs from Cheyenne northward into central Wyoming, be built beyond its present terminus?" "The Cheyenne and Northern had to be completed to the Platte and across that river, the distance of 125 miles from Cheyenne. It will not be constructed beyond that point at present. There is now a concentration of building on the new line. It will be at and across the Platte inside of two months."

When Will Mr. Potter Arrive?

"When will Mr. Potter arrive?" was then inquired, the purpose of the query being to ascertain whether the general manager was as truthful as some of the other railroad gentlemen who had been so generous of information as to positively state that Mr. Potter was not yet in the city.

Excuse me, there is my private secretary.

"Excuse me, there is my private secretary," said Mr. Adams; "I must send a telegram."

The truth was that Mr. Potter arrived last evening, as stated in the opening paragraph above, and was on the same special train which bore Messrs. Adams and Ames and Mr. Adams' private secretary.

It is needless to state that no interview was possible with Mr. Potter last night.

What do you suppose will be the result of Mr. Potter taking hold of the Union Pacific?

Mr. Potter was asked of a well posted and quite well-informed railroad man last evening. He replied that the system he had in mind was to put the road in the hands of a general superintendent, and Deuel will be confirmed in the superintendency of the line from here to Cheyenne. There will be no assistant general superintendent. These are my opinions."

President Adams and Mr. Ames will leave for the east to-day.

President Adams and Mr. Ames will leave for the east to-day. They express themselves as very high in regard to the condition of the road over which they have traveled on their present trip. They went to Cheyenne, Denver and Kansas City, but were able to determine the condition of the road pretty well from their observations and the information they received at those points.

The Elk Horn's Activity.

The Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley road, which is the largest of all Northwestern roads west of the Missouri, is being very actively pushed westward through Wyoming, and also on the branch into this city from Arlington. The prospects are now bright, and the completion of the Wyoming line from Douglas, its present terminus, to a point known as Goose Egg ranch, near the location of old Fort Caspar, sixty-five miles west, before September 1, is being completed already upon this extension.

The Arlington branch into Omaha will be in operation by August 15 at the rate with which work is now being pushed.

LABOR NEWS.

The Latest About Omaha's Striking Workmen.

Yesterday morning a number of the men who have struck for higher wages on the cable line on Dodge street, met as usual at the corner of that thoroughfare and Fourteenth street. They evinced no disposition to go to work at the rate per day which had been offered them. They persisted in refusing to work for less than $3 per day.

Memorial Day.

The G. A. R. committee have secured Judge Bartlett as orator for Memorial Day. They have also named the following committees:

Joint Committee on Arrangements—D. Hurley, president; Wm. Chas. General Kolb, secretary; R. H. Bates, James Casey, John Stevens, P. O. Hawes, M. R. Risdon, M. M. Middleton, Captain Burrell, A. M. Clark and S. Goetz.

Orators and Invitations—Hurley, Risdon and Middleton. Carriages and Transportation—Casey and Hurley. Entertainment—Wm. Chas. General Kolb, Charles C. Kohlmeier, F. Wirth, Burrell, Goetz and Saites. Supplying Ice and Water—Middleton and Lindsey.

Music—Chas. C. Kohlmeier, F. Wirth, Burrell, Goetz and Saites.

Supplies—Wm. Chas. General Kolb, James Casey, Mrs. E. R. G. Saites, Mrs. Niederweiser, Mrs. Gieske, Mrs. D. M. St. Geyer, Mrs. A. Burmeister, Mrs. Williston, Mrs. M. J. Charles, E. Bur-gives him what he cannot earn.

I have spoken to a number of these men and told them that they had not the matter, and they have appointed a committee to meet me this morning at the Truth office to see if we cannot adjust the difficulty. I expect by 9 o'clock everything will be settled, and I expect that the men will again be at work.

The reporter revisited the scene at 3 o'clock, but the men had not gone to work. A number of them lounged idly around the corner.

On last Wednesday night a number of the strikers brought the case before the city executive committee and the state master workman, to have the matter settled, but as many of the strikers complained the laborers had to make, and finally decided that the strikers had not just cause for ceasing work. It therefore ordered the men back to work this morning, but as many of the strikers forgoing the order was not obeyed.

The ground upon which the order was based, was the fact that early in the season the committee had decided, and the strikers had agreed to accept, an average pay for unskilled labor the present season should be $1.75.

That amount Mr. Lillis was paying to all save two of his men, and those were to work but a few days for $2 per day, while the rest of the men received $2 per day.

Yesterday afternoon there were no new developments in the strike. About 200 strikers were congregated on Dodge street. Seven policemen were on hand to see that no trouble occurred.

The cable line strikers met at Cunningham hall on Thirteenth street tonight. The local committee to the Knights of Labor which has decided that the cable line strikers are in the wrong, is trying to arbitrate a difference between them and their employers.

The Cable Line Strike.

The striking laborers on the cable line held two meetings yesterday afternoon and last evening. The first was in the city hall. About sixty men were present. There was but little preliminary discussion. The question was put: Shall we go to work at the wages offered by the contractors? The vote was taken by ballot, "yes" and "no." The vote resulted 42 yeas and 23 nays. The previous agreement that the majority should rule, was adhered to, and the meeting adjourned.

At 7:30 o'clock another meeting was held in Cunningham hall. About twenty-five men were present. Considerable talk was indulged in and three members of the Knights of Labor appeared for a few minutes. The meeting adopted a resolution that the strikers should not take it upon themselves as laborers, independent of any organization, to decide to not go back to work unless they were paid $2 per day.

The following statement is authorized by the Knights of Labor, in concurrence with what was intimated in yesterday's Bee:

The cable line strike was the result of a few malcontents, and has no authority from the Knights of Labor. A few men who are members of the Knights of Labor who are firebrands and who produce upheavals. A few of them are in this movement. If the laborers who have struck do not accept the terms proposed by the contractors, they are to work they will have to rest on their own backs and light their own battles before the public. The persons, if Knights of Labor, who are responsible for compelling the strikers to accept the terms of the public call will be called to account, and will be treated in accordance with the rules of the Knights of Labor.

The Knights of Labor contend that the contractors are endeavoring to pay much for labor as any other contractor in the city.

They say he has signified his willingness to increase the pay of laborers to whatever figure other contractors adopt. They say that the strikers, in endeavoring to force a $2 per day rate upon him an injustice. They desire it to be clearly and distinctly understood that the Knights of Labor are not in the fight.

A DRENCHER AND A BLOWER.

Yesterday's Storm One of the Most Thorough Known in Omaha.

Yesterday's storm was an old fashioned, down east drencher. It started out in the regulation way, too, with a strong and able-bodied blow. By the gale which preceded and accompanied the first down-pouring, a number of small structures in the northwestern portion of the city were wrecked.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE MCGIBNEY FAMILY.

The most enthusiastic audience of the season welcomed the famous McGibney family last night at Boyd's. The troupe is a wonder. From the father and mother in their vigorous prime, down successive steps to the youngest, a precocious infant of four, all are exceptionally talented and genuinely excellent. It is a performance that makes the children wild and their elders delighted. The orchestra, of brass, string and vocal numbers were all given with such dash, precision, beauty of tone, luscious shading as made the program a truly delightful one. The title "Polonia" by Wienawski, was given by Hugh McGibney with rare feeling, delicacy and clean execution. He is an artist of superior merit. The children were charming, and held the audience fascinated throughout. The family give a matinee and evening performance to-day, and big houses will no doubt avail themselves of this unusual treat.

THE MCGIBNEY FAMILY.

The most enthusiastic audience of the season welcomed the famous McGibney family last night at Boyd's. The troupe is a wonder. From the father and mother in their vigorous prime, down successive steps to the youngest, a precocious infant of four, all are exceptionally talented and genuinely excellent. It is a performance that makes the children wild and their elders delighted. The orchestra, of brass, string and vocal numbers were all given with such dash, precision, beauty of tone, luscious shading as made the program a truly delightful one. The title "Polonia" by Wienawski, was given by Hugh McGibney with rare feeling, delicacy and clean execution. He is an artist of superior merit. The children were charming, and held the audience fascinated throughout. The family give a matinee and evening performance to-day, and big houses will no doubt avail themselves of this unusual treat.

THE MCGIBNEY FAMILY.

The most enthusiastic audience of the season welcomed the famous McGibney family last night at Boyd's. The troupe is a wonder. From the father and mother in their vigorous prime, down successive steps to the youngest, a precocious infant of four, all are exceptionally talented and genuinely excellent. It is a performance that makes the children wild and their elders delighted. The orchestra, of brass, string and vocal numbers were all given with such dash, precision, beauty of tone, luscious shading as made the program a truly delightful one. The title "Polonia" by Wienawski, was given by Hugh McGibney with rare feeling, delicacy and clean execution. He is an artist of superior merit. The children were charming, and held the audience fascinated throughout. The family give a matinee and evening performance to-day, and big houses will no doubt avail themselves of this unusual treat.

THE MCGIBNEY FAMILY.

The most enthusiastic audience of the season welcomed the famous McGibney family last night at Boyd's. The troupe is a wonder. From the father and mother in their vigorous prime, down successive steps to the youngest, a precocious infant of four, all are exceptionally talented and genuinely excellent. It is a performance that makes the children wild and their elders delighted. The orchestra, of brass, string and vocal numbers were all given with such dash, precision, beauty of tone, luscious shading as made the program a truly delightful one. The title "Polonia" by Wienawski, was given by Hugh McGibney with rare feeling, delicacy and clean execution. He is an artist of superior merit. The children were charming, and held the audience fascinated throughout. The family give a matinee and evening performance to-day, and big houses will no doubt avail themselves of this unusual treat.

THE MCGIBNEY FAMILY.

The most enthusiastic audience of the season welcomed the famous McGibney family last night at Boyd's. The troupe is a wonder. From the father and mother in their vigorous prime, down successive steps to the youngest, a precocious infant of four, all are exceptionally talented and genuinely excellent. It is a performance that makes the children wild and their elders delighted. The orchestra, of brass, string and vocal numbers were all given with such dash, precision, beauty of tone, luscious shading as made the program a truly delightful one. The title "Polonia" by Wienawski, was given by Hugh McGibney with rare feeling, delicacy and clean execution. He is an artist of superior merit. The children were charming, and held the audience fascinated throughout. The family give a matinee and evening performance to-day, and big houses will no doubt avail themselves of this unusual treat.

THE MCGIBNEY FAMILY.

The most enthusiastic audience of the season welcomed the famous McGibney family last night at Boyd's. The troupe is a wonder. From the father and mother in their vigorous prime, down successive steps to the youngest, a precocious infant of four, all are exceptionally talented and genuinely excellent. It is a performance that makes the children wild and their elders delighted. The orchestra, of brass, string and vocal numbers were all given with such dash, precision, beauty of tone, luscious shading as made the program a truly delightful one. The title "Polonia" by Wienawski, was given by Hugh McGibney with rare feeling, delicacy and clean execution. He is an artist of superior merit. The children were charming, and held the audience fascinated throughout. The family give a matinee and evening performance to-day, and big houses will no doubt avail themselves of this unusual treat.

THE MCGIBNEY FAMILY.

The most enthusiastic audience of the season welcomed the famous McGibney family last night at Boyd's. The troupe is a wonder. From the father and mother in their vigorous prime, down successive steps to the youngest, a precocious infant of four, all are exceptionally talented and genuinely excellent. It is a performance that makes the children wild and their elders delighted. The orchestra, of brass, string and vocal numbers were all given with such dash, precision, beauty of tone, luscious shading as made the program a truly delightful one. The title "Polonia" by Wienawski, was given by Hugh McGibney with rare feeling, delicacy and clean execution. He is an artist of superior merit. The children were charming, and held the audience fascinated throughout. The family give a matinee and evening performance to-day, and big houses will no doubt avail themselves of this unusual treat.

THE MCGIBNEY FAMILY.

The most enthusiastic audience of the season welcomed the famous McGibney family last night at Boyd's. The troupe is a wonder. From the father and mother in their vigorous prime, down successive steps to the youngest, a precocious infant of four, all are exceptionally talented and genuinely excellent. It is a performance that makes the children wild and their elders delighted. The orchestra, of brass, string and vocal numbers were all given with such dash, precision, beauty of tone, luscious shading as made the program a truly delightful one. The title "Polonia" by Wienawski, was given by Hugh McGibney with rare feeling, delicacy and clean execution. He is an artist of superior merit. The children were charming, and held the audience fascinated throughout. The family give a matinee and evening performance to-day, and big houses will no doubt avail themselves of this unusual treat.

THE MCGIBNEY FAMILY.

The most enthusiastic audience of the season welcomed the famous McGibney family last night at Boyd's. The troupe is a wonder. From the father and mother in their vigorous prime, down successive steps to the youngest, a precocious infant of four, all are exceptionally talented and genuinely excellent. It is a performance that makes the children wild and their elders delighted. The orchestra, of brass, string and vocal numbers were all given with such dash, precision, beauty of tone, luscious shading as made the program a truly delightful one. The title "Polonia" by Wienawski, was given by Hugh McGibney with rare feeling, delicacy and clean execution. He is an artist of superior merit. The children were charming, and held the audience fascinated throughout. The family give a matinee and evening performance to-day, and big houses will no doubt avail themselves of this unusual treat.

THE MCGIBNEY FAMILY.

The most enthusiastic audience of the season welcomed the famous McGibney family last night at Boyd's. The troupe is a wonder. From the father and mother in their vigorous prime, down successive steps to the youngest, a precocious infant of four, all are exceptionally talented and genuinely excellent. It is a performance that makes the children wild and their elders delighted. The orchestra, of brass, string and vocal numbers were all given with such dash, precision, beauty of tone, luscious shading as made the program a truly delightful one. The title "Polonia" by Wienawski, was given by Hugh McGibney with rare feeling, delicacy and clean execution. He is an artist of superior merit. The children were charming, and held the audience fascinated throughout. The family give a matinee and evening performance to-day, and big houses will no doubt avail themselves of this unusual treat.

THE MCGIBNEY FAMILY.

The most enthusiastic audience of the season welcomed the famous McGibney family last night at Boyd's. The troupe is a wonder. From the father and mother in their vigorous prime, down successive steps to the youngest, a precocious infant of four, all are exceptionally talented and genuinely excellent. It is a performance that makes the children wild and their elders delighted. The orchestra, of brass, string and vocal numbers were all given with such dash, precision, beauty of tone, luscious shading as made the program a truly delightful one. The title "Polonia" by Wienawski, was given by Hugh McGibney with rare feeling, delicacy and clean execution. He is an artist of superior merit. The children were charming, and held the audience fascinated throughout. The family give a matinee and evening performance to-day, and big houses will no doubt avail themselves of this unusual treat.

gives him what he cannot earn.

I have spoken to a number of these men and told them that they had not the matter, and they have appointed a committee to meet me this morning at the Truth office to see if we cannot adjust the difficulty. I expect by 9 o'clock everything will be settled, and I expect that the men will again be at work.

The reporter revisited the scene at 3 o'clock, but the men had not gone to work. A number of them lounged idly around the corner.

On last Wednesday night a number of the strikers brought the case before the city executive committee and the state master workman, to have the matter settled, but as many of the strikers complained the laborers had to make, and finally decided that the strikers had not just cause for ceasing work. It therefore ordered the men back to work this morning, but as many of the strikers forgoing the order was not obeyed.

The ground upon which the order was based, was the fact that early in the season the committee had decided, and the strikers had agreed to accept, an average pay for unskilled labor the present season should be $1.75.

That amount Mr. Lillis was paying to all save two of his men, and those were to work but a few days for $2 per day, while the rest of the men received $2 per day.

Yesterday afternoon there were no new developments in the strike. About 200 strikers were congregated on Dodge street. Seven policemen were on hand to see that no trouble occurred.

The cable line strikers met at Cunningham hall on Thirteenth street tonight. The local committee to the Knights of Labor which has decided that the cable line strikers are in the wrong, is trying to arbitrate a difference between them and their employers.

The Cable Line Strike.

The striking laborers on the cable line held two meetings yesterday afternoon and last evening. The first was in the city hall. About sixty men were present. There was but little preliminary discussion. The question was put: Shall we go to work at the wages offered by the contractors? The vote was taken by ballot, "yes" and "no." The vote resulted 42 yeas and 23 nays. The previous agreement that the majority should rule, was adhered to, and the meeting adjourned.

At 7:30 o'clock another meeting was held in Cunningham hall. About twenty-five men were present. Considerable talk was indulged in and three members of the Knights of Labor appeared for a few minutes. The meeting adopted a resolution that the strikers should not take it upon themselves as laborers, independent of any organization, to decide to not go back to work unless they were paid $2 per day.

The following statement is authorized by the Knights of Labor, in concurrence with what was intimated in yesterday's Bee:

The cable line strike was the result of a few malcontents, and has no authority from the Knights of Labor. A few men who are members of the Knights of Labor who are firebrands and who produce upheavals. A few of them are in this movement. If the laborers who have struck do not accept the terms proposed by the contractors, they are to work they will have to rest on their own backs and light their own battles before the public. The persons, if Knights of Labor, who are responsible for compelling the strikers to accept the terms of the public call will be called to account, and will be treated in accordance with the rules of the Knights of Labor.

The Knights of Labor contend that the contractors are endeavoring to pay much for labor as any other contractor in the city.

They say he has signified his willingness to increase the pay of laborers to whatever figure other contractors adopt. They say that the strikers, in endeavoring to force a $2 per day rate upon him an injustice. They desire it to be clearly and distinctly understood that the Knights of Labor are not in the fight.

A DRENCHER AND A BLOWER.

Yesterday's Storm One of the Most Thorough Known in Omaha.

Yesterday's storm was an old fashioned, down east drencher. It started out in the regulation way, too, with a strong and able-bodied blow. By the gale which preceded and accompanied the first down-pouring, a number of small structures in the northwestern portion of the city were wrecked.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE MCGIBNEY FAMILY.

The most enthusiastic audience of the season welcomed the famous McGibney family last night at Boyd's. The troupe is a wonder. From the father and mother in their vigorous prime, down successive steps to the youngest, a precocious infant of four, all are exceptionally talented and genuinely excellent. It is a performance that makes the children wild and their elders delighted. The orchestra, of brass, string and vocal numbers were all given with such dash, precision, beauty of tone, luscious shading as made the program a truly delightful one. The title "Polonia" by Wienawski, was given by Hugh McGibney with rare feeling, delicacy and clean execution. He is an artist of superior merit. The children were charming, and held the audience fascinated throughout. The family give a matinee and evening performance to-day, and big houses will no doubt avail themselves of this unusual treat.

THE MCGIBNEY FAMILY.

The most enthusiastic audience of the season welcomed the famous McGibney family last night at Boyd's. The troupe is a wonder. From the father and mother in their vigorous prime, down successive steps to the youngest, a precocious infant of four, all are exceptionally talented and genuinely excellent. It is a performance that makes the children wild and their elders delighted. The orchestra, of brass, string and vocal numbers were all given with such dash, precision, beauty of tone, luscious shading as made the program a truly delightful one. The title "Polonia" by Wienawski, was given by Hugh McGibney with rare feeling, delicacy and clean execution. He is an artist of superior merit. The children were charming, and held the audience fascinated throughout. The family give a matinee and evening performance to-day, and big houses will no doubt avail themselves of this unusual treat.

THE MCGIBNEY FAMILY.

The most enthusiastic audience of the season welcomed the famous McGibney family last night at Boyd's. The troupe is a wonder. From the father and mother in their vigorous prime, down successive steps to the youngest, a precocious infant of four, all are exceptionally talented and genuinely excellent. It is a performance that makes the children wild and their elders delighted. The orchestra, of brass, string and vocal numbers were all given with such dash, precision, beauty of tone, luscious shading as made the program a truly delightful one. The title "Polonia" by Wienawski, was given by Hugh McGibney with rare feeling, delicacy and clean execution. He is an artist of superior merit. The children were charming, and held the audience fascinated throughout. The family give a matinee and evening performance to-day, and big houses will no doubt avail themselves of this unusual treat.

THE MCGIBNEY FAMILY.

The most enthusiastic audience of the season welcomed the famous McGibney family last night at Boyd's. The troupe is a wonder. From the father and mother in their vigorous prime, down successive steps to the youngest, a precocious infant of four, all are exceptionally talented and genuinely excellent. It is a performance that makes the children wild and their elders delighted. The orchestra, of brass, string and vocal numbers were all given with such dash, precision, beauty of tone, luscious shading as made the program a truly delightful one. The title "Polonia" by Wienawski, was given by Hugh McGibney with rare feeling, delicacy and clean execution. He is an artist of superior merit. The children were charming, and held the audience fascinated throughout. The family give a matinee and evening performance to-day, and big houses will no doubt avail themselves of this unusual treat.

THE MCGIBNEY FAMILY.

The most enthusiastic audience of the season welcomed the famous McGibney family last night at Boyd's. The troupe is a wonder. From the father and mother in their vigorous prime, down successive steps to the youngest, a precocious infant of four, all are exceptionally talented and genuinely excellent. It is a performance that makes the children wild and their elders delighted. The orchestra, of brass, string and vocal numbers were all given with such dash, precision, beauty of tone, luscious shading as made the program a truly delightful one. The title "Polonia" by Wienawski, was given by Hugh McGibney with rare feeling, delicacy and clean execution. He is an artist of superior merit. The children were charming, and held the audience fascinated throughout. The family give a matinee and evening performance to-day, and big houses will no doubt avail themselves of this unusual treat.

THE MCGIBNEY FAMILY.

The most enthusiastic audience of the season welcomed the famous McGibney family last night at Boyd's. The troupe is a wonder. From the father and mother in their vigorous prime, down successive steps to the youngest, a precocious infant of four, all are exceptionally talented and genuinely excellent. It is a performance that makes the children wild and their elders delighted. The orchestra, of brass, string and vocal numbers were all given with such dash, precision, beauty of tone, luscious shading as made the program a truly delightful one. The title "Polonia" by Wienawski, was given by Hugh McGibney with rare feeling, delicacy and clean execution. He is an artist of superior merit. The children were charming, and held the audience fascinated throughout. The family give a matinee and evening performance to-day, and big houses will no doubt avail themselves of this unusual treat.

THE MCGIBNEY FAMILY.

The most enthusiastic audience of the season welcomed the famous McGibney family last night at Boyd's. The troupe is a wonder. From the father and mother in their vigorous prime, down successive steps to the youngest, a precocious infant of four, all are exceptionally talented and genuinely excellent. It is a performance that makes the children wild and their elders delighted. The orchestra, of brass, string and vocal numbers were all given with such dash, precision, beauty of tone, luscious shading as made the program a truly delightful one. The title "Polonia" by Wienawski, was given by Hugh McGibney with rare feeling, delicacy and clean execution. He is an artist of superior merit. The children were charming, and held the audience fascinated throughout. The family give a matinee and evening performance to-day, and big houses will no doubt avail themselves of this unusual treat.

THE MCGIBNEY FAMILY.

The most enthusiastic audience of the season welcomed the famous McGibney family last night at Boyd's. The troupe is a wonder. From the father and mother in their vigorous prime, down successive steps to the youngest, a precocious infant of four, all are exceptionally talented and genuinely excellent. It is a performance that makes the children wild and their elders delighted. The orchestra, of brass, string and vocal numbers were all given with such dash, precision, beauty of tone, luscious shading as made the program a truly delightful one. The title "Polonia" by Wienawski, was given by Hugh McGibney with rare feeling, delicacy and clean execution. He is an artist of superior merit. The children were charming, and held the audience fascinated throughout. The family give a matinee and evening performance to-day, and big houses will no doubt avail themselves of this unusual treat.

THE MCGIBNEY FAMILY.

The most enthusiastic audience of the season welcomed the famous McGibney family last night at Boyd's. The troupe is a wonder. From the father and mother in their vigorous prime, down successive steps to the youngest, a precocious infant of four, all are exceptionally talented and genuinely excellent. It is a performance that makes the children wild and their elders delighted. The orchestra, of brass, string and vocal numbers were all given with such dash, precision, beauty of tone, luscious shading as made the program a truly delightful one. The title "Polonia" by Wienawski, was given by Hugh McGibney with rare feeling, delicacy and clean execution. He is an artist of superior merit. The children were charming, and held the audience fascinated throughout. The family give a matinee and evening performance to-day, and big houses will no doubt avail themselves of this unusual treat.

THE MCGIBNEY FAMILY.

The most enthusiastic audience of the season welcomed the famous McGibney family last night at Boyd's. The troupe is a wonder. From the father and mother in their vigorous prime, down successive steps to the youngest,