A VERY SENSATIONAL STORY.

Large Transactions in Corn at Bottom Prices-Oats Weak at a Decline-Activity in Provisions-Market Quotations.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

Chicago, May 13 .- | Special Telegram to the BEE.]-June wheat was pegged at 86c by the clique to-day. The market fluctuated between 85%@86c and 86%c, and between 80c and 8614c the trading was very heavy. The clique brokers bought largely at 86c, and, as though to make their desire to have the market rest at 86c, they sold considerable at 86%c. The clique will buy the crop at 86c and sell you all you want on the split above 86c," remarked a trader, and that was approximately a correct statement of the case. The crowd was bearish, and but for the pegging tactics of clique houses would have broken the market this morning, as it was frightened at the weakness of the surrounding markets and at reports of drenching rains through large areas in Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri and Iowa. "Tailers" and small holders generally were quite panicky at the outset and realized freely. The offerings of long property were very large in the aggregate. The indisposition on the part of the general crowd to trade with recognized clique brokers getting stronger every day and this characteristic was emphasized to-day. Nevertheless the clique houses managed to add vastly to their holdings during the continuance of the long session. An incident of the day was the appearance in an afternoon paper of a sensational article on the May and June deal which was calculated to excite the liveliest apprehensions in the breasts of the bears. It was to the effect that the clique had bought in this market for June 41 000,000 bushels; in this market for June 41 000,000 bushels; that it was the strongest clique that eyer attempted to bottle up the breadstuffs of the world. Although the impression prevails very generally that the clique will repeat its grand hustling act for money the last of this month, some of the extremely conservative commission merchants are refusing to execute selling orders for June unless their customers have the property to deliver. The 1 o'clock range was 80c for June, 81%@85c for July, 83%c for August, and 83½c for September. Corn was well-nigh friendless in the local speculative market to-day, and the hammer-ing process inaugurated yesterday was again a conspicuous feature of trade. The bulk of a conspicuous feature of trade. The bulk of heavy trading was at around about the bottom prices, or at 4034@41c on the split, and 41@413c for July. One trader put out 300,000 bushels in one lot at 4034@41c. Another, who was credited yesterday with selling freely, bought a line of fully half a million. The sum total of the transactions during the regular session ran up into large figures, and the tendency of the market from start to finish was downward. The bear elefigures, and the tendency of the market from start to finish was downward. The bear element, which is now in the ascendancy, appears to be expanding its muscle on the further reports of rain over large areas of the corn belt. Of other outside influences there were none of importance. Seller June sold steadily off from 30% c at the opening to 30% c at 10 clock. July declined from 41% c to 40% c, with 41c bid at the close.

Oats ruled weak in sympathy with corn, and the near futures declined 1,6% c, and declined later to 27% c, sold at 27% 227% c, and declined later to 27% c, closing on the split at 37% 227% c at 10 clock. Business was dull most of the time.

274/0273c at 1 o'clock. Business was dull most of the time.

The provision pit attracted more attention than on any day for some time past. The continued weakness and depression finally developed an improved disposition to trade, and while the feeling was cautious, and traders doubtless kept within what they thought safe limits the business transacted all around reached a comparatively good volume. More than fair activity, at any rate, was exhibited, yet the product sold as a rule at irregular prices and averaged lower than on any day since the declining movement was exhibited, yet the product sold as a rule at irregular prices and averaged lower than on any day since the declining movement commenced. In lard the average decline, based on yesterday's range, was 5c, and in short ribs 15@17½c. As the day progressed the market gained in strength and at 10'clock lard had recovered its lost ground and closed the same as last night to 2½c higher. Short ribs rested at prices showing a depreciation of only 5c. Pork was held steady and closed unchanged. In lard and short ribs the buying witnessed was directed mainly to the covering of port contracts made when the market was higher than at the present writing. As usual, June, July and August were the favorite deliveries. Cash product was in increased demand and sold quite fairly.

AFTERNOON SESSION—Wheat was stronger. June opened at 86½c, sold at 85%85½c, con the split, then up sharply to 86½c, closing at 86½c; July opened at 85c, sold at 85%85½c, on the split, then up sharply to 86½c, closing at 86½c; July opened at 85c. August sold at 83½@83½c, closing 83½c. Corn was firm. Oats were steady. Pork remained at $21,00 for May and June, with no trading. Lard ruled 2½c@5c higher, sold and closed at $6.75 for June, 86.82½ for July, and $6.90 for August. Short ribs were advanced 5c, and closed at 87.27½c for May, $7.17½ for June, $7.27½c 7.30 bid for July.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, May 13,-- | Special Telegram to the BEE. |-CATTLE-With cattle coming at such a rate, dealers saw at a glance this morning that prices would be lower, and about the only unsettled question was how much lower. There were too many big, heavy cattle, and some choice ripe 1500 to 1600 lb beeves sold the lowest of the season. The general market was 10c lower, and there were few exceptions. Some kinds of cattle were 30c lower than Wednesday, but the most desirable kinds were 15c lower than day before yesterday, while some big rough cattle were that much lower than yesterday. The market was very slow and weak, closing with not a few cattle left. Heavy, $4.30 (24.90; light, $4.00(24.0); stockers and feeders, $2.90(24.15; cows, buils and mixed, $2.00 (23.85; bulk, $3.00(25.30; slop-fed steers, $4.40(24.60; slop-fed cows and bulls, $3.00(25.00) 4.40@4.60; slop-ted cows and bulls, 3.00@

Hoos—There seems to be no bottom to prices in this market this week, judging by the way values have declined since a week ago. The usual 10c decline was the result of to-day's business, and since a week ago to-day prices have declined 50@55c per 100. To-day the best heavy made only $5.00@0.05, against $5.50@5.55 last Friday. The decline has been steady and gradual. A little has been taken off each day. Common mixed sold at $4.60@4.70; best mixed, at $4.80@4.90, and best heavy, together with butcher weights, at about $5.00; common light sold as low as $4.50@4.50, and assorted Yorkers $4.70@4.80. A few fancy singeing bigs sold at $4.95@5.00.

NEW YORK, May 18,- Special Telegram to the BEE. |-STOCKS.-The bull move ment in stocks made still further progress today, and as on the preceding days the strong est stocks were the grangers and trunk lines Northwest moved up to 1254 and St. Paul sold at 94. Pullman dropped off 11/4 per cent on reports of a strike among the employes. One of the most favorable factors was the strength of the London market. During the past two days there has been an advance of 1@2 per cent in all American securities traded in, and arbitrage houses report a very bullish sentiment and a growing disposition to invest, especially in dividend payers. The Chicago bull party was reported to be inslined to realize in Northwestern and Pullman and take up something which had not been bulled. A good deal of Manitoba was taken on by western people and the point was quietly circulated that insiders were in for a 10 point advance in it. Western Union was rather weak, but on the decline there were large buying orders by people who pro-lessed to have information favorable to it. Colorado coal advanced to 58 and the special one figured out that the inter-state commerce law would enable it to charge $17 more per ton for steel rails, in as much as freight rates had been increased that much noon there were heavy realizing sales, but the market took all the offerings without any perceptible reaction. The sales to noon were 152,000 shares. Manhattan moved up in a lively manner just before the close, but after selling at 160 dropped back a fraction. The Lake Shore's earnings for the month of April were reported to have increased $300,-000, and a good share of the advance was attributed to buying by insiders who had early information on this subject. Manitoba made a clear gain of 114 per cent on the announce ment that its entire issue of 4 per cent bonds had been subscribed for. There was a report that a big 10,000 share pool had been formed to buy Northwestern, and the strength of this stock seemed to indicate that the bull movement in it was not yet over. The market closed very strong at the best prices of the day. The total sales were about 380,000 shares.

GOVERNMENTS-Government bonds were
