The Dead Discovered.

The readers of the BEE will remember that on the 7th of last April, it recroded the drowning of Fred Smith, a saloonkeeper on South Tenth street below the keeper on South Tenth street below the railroad track. He went out on the Platte, with Letter-Carrier Hoffman, and feil through the ice near Valley. Although a search was made for the body it remained concealed until yesterdax morning, when it was found. Marshal Cumings was yesterday notified of the dis-covery, and he in turn informed the widow of the deceased. The remains were found near Yutan, a station beyond Valley. The remains arrived here last night. The funeral will take place at 2:30 o'clock funeral will take place at 2:30 o'clock from Drexel & Maul's. The services will be under the auspices of Allemanni lodge I. O. O. F., the Douglas Hain No. 2, Order of Druids and the Menner-Friends invited. choir.

The Board of Education.

Messrs, Clark, Copeland and Livesey were absent from the meeting of the board of education held Monday evening. President Points was tardy, an unusual occurrence, and Mr. Long was chosen chairman of the meeting, The question as to whether the present members of the board will hold over under the new law was brought up. Mr. Davis, of the committee on judiciary, presented an opinion, prepared by J. M. Woolworth, upon the tenure of office of the present members of the board and upon the authority of the present hody to bond the new district. The opinion, which is of general interest is briefed as follows;

trict. The opinion, which is of general interest is briefed as follows; Until the passage of the act incorporating metropolitan cities. Omaha was a city of the first class and formed a school district coter-minous with its limits. By section 3 of the above act the corporate limits of the city are to be fixed by the mayor and council. This power has been exercised and the city limits extended so as to not only include the for-mer school district but several others. There are members of the old board who were encoded to serve, three of them until July, 1885 end three to serve until July, 1889. On the bit of March last an act entitled "An act re-lative to public schools in metropolitan of this act provides that the board of educa-tion in such cities shall consist of lifteen and hold their offices for the terms herein-after prescribed, to wit: At the annual elec-tion to be held on the first Monday in July, 1890; two of whom shall serve until the second Monday in July, 1898. In June '89 there shall be chosen five mem-bers doesne, who shall serve from the first Monday of the month following their elec-tion until the second Monday in July, 1890; two of whom shall serve until the second Monday in July, 1891. In June '89 there shall be chosen five mem-bers doesne, who shall serve until july, 1891. In June '89 there shall be chosen five mem-bers doesne, who shall serve until july, 1801. In June '89 there shall be chosen five mem-bers doesne, who shall serve until july, 1805. In June '89 there shall be chosen five mem-bers doesne, who shall serve until july, 1805. In June '80 there shall be chosen five mem-bers doesne, who shall serve until july, 1805. In June '80 there shall be chosen five mem-bers doesne, who shall serve until july, 1805, in fifteen, and their election is to be in June, 587. The election of nine is provided for, and their terms of office determined. I think that only nine should be elected in 1887, because the terms of the others are not de-mand is serve three years, such election is to s by three, and which served the purpose by more involved and expensive, yet less valuable system. Now the that cut-ting has commenced, it is thought it will not be confined to the headquarters alone, but will extend all along the road, and it is thought Mr. Potter is the man who is responsible for the cut. Cottage colors ready for use in new and desirable shades. Alabastine in and desirable snades. The case was before the courts some time ago, the damage being placed at $15,000, Through some legal phazes it was thrown out, however. In Clerk Ijams office yesterday Valen-tine Lipp filed a suit against the Union stock yards company. The petition of the plaintiff recites that he purchased two lots from a city real estate His New Book The Volunteer Soldier agents for the last work of the late General John A. is a war-book like many others calculated to attract the attention of the average veteran and do little more than appeal to plaintiff recites that he purchased two lots from a city real estate firm with whom was listed the property of the stock yards com-pany. The lots are situated in the Stock Yards first addition and Lipp paid $350 each for them. One of the lots was paid for and about $3,000 worth of improve-ments placed thereon. On the other lot $300 was due, and this amount has been repeatedly profilered to the defendants and a clear title asked in return. A deed the self-pride likely to be aroused by reference to some engagement with which he may have been more or less prominently identified. But such is not the case. It is an attempt to perpetuate the achievements of the American citizen the achievements of the American citizen soldiery and give to the volunteer soldier and sailor the place which is due him in history. It demands justice for the defenders of the republic and shows that the safety and perma-nency of our free institutions depend upon the loyal hearts of her citizen solrepeatedly profilered to the defendants and a clear title asked in return. A deed has not been forthcoming and suit is ac-cordingly brought to compel the defend-ants to give plaintiff a clear title. Mathew F. Martin brought suit yester-day morning in the county court against Louis Schields and Paul Platz. Some time ago an temporary injunction was issued by T. F. Hurlburt against Martin, restraining him from removing certain diers. It abounds with thrilling descrip-tions of the heroism of individuals, companies, regiments, divisions and corps. Much of it reads like a romance. It is the largest and handsomest book ever sold for the low price which has been set upon it. It is brimful of information such restraining him from removing certain property. On hearing, the injunction was discharged. The suit filed to day was to recover $150 damages which Maras every soldier should delight to possess. It is sold by subscription and our people will be called on by the agents for some days to come. tin alleges he sustains by reason of being enjoined. Hence the action against For Sale.

ing Vigorously Pushed.

OMAHA. Neb., May 17, 1887. To the Editor of .he BEE: Your reporter was misinformed as to the class of people that patronize the dance halls and beer gardens near Eighteenth and Vinton streets. The residents of that vicinity have been very indignant, and were in hopes that when the limits of the city were extended, this nuisance would be done away with, and I think that ninetenths of the citizens of the neighborhood would join any move to rid the community of this disgraceful place. Those places are patronized by citizens of this city mostly north of Howard street, who think when they get out here they can raise —— without being molested; and if the government of the city does not clean these places out, or give police protection, the citizens will have o take the law in their own hands.

The Horse Car company can tell you that every car on their Thirteenth street line carries from twenty to forty people to Sproel's park, and I think it an injustice that the people of North Omaha should come out here and raise hades, and those who are compelled to live in the neigh-borhood be used to shield these law-breakers, who probably would be disAbsolutely Pure.

I assume that I am right and that upon the whole sec-tion the just conclusion is that we can elect only nine members this year." On the ground that the new law makes no provision for retaining any of the present members of the board on the new board, and further that the new board will have jurisdle-tion over an entirely different territory from that of the old district, Judge Woolworth holds that the members of the present board who were elected in 1885 and 1886 for terms of three years, do not become members of the new board. He also holds that the present board has no authority to issue bonds of the new metropolitan district. The official bond of City Treasurer Rush, as treasurer of the board was re-ceived and approved.
