BUCK TAYLOR was bucked out yesterday at the Wild West show.

OMAHA is not only the great musical center, but the religious center as well.

GOVERNOR HILL'S action on the license bill in New York dissolved his presidential boom.

"ME TOO" Platt, of New York, now carries the burdensome title of Boss. Peace hath its victories.

It is also to be regretted that in the Loun City tragedy, where a poem caused the death of an editor, that the poetic muse escaped unscathed.

A RUSSIAN minister of finance has put into execution a system, providing that every hen's egg be taxed a third of a penny.

Those ancient landmarks, the brick pavements of Philadelphia, are being rapidly superseded by stone pavements of various kinds.

QUACK doctors are operating in Nebraska. At Wahoo three of them were put in jail, and from other parts of the state come reports of the villains duping citizens.

It may be well to remark that up to this writing no oil inspector has been appointed in Nebraska.

COLONEL COLBY has been out delivering a memorial address. The colonel has been a member of the state militia long enough to make him acquainted with army life.

THE Oregon Transcontinental company has commenced suit against the Northern Pacific railroad in the United States circuit court.

At Fredonia, Kansas, the new Murray liquor law was tested in the district court. It was proven that a boot-legal saloon keeper had dispensed the alcoholic fluid contrary to law.

THE committee on arrangements of the Fourth of July celebration wants more money in order to carry out the programme explained.

GOVERNOR HILL of New York is determined to stand solid with the liquor interests. His veto of the license bill passed by the legislature just before adjourning, notwithstanding the fact that it avoided the constitutional objections to the Crosby bill, previously vetoed, amply demonstrates that the liquor interests have nothing to fear in the way of adverse legislation while Hill is in the executive chair.

A LINCOLN paper furnishes the gratifying information that a scheme has been successfully worked, which retrobs both Church Howe and Tom Majors from the political arena of Nemaha county.

It is probable that were the ambition of Mr. Bruner justified by a possession of the qualifications necessary to successfully fill the position of school superintendent, he would not be found in the unbecoming business of political wire-pulling in which he is engaged.

Senator Sherman at Springfield. In response to an invitation, Senator Sherman yesterday addressed the republican members of the Illinois legislature at Springfield on the political issues of the day.

Evangelical Lutherans. The thirty-third biennial convention of the Evangelical Lutheran church of the United States is in session at Omaha.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, ss. Geo. B. Tschuck, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company, do solemnly swear that the actual circulation of the Daily Bee for the month of May, 1887, was as follows:

Condemned by His Partisans. The vigor with which Mayor Hewitt has enforced the Sabbatarian laws in New York city has called down upon him the unqualified condemnation of one branch of the democracy.

The Chief of Police. Those interested in Seavey's defeat have managed to secure the introduction of an ordinance which requires that a man must be a resident of Omaha two years before he can be chief of police.

A Political Pedagogue. The activity of Mr. Bruner in promoting the attempt to elect a partisan board of education is to the last degree unseemly.

Frank Dempster Sherman in St. Nicholas. O mine delicious month of June! O mine winds and dew all singing in tune!

STATE AND TERRITORY. Nebraska Jottings. A potato famine has tackled Sheridan county.

It would not surprise the natives if coal veins and oil wells soon appear on the surface. With iron mines in Nemaha, diamond fields in Dixon, coal seams in Logan, silicite in Howard and loblaws in Lancaster, the state is hustling to the front rank as a mineral producer.

THE Fourth of July celebration in Omaha, if all plans are carried out, will be the grandest demonstration Nebraska has ever seen.

To bore for natural gas costs but little money. Should it be found there is no estimate to be placed upon its value.

THE State fair managers are determined to make the largest exhibition this year ever held in Nebraska.

There are a thousand women more beautiful than Mrs. Langtry, yet her beauty is the drawing card.

LET it be a non-partisan school board. Politics should never interfere in the school room.

ATTEND the meeting to nominate a non-partisan school board, Thursday evening.

WHEN great men die it is the miserably wood cuts that live after them.

THE sidewalks of Omaha are in a badly dilapidated condition.

Two hundred and sixty-two pairs of twins were born in Chicago during 1886.

It takes the tanks of 75,000 elephants a year to supply the native French in foreign countries.

There are according to some French statistics 42,000 native French in foreign countries.

SOLOMON'S NEW FRIEND.

A Colorado Miner Confined Out of $500 On a "Bond."

Strychnine Narrowly Misses Its Deadly Work-The Republican Cautions-Railroad Rumbles and Personal.

Not a Wise Solomon. Solomon Blanks, a miner and drill operator of St. Elmo, Chaffee county, Colorado, arrived in Omaha on Tuesday evening over the B. & M. route from Denver.

As soon as they stepped from the depot cars Blanks' new acquaintance intended to be in great mental distress because the hour was so late and he couldn't get into the bank, where he had expected to be able to get $1,000 on a government bond for a $500 advance.

Blanks had $500 tucked away in a capacious pocketbook inside his vest—$500 that had taken him two years to save, and with which he expected to pay for some land near St. Paul.

SCHOOL BOARD CAUCUSES. Meeting of Republicans in the Several Wards Last Evening.

First Ward. The citizens of the First ward met in caucus at the Union Pacific hotel, on Tenth street. The following delegates were chosen: Charles M. Conroyer, Patrick Desmond, Thomas G. Anderson, Schall, Charles Brandeis, William H. Spaulding and Owen Sivan.

Second Ward. The following delegates were chosen in the Second ward: Fred Boehm, Frank Dworach, Daniel O'Keefe, S. J. Broderick, Dan Shelly and John Boyd.

Seventh Ward. The Seventh ward republicans met last night at the Hanscom Park house and selected Paul Vandercoort, J. T. Hill, Louis Petersen, John McDonald, J. M. Hensel, John C. Meyers and L. H. Bradley as convention delegates to be voted for at Friday's primaries.

Police Court Calendar. Offenders against the peace and good conduct of the city were given the following sentences yesterday: U.S. Kane, disturbance, $7.50 fine; Dan Sweeney, beating his wife, $12.50; Jim Sullivan, $20 and costs; Jno. Burke, $30 and costs; Ed Sammon, twenty-five days in jail for pocket picking; George G. and Harry Randall, fighting, $7.50 each.

City Council. The city council held an adjourned meeting last evening. Numerous ordinances were introduced and several passed. Among the latter was one calling for a special election on June 13, when a proposition will be submitted to the electors of the city to grant the Metropolitan Cable Railway company a franchise.

Personal Paragraphs. Dr. A. L. Root, of Weeping Water, was in the city yesterday.

W. J. Carter, formerly in the Republican business department, has opened an office as an expert accountant in the chamber of commerce office.

Robert D. Lomax, representing the well known John A. Lomax consolidated bottling company of Chicago, is in the city today. Mr. Lomax is a genial business man, and those who have met him here all agree that he is a good man in the midst of good men.

A White Woman Out of Place. Macon Telegraph: Out of 1,500 convicts, white and black, in the Georgia penitentiary, there is only one white woman, Leah G. Rooner, sent up for life from Clay county. She is a young woman, about twenty-two years old, and is confined at the Chattahoochee camps.

The crime for which this woman is serving out sentences grew out of a difficulty between her family and a neighbor's in which the members of each joined promiscuously. The scuffle resulted in the murder of one of their neighbors.

This woman's brother has since expiated the crime on the gallows, and her mother has died in jail. It is thought by many that there has been sufficient punishment for the crime, and that the woman ought to be pardoned. A motion, however, has been instituted to make a strong appeal to the governor for executive clemency.

The people in Bronson, Mich., draped the lamp post mourning the other night, and suspended paper lanterns from them, because the village authorities say they are too poor to furnish street lights.

ALCOHOL AND STRYCHNINE. James Montgomery Almost Dies From Their Effect.

Officer Casey last night at 9 o'clock found a man lying on the sidewalk at the corner of Eleventh and Howard streets. He was to all appearances in a drunken stupor, and was taken to central station and slated as "dead drunk."

Shortly after being locked up the man was seized with convulsions and Dr. Crowell and Ralph were summoned. The paroxysms grew more violent and it took the united efforts of the physicians and two officers to hold the man. The physicians were of opinion that the man was suffering from strychnine and there was also evidence of the use of intoxicants.

Antidotes were administered and after an hour and a half of hard work the patient was pronounced out of danger. From paper found upon his person it was learned that the man's name is James Montgomery; that he had worked in Elizabethtown, N. J., Des Moines, Ia., and Cincinnati, Ohio. A sworn certificate of election showed that the man had lived here long enough to vote, and that his residence was 2304 Cumings, and that he is thirty-one years of age.

He recovered consciousness he refused to answer any questions.

AMONG THE RAILROADS. A NEW RUN TO YANKTON. The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road has begun to feel that the agitation of the road between this city and Yankton affords an excellent opportunity to make friends with both ends of the proposed line.

The Missouri river at Sioux City is slowly rising. The Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha is getting its landings for its transfer steamer at that point ready for the June rise.

Mr. E. W. Winter, general manager of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha, with his son and daughter, is now in Europe on a pleasure trip.

Dr. J. J. Sanwood, chief travel dispatcher of the Nebraska division of the Omaha line, has been suddenly called to Worthington, Minn., by the illness of his wife who is visiting there.

THE NORTHWESTERN & ELKHORN. The 1,000 mile books go on sale to-day. They are good in Nebraska and on the Chicago and Northwestern. A ticket is being put on which will give the holder the option of the Northwestern road including the Elkhorn lines to the Wyoming boundary line.

THE UNION PACIFIC. General Manager Potter is expected on Saturday.

General Superintendent Dickinson will return to-morrow.

The road is going an increased freight business from the western Nebraska towns, where two years ago only the festive jack rabbit and the still-legged antelope registered as voters.

Cruelty to Animals. Officer Clark is attending to business in a lively manner although his ankle is sprained.

Yesterday he was looking for a man named John Rush, a horse trader who, it is said, allowed a horse to starve to death near the corner of Thirty-third and Leavenworth streets.

Mr. S. P. Morse made a complaint that
