GRAND AUCTION SALE OF TOWN-LOTS AT FREMONT, NEB

THE NYE-HAWTHORNE ADDITION

Consisting of 80 acres, will be offered at public auction, on the grounds, JUNE 8th and 9th. Sale commences June 8th, at 1 p. m.

TERMS OF SALE—One third cash, balance one and two years, at 8 per cent interest. Five per cent discount for cash.

This magnificent property lays adjoining the fine residences of Theron Nye, S. B. Colson, Edward Bluveth, F. Meyer and J. T. May, and will be offered for sale at auction, and at prices that will warrant a good profit as soon as bought. We ask you to come to Fremont, look over this property look at the railroads centering in Fremont, look at our improvements, and what we are doing in the shape of stock-yards, packing houses, etc. Then we think you will see money in these lots at the prices that they can be bought at. This is inside property and commends itself to all at a glance, as the choice residence portion of the city. We don't ask you to, or expect, that you will pay for this property prices that it will be worth in 30 or 60 days from date of sale. Nor do we offer you property that the city has got to grow to make valuable. But we offer you choice, desirable inside property that is now in demand, and will be built upon and improved at once, at prices that will make you a sharp advance as soon as bought. Fremont is rapidly growing; very few surplus building lots to be had. The advance in real estate is just commencing.

We take great pleasure in placing this magnificent property on the market, and ask all to come and see it, and we know it will suit you, and know that it will make you some money. For further information, free carriages, etc., apply to

THE RIFLE IN OMAHA.

The United States Army to Handle it Frequently This Year.

Omaha is to have three important rifle contests this year, in all of which the army is to be the governing power. The first of these is the department competition which takes place here annually about the latter part of August. In this, the best marksmen of all the different posts in the department of the Platte will take part.

The next will be the division contest of the army. This will be the first time this has taken place in Omaha. In it all the leading army shots of the different departments in this division, will appear. These marksmen will be determined by contests in each of the following departments: The Platte, Texas, Dakota, and the Missouri. There will be fourteen marksmen, including alternates from each department.

The third is the competition between select marksmen of the army. This will be the first meeting of this kind which has ever occurred. In it will take a part leading marksmen who are ineligible to departmental, division and army competitions. The shots will be just as good as are to be found in the army teams and will generally be found among the more exalted in their respective commands. These competitors are to be selected by the commanders of the different departments throughout the country.

The local members of the army feel that Omaha has been honored in being selected as the place for holding the first of these important meetings, and are glad also that it has been established. It will be held every two years, and alternate with the army contest, which also takes place biennially.

The citizens of Omaha, it is suggested, ought to feel impelled to do something toward the entertainment of these soldiers, all of whom are gentlemen, and many of whom will be accompanied by friends from abroad. These contests will commence about the middle of August and continue until the close of September.

The City League.

An adjourned meeting of the City League clubs was held at O. H. Gordon & Co.'s on Fifteenth street Wednesday evening. The clubs represented were the C. E. Mayne, S. P. Morse, Pickwick, South Omaha, Shamrock, and Brown-Creighton. An election of officers was held with the following result: C. E. Mayne, president; S. P. Morse, first vice president; Henry Creighton, second vice president, J. K. Gordon, general manager; Frank Parmalee, assistant manager; O. H. Gordon, secretary and treasurer. A constitution and by-laws were discussed but not adopted entirely. A meeting of the directors will be held at O. H. Gordon's No. 432 South Fifteenth street Tuesday June 5 for further consideration of the affairs of the league.

After the meeting the Messrs. Gordon produced the cigars and a general good time was had in conversation over the base ball situation of the day.

COMBINATION OF COUNCILMEN.

Fourteen Will Stand Together to Down Chief Seavey.

It is asserted among persons who are supposed to know, that fourteen of the eighteen city councilmen have formed a combination to overthrow the work of the board of police commissioners and down Chief-of-Police Seavey. The fourteen propose to hamper the commission as much as possible. The plan is to pass, at the next meeting on Tuesday, the ordinance introduced by Councilman Hascall at the last regular meeting. It is then proposed, should Mayor Broatch veto the ordinance, as in all human probability he will, to filibuster the ordidance through over his veto. Just how this is to be done is not revealed, but it is asserted on the authority of a councilman that fourteen members of the city council feel confident that the arrangement can be carried through. One gentleman who is inclined to sympathize with the council is opposed to this action and said yesterday that in his opinion the council would be proceeding too far if it carried out the programme to the letter, as in all likelihood the public would be enlisted thereby with the board of police commissioners and the council would stir up a hornets' next. It is still declared that the matter will be carried into the district court by a suit for usurpation against the chief.

WILD AND WOOLLY.

Mr. Mitchell Claims the Bride of Charlie Sing.

A strapping man walked into the office of Justice Anderson yesterday morning with blood in his eye. He was wild and woolly. "Are you the man who married Charlie Sing, the Chinaman, and Martha Parker yesterday?" demanded the irate individual. "Yes, sir." said the justice. "Well, she is my wife and I am goin' to have b-l-l-u-d!" The judge pacified the man and finally got from him that his name was J. Mitchell; that he hailed from Red Oak, Ia., and that he meant to everlastingly trounce Mr, Sing if he could get his hands on him. He said he had been searching for the woman, who left home some time ago, and they had been married for some time. He wanted to know how he could get after them legally and was referred to the police judge who would issue a warrant for the arrest of the pair. Mitchell went away in search of the police headquarters.

IN HARD LUCK.

The Poundmaster Again in Trouble With a Citizen.

The office of poundmaster is anything but a pleasant position. This is proven by the frequency with which the office changes hands. Every once in a while the unfortunate poundmaster is thrashed by indignant persons whose stock has been impounded. It is asserted about police station that one incumbent died of an accumulation of woes incidental to the position; another mysteriously disappeared, and a third committed suicide. Frequently the unfortunate poundmaster is driven for blocks by infuriated people and often he is chased to insanity. The latest incumbent, Jerry Hennessey, has clung to his position for several months in spite of the untoward circumstances. Yesterday he was before Judge Berka, complaining that he had been assaulted and pounded by an irate cow owner in the north part of town, whose name he did not know. However, a warrant was issued for that oft-sinning individual, "John Doe," and the case will come up in court later on.

Edison Electric Light System Estimates furnished. GEO. W. COSTER, Paxton House, Omaha, Agent.

Old Colorow's Visit.

General Breck yesterday received a communication from Major F. Randlett, of the Ninth cavalry at Fort DuChesne saying that he had had a visit from "Old Colorow" and "Young Colorow" with twenty bucks of the Utes who had come to complain to him that the settlers were encroaching upon his territory, while they claimed they were living upon their treaty land. The major corroborates this view. "Colorow" refused to go to see the agent unless accompanied by the officer in command, as if he feared some stratagem to imprison him. Major Randlett concluded that the Indians are still peaceable, but that a display of force would be required should a change of their location be desired.

James Brought to Jail.

Officer James, who, it will be remembered, was once employed by the Humane society of this city, and while acting for the Law and Order league in Lincoln, was charged with adultery, has been arrested in Kansas City and brought to Lincoln. After charged as above mentioned, he skipped, leaving his bondsmen to pay for his disappearance. He was acting as conductor of a Kansas City car when arrested. He will now, it is likely, be made to answer the charge against him.

Says He Was Drugged.

James Montgomery, the man who was found in a critical condition from the effects of poison, as elsewhere mentioned, was very much improved yesterday. Montgomery stated yesterday morning, that he had some money about his person, hich he displayed in several saloons in the neighborhood of the tracks, where he went in for beer. He believes that some one doped his beer for the purpose of robbing him. He had no money on his person when searched Wednesday night.

A Reckless Driver.

A man named John Kurz ran into the carriage of Mrs. Phœbe Whitlock and upset the two lady occupants of the vehicle. The ladies were considerably bruised but not seriously hurt. Kurz was driving along Saunders street at a furious rate of speed, a habit of his which has heretofore caused complaint. Mrs. Whitlock swore out a warrant against Kurz yesterday charging him with fast driving.

Officers Come and Go.

C. W. Boynton, of Waukesha, Wis., has been appointed to succeed James McArdle, jr., as railway postal clerk between this city and Cheyenne. Mr. McArdle has been promoted from class three to class four in the service. Mr. Boynton went to work yesterday.

William Spaulding entered upon the duties of his new position as transfer mail agent at the Union Pacific depot last night.

Uncle Sam's Nephews.

During the month of May there were delivered in this city 471 special delivery letters, which at eight cents a piece would net the boy who delivered them $37.68. The rules of the department, however, limit the wages of the messenger to $30 per month. The surplus of $7.68 goes into Uncle Sam's pockets.

During the same time, the amount of stamps sold was $11,465.66, and of envelopes $2,673.13.

Mr. Franko Victimized.

Nahan Franko, the violinist, was victimized Wednesday by a German named Ferdinand Guenther, who represented himself as an acquaintance of Mr. Franko's father. He was seedy, and said he wanted work. Mr. Franko promised him work at the Casino, fed him, gave him $2 in money, and an order for a suit of clothes. Guenther has disappeared.

The annual meeting of the C. E. Mayne Real Estate and Trust company was held Wednesday at their office on N. W. corner 15th and Harney streets. C. E. Mayne was elected president, H. H. Benson elected vice president, A. H. Hayne elected secretary, and J. B. Carmichael treasurer.

The Amateur Drama.

An amateur dramatic club, named "The Boyd," in honor of the manager of the opera house, has been rehearsing for six weeks the beautiful play of the "Pearl of Savoy." The date has not yet been decided upon for the production, but when played it will be for the benefit of the poor of the city. The club is known to have considerable talent, and comprises the following members: Mr. B. McCullough, Joseph Murphy, George Ostrom, John King, Mr. Ingliss, Charles Cromnover, Arthur Rathbun, Miss Anna Bogue, Miss Lizzie Lawton, Mrs. W. E. Rockwell, Miss Mary Meyers and Miss Julia Richardson.

Miss Voss, of Indianapolis, is visiting Mrs. S. P. Morse.
