THE Patrick Farm and Conkling Place.
Query: What has the Patrick Farm got to do with Conkling Place? Answer: It joins Conkling Place on the west and north, and practically surrounds it, and the owners of the Patrick Farm will grade and pave the streets, build 4 first-class brick residences on every half block, and will put water, gas and sewerage in the addition, and will commence work on their cable line within 24 hours after their franchise is voted next Monday. There will be a "city" adjoining Conkling Place on this farm with a cable line to it running along three sides of Conkling Place. What is the moral? It is this: Conkling Place is the handsomest, best located and most accessible property in the this: Conking Piaco is the handsomest, best located and most accessible property in the western portion of the city, and is very cheap now, only $550 to $750 for corners, and $500 to $750 for inside lots, and affords, both buyer for improvement and speculation, the best advantages for a home and surest profits of any property or investment before the public to-day. The improvement of the Patrick Farm and rapid transportation thereto, will make Conkling Piace lots very desirable, and they will go up with a rush. We have in a quiet sort of a way, sold 50 of these lots to representative citizens of Omaha and Kansas City, and have left 110 very choice lots to offer at present prices until July 1st. One-fitth cash, balance in 6 equal semi-annual payments, at 8 per cent. For further particulars call upon or address J. A. Grithth, sole agent, rooms 20 and 21, Hellman Bulldton 13th and Remand.
