The Lutheran Synod.

The synod opened its business session without the usual devotional half-hour. The opening prayer was made by Rev. G. W. Enders, of York, Pa.

This board was appointed to assume the general care of all orphans of the kind. There is an orphan home at Syracuse, N. Y., established by the church of Rev. A. Oberlander.

The committee to nominate a board of church extension reported and their report was adopted, whereby Rev. A. H. Lochman, D. D., Rev. A. W. Lilly, D. D., Rev. W. S. Frens, Messrs. E. G. Smyser, M. B. Spalder, David Emmett and C. S. Weiser, as members of this board.

Rev. W. M. Hann, D. D., reported for the standing committee on literary and theological institutions, showing the prosperous condition of the schools that had reported to the committee.

One resolution, reciting the need of more ministers, and the duty of securing and educating more candidates for the ministry, carried by a unanimous vote.

Mr. J. W. Kahler, of Cincinnati, called attention to the need of securing funds to support young men who were disposed to devote their lives to the ministry, but lacked means to pursue their studies.

Rev. J. Yutzy, of Selins Grove, Pa., gave expression to similar opinions. Rev. W. P. Rulph, of Dixon, Ill., thought that the needs of the field in the west required that there should be a shorter course of study, than might be prepared in less time.

Rev. C. H. Huber, of St. Louis, Neb., Rev. W. H. Diven of Salona, Pa., Rev. G. C. Cochel of Minerva, O., Rev. B. Sichel, of Sterling, Ill., Rev. E. J. Wolf, D. D., of the Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, Pa., joined in the discussion.

Mr. J. W. Rice of Baltimore spoke on the subject in its relations to the home mission board. The speaker called attention to the causes for the paucity of candidates for the ministry.

Upon the proposition to suggest to the Wittenberg trustees to remove their theological department to Chicago, which was under consideration at the close of the previous session, Rev. Dr. J. Wolf, D. D., said that he did not wish to be regarded as antagonizing any institution.

Rev. E. K. Bell said it would be impossible to remove the Wittenberg seminary from Springfield, Ohio. In Chicago there were strong churches and excellent preachers among the Lutherans.

Rev. C. E. Raymond, of Nashville, Tenn., Rev. P. H. Miller, of Lovettsville, Va., Rev. J. N. Morris, of Center Brunswick, N. Y., Mr. A. J. Spielman, of Fairfield, Ia., Rev. G. G. Bell, of Altona, Pa., Rev. Dr. O. Ort also spoke on the resolution.

Rev. D. A. Kuhn, G. C. Henry and H. B. Belmont were appointed to nominate delegates to other general bodies. Rev. S. A. Werkert, of Red Hook, N. Y., made the closing prayer.

The session opened at 2 p. m. with prayer by Rev. Prof. E. T. Bartholomew. Prof. Breidenbaugh introduced a resolution authorizing the board of church extension to increase their number.

The committee to nominate a board of foreign missions named the following: Revs. J. G. Butler, D. D., Jacob A. Clutz, F. H. Henningsen, L. E. Johnson, J. C. Burke, with O. F. Lantz, Esq., S. D. Schumacker, Esq., and S. W. Hartman, Esq. The report was adopted.

Rev. I. C. Bellheimer presented the report of the board of directors of the theological seminary at Gettysburg, showing that there were 48 students in attendance during 1885 and 1886.

Mr. Alex. Gebhart, for the committee on women's home and foreign missionary society, reported a gain of seventy-nine societies. The members reported were 9,357, a gain of 301.

Rev. W. H. Dunbar presented the report of the 'Treslee orphans' home at Lovettsville, Pa.

At this institution there are 300 children—100 are soldiers' orphans, provided for by the state, the remainder are church orphans.

Propositions were made for the establishment of a college by citizens of Grand Island, Neb., Beatrice, Atchison, Kan., Lincoln, Neb., Beloit, Kan., Minneapolis, Topeka, Kan. and Beloit, Kan.

Special mention was made of the proposition of Atchison and Beatrice, from which the most liberal offers came.

The board recommended that in view of the advantages of location, material assistance, and future promise, Beatrice be selected, and that the board of education be appointed at its meeting to take measures to consummate the proposed arrangement.

A new proposition was received from Beatrice in writing yesterday morning. This last offer is a building costing not less than $50,000, 200 acres of land adjacent to the city, ample ground for a campus, with 300 students for the first term.

THE POSTMASTER TALKS.

His Explanation of That Paving Repair Bill.

Postmaster Gallagher, who was formerly a member of the paving firm of Creighton, Murby & Co., said yesterday morning to a BEE reporter: I am surprised that a man of Mr. Rosewater's information on public affairs, should make the mistakes he does with reference to our bill now before one of the committees of the council.

The Success of an Omaha Inventor.

A resident of this city has invented an article that will soon be used in every house in the land and will bring both comfort and safety to thousands of people and stacks of big round dollars to the pocket of the inventor.

The device in question has been enthusiastically admired and praised by all who have seen it. It is a window sash fastener, having many valuable features. The inventor claims, is conducive both to health and safety as a window can be raised or lowered sufficiently to admit of plenty of fresh air.

There is talk of forming a stock company and erecting a large factory that will employ at least one hundred people. Omaha leads in everything.

A Beggar's Purse.

A gray beard named Walter Kelley was arrested on Thirteenth street last night for drunkenness. He is a professional beggar and had $10 in all in dimes and nickles in his possession when arrested.

J. L. Miles, who has bought nearly a quarter of a million of dollars of notes and mortgage loans, is desirous of purchasing more and can be found at the Bank of Commerce.

The Poor Farm Deeds Ready.

The warranty deeds for the poor farm lots are now ready, and the county treasurer will receive the first payment of one-third the purchase money from the buyers of the lots.

A New School.

On this morning, Contractor James Griffith, will commence the erection of the new school building on Webster and Twenty-eighth streets.

Edison Electric Light System Estimates finished.

Paxton House, Omaha, Agent REAL ESTATE.

Transfers Filed June 8, 1887. Sabina S. Wakely and husband to James Vore, lots 2 and 3 block 'G,' Lowe's addition to Omaha, w. d. $2,100.

Marianna Mellor and husband to F. W. Jones, lot 1 blk 8, Waterloo, w. d. 100. After a few words by Dr. Rhodes in advocacy of the resolutions they were unanimously adopted.

Rev. Dr. Valentine presented the report of the committee on the common order of services, which was continued from the last convention at Harrisburg in 1885.

The report stated that the work of the committee was completed and would be published in a few weeks. The common order of worship for all English Lutheran churches in this country has been adopted by all the English general bodies of the Lutheran church.

The report gave in detail a description of their work during the past two years. The orders adopted do not include orders for ministerial acts, but the united synod and the general council have taken steps for the preparation of such orders.

The hymn book publishing committee was authorized to publish in all future editions of the book of worship the common order of services, and to publish in cheap form a separate edition of the order of service for use of those congregations which have in use the books containing the old order of service, which is now by this action, superseded.

The hymn book publishing committee was instructed to pay to Rev. G. A. Wenner $200 in recognition of his services as a member of the committee on common order service.

Rev. A. W. Lilly, D. D., of the committee on paper book publishing, publishing committee asking for definite instructions concerning some questions relating to their work reported for his committee. The consideration of the report was deferred until the morning.

At 10 o'clock the synod adjourned with prayer by Rev. L. L. Uhl.
