SHE DOES NOT WANT BABY.

A Heartless Mother Deserts Both Her Husband and Child.

AN IOWAN DESERTS HIS WIFE.

Leave the Hydrants Alone—Police Court—A Veteran Commander—The Beard-Neligh Case—Other Local News.

A Heartless Mother.
Albert Flemming, a German aged about fifty years, wanted to know yesterday what to do with his baby. It is but a week old. His wife has left him and he does not know how to take care of the little waif. He was married to his present wife two years ago. They adopted a child. One week ago their family was increased by the child in question. Thursday Mrs. Flemming took both children, and household property to the value of about $100, left her residence, 1486 South Thirtieth street, and went to live with a widow at Fifteenth and Williams. Yesterday morning she returned the eight-day-old to the father, saying the latter could have it, she would satisfy herself with the adopted child. Flemming was informed the county commissioners could do nothing to help him. He went away to devise some means to bring his wife to her senses.

DESERTED HIS WIFE.

A. G. Coutts, of Grinnell, Ia., Takes French Leave.

Several weeks ago a man giving the name of A. G. Coutts came from Kansas City to Omaha and stopped at the St. James hotel. He was accompanied by his wife and represented himself as a stonemason by trade. The man said he belonged in Grinnell, Ia. After stopping a week at the St. James, Coutts removed to a boarding house around the corner on Marcy street. Two days ago Coutts turned the woman out of doors and treated a general disturbance. Since then the man has disappeared. Mrs. Adelina Coutts is but eighteen years of age and says she was married two years ago. The case was reported to Officer Robbins, who is searching for some trace of the erring Coutts. The woman's friends at Grinnell have been notified.

LEAVE THE HYDRANTS ALONE

A Fine of $50 for Those Who Interfere With The Fire Plugs.

It has lately been discovered that private parties, without permission, have in certain parts of the city been drawing water from the fire hydrants. In some instances, the openings to these hydrants have been left uncovered and malicious boys have plugged them up with sticks and stones and other refuse. If any of these people should be apprehended they will find the penalty to be not less than $50, because the city ordinances prohibit the use of these hydrants by private parties, and even make it an offense to hitch a horse to the same.

POLICE COURT.

The Cases Before Judge Berka Yesterday Morning.

The would-be train robbers were not brought up yesterday morning for trial and will probably be held until Monday for examination. Seven vagrants were discharged and an equal number of peace disturbers and intemperate individuals were dismissed of by being fined from $5 to $7 and costs. A large crowd pressed against the railing to catch the testimony in the case of Charles Schornberg, charged with sodomy. The spectators pressed their faces eagerly against the wire screening in their anxiety to catch every word of the colored boy, Williams, as he related the circumstances to the court. The boy's evidence was contradictory as to his age and as to time, but on the main points he could not be shaken. The details were nauseating in the extreme. At noon the court adjourned until 2 o'clock when the case was continued until to-day. John Connolly a son of "Whisky Jack," who was one of the number of boys concerned in the case, was charged simply with being disorderly and was sent to jail for thirty days.

A Veteran Commander.

Gen. J. E. Johnston, formerly renowned among the leaders of the confederacy and now a member of the government directors of the Union Pacific, is at the Paxton. The general is still majestic in his bearing, and a short gray beard and a strong expression about the mouth, still tell the story of resolution and energy. He told a Bee reporter that he was simply on a pleasure excursion, the details of which would not interest the public. He was not on railroad business, and if he were, he said, he would not disclose the fact, he said, because sometimes, those matters cannot be divulged without the consent of the secretary of the interior.

The South Omaha Land company have appointed C. E. Mayne sole agent for the sale of their lots. He will show the property and furnish all desired information upon application.

The Beard-Neligh Case.

Yesterday morning Detective Neligh was before the police court on a charge ferred by the Beard brothers, charging him with assault with a dangerous weapon. The case was continued to June 18. The detective will begin a suit against the firm for $25,000 damages by defamation of character. The papers have not yet been filed, but will be tomorrow. Meanwhile a sign hangs in Beard Bros.' windows announcing that the mooted check "is for sale cheap."

A Bargain.

I have for sale at a bargain 20 acres situated on the main line of the B. & M. R. R., and near the new South Omaha depot at the terminus of the dummy line. Plenty of good, clear spring water, and an elegant grove of native timber, suitable for a summer garden.

Dropped $350.

George Canfield was around in the rain a little yesterday morning, with his face a little more elongated than usual even in rain storms. The occasion was the loss of a pocketbook containing about $350, which the proprietor of the Canfield dropped out of one of his pockets while riding from Beener down to the ranch, in the vicinity of West Point. At last accounts no person had found the roll.

"The Happy Thought is the best hard coal range in the world." For sale by C. F. Gardner, 719 North 16th St.

No More Escapes.

Since the attempt of Taylor, the desperado to escape from the police court, by springing over the iron railing, the necessity for a better protection has been felt, and yesterday an iron fence, reaching almost to the ceiling, was put up to separate the spectators from the court proper. The windows have also been made secure by heavy wire screens.

Children's Day at Seward Street.

Children's day at the Seward street M. E. Sabbath school will be appropriately observed on Sunday next, June 12th, as per the following programme. The church has been decorated, and a good time is expected. All are invited. Exercises begin promptly at 10:30 a. m.

Grading North Sixteenth Street.

The county commissioners are considering the following bids for the turning and grading of North Sixteenth street beyond the city limits:

Nathan Carter, 21 1/2 cents per yard, clearing willows, $15 per acre; M. Duff, 54 cents per yard, willows $18 per acre; W. F. Flynn, 30 cents per yard, $50 for all the willows; H. J. Catz, $18 for the first acre, remainder $25 per acre; C. W. Finn, 30 cents per yard, $100 for all the willows; Harry Fairfield, road-bed 34 cents, ditches 9 cents per yard, willows $13 per acre; Kinkaid, grading 20 cents, and grubbing $18 per acre. It will take some figuring to see which of these bids is the lowest.

Builders' and Traders' Meeting.

Another meeting of the builders and traders was held yesterday afternoon, corner Tenth and Farnam streets. Little was done beyond business of a routine nature. It was decided that in view of the fact that a full representation was not present at the Thursday meeting when officers were elected, a meeting should be held next Monday afternoon and a thorough and permanent reorganization should then take place.

Omaha Carriage and Sleigh Co.

Articles of incorporation of the Omaha Carriage and Sleigh company were filed yesterday morning in County Clerk Needham's office, with Edward T. Cragin, L. P. Pruyn and Charles Moss as incorporators, and a capital stock of $100,000.

The Dog Days.

The deputy chief of police desires to notify the owners of dogs that they must tag their canines or the dogs will be shot. Mr. McDonald says, however, that he will not commence the work of slaughter until the 13th inst.

No sleeping rooms over three flights up.

Fire alarms in every room, open grates (the best ventilators) in nearly all, twelve stairways from every floor to the street. "Where?" you ask. "At the famous United States Hotel, Boston. Take it in on your vacation."

MORTUARY MATTERS.

DYING IN CHICAGO.
Word has been received that George W. Gray, a veteran job printer well known in this city, is dying in Chicago. Mr. Gray was an artistic workman and lived in Omaha for over twenty years, operating an office on Twelfth street between Douglas and Farnam. He has a daughter living here, Mrs. Georgia Gray Iler.

DIED.

THOMPSON—Berry E., infant son of John C. and Emma V. Thompson, Friday afternoon, June 10, 1887, at 3:40, of cholera infantum.

The City Hall.

Contractor Ed Brennan stated yesterday afternoon that the work on the city hall building will be pushed to a completion as rapidly as men can do it. The contractors will use Colorado sandstone in the construction of the walls, although they will lose money by so doing. He stated that he has no idea of delaying the work, but is, on the contrary, anxious to push it to completion.

The us Was Loaded.

Mrs. F. Klonke was fooling with a revolver in her husband's saloon on Sixteenth and Mason streets, yesterday afternoon, when the weapon was discharged, the bullet narrowly missing her husband's head and burying itself in a fine mirror on the bar.

Glandered Horses.

Yesterday Veterinary Chambers found three glandered horses at the corner of Thirty-second and Seward streets. The animals were ordered killed. They were owned by a man named Groos.

Wanted for Robbery.

The police are hunting for a bartender named Dick Maguire, employed on Farnam near Eleventh street. The bartender is wanted for robbing a man of $40 in the saloon Thursday night.
