Too Noisy Saloons.

The mayor Saturday, about midnight, ordered the police to close a couple of saloons on Broadway, as the occupants were becoming too noisy. He walked down Broadway and discovering another noisy place, blew his police call and general war of words ensued, during which the saloon-keeper, who was under the influence of liquor, not only insulted the officer who requested him to close, but also the mayor. In the attendants, and to the creator of this month of perfection.

In the attempt to arrest the saloon man, the officer had much difficulty, and the two fell to the ground, whereupon the mayor declared them both under arrest. Assistance arrived, and after taking him to jail and registering him, the saloon man was sent home in a hack and the other saloons in the neighborhood were ordered closed.

A Befitting Present. When Rev. G. W. Crofts returned home yesterday from his church services he was greeted with a most pleasing surprise. In the parlor was a life-size and life-like crayon of little Paul Gorham, son of L. B. Gorham. Little Paul was a wonderful child in many respects, and his quaint ways and mature sayings caused Mr. Crofts to take great interest in him. The 'poet preacher' and the 'boy philosopher' were almost daily companions. The death of little Paul seemed almost as heavy a blow to Mr. Crofts as to the father. Under such circumstances the presentation of this portrait on children's day was very belitting, and the gift greatly appreciated. The crayon was made by Paul's uncle, J. A. Gorham, and like other portraits make by the such that the contract of the co traits make by this well known artist, it seems so life like that one would hardly be surprised to see the lips move and hear its voice speak again. Drs. Hanchett & Smith, office No. 12, Pearl st., residence 120 Fourth st. Tele-phone No. 10.

Hitting Prohibition. In his last evening's sermon at St. Paul's church, the rector, Rev. T. J. Mackay, reasserted about the same positive views which he has before uttered, though looking at the prohibition question faom a little different standpoint, and presenting his thoughts in a new form. The gist of his position, as stated by this talented and earnest preacher, is that morality cannot be secured by legis-lation. God's eternal plan is that soul strength comes from contests with temptation rather than by removing all necessities for struggle. He believes that legislation should strive to give the minimum amount of temptation with the greatest amount of personal liberty. He cannot see how teachers of morality can urge many of the principles upon which prohibitionists rely mostly. prohibitionists rely mostly. Hev. Mr. Mackay is a stannch temperance man, but not a prohibitionist.

The Tenth Avenue Depot. Several deeds were placed on record Saturday which on their face did not appear to be very interesting documents, as the names of the parties were not familiar ones. The examination of the documents, however, show that they are deeds for lots purchased in Riddle's addition for the Tenth avenue freight depot of the Union Pacific. It appears from these documents that the Union Pacific is securing the needed ground and making ready to run its line up Tenth avenue in accordance with the ordinance passed by the city council.

Children's Day.

The weather yesterday morning was sultry and unpleasant, to say the least, and just about time for church services to begin quite a shower came up, but it in no way interfered with the services at the Methodist church. The church was crowded with children and grown persons, which helped to increase the temperature. The church was not elaborately decorated, but cut flowers were distributed about the pulpit. The programme for children's day was one prepared by the board of education of the Methodist Episcopal church, and was the same throughout the union. It consisted of songs, recitations, readings, etc., by the children of the Sunday school, an address by Colonel L. W. Sulleys, the object of children's day, and education of the heart by the pastor, Rev. Dr. McCreary. AT THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

Children's day was observed at the Congregational church yesterday by a very pleasant service in the morning. The church was elaborately decorated with flowers, plants and vines. Bouquets and hanging baskets occupied all available places, and the interior of the church looked like a bower. Cages of singing hirds were suspended on all sides of the church, there being tifteen of them altogether. The little songsters seemed to realize that it was a special occasion, and their warblings could not be restrained even during the holy hush of prayer time, while the notes rippled forth en-thusiastically from the feathered throats, ounding sweet and clear above the heavy tones of the great pipe-organ, and the swelling choruses of children and congregation.

The service was largely one of song. The chief idea of children's day seems to be that all nature joins in praise of the creator of all. The service had this thought as its keynote. The opening chorus, in which the children led, was "Praise Our Redeemer King." Then came a responsive reading from psaims

The choir sang an anthem: "God is a Spirit." The collection taken up was for the purpose of helping the Sunday school meet its pledge of $100 toward the new parsonage. One class in the school . Montgomery's young ladies-had pledged a like amount as a class, so that the school in all is pledged to give $200 to aid this enterprise.

After another chorus, Miss May Oberhotzer recited "We Praise Thee," a belitting selection, and clearly, feelingly

"Childrens' Day" song was given by the school and this was followed by an-other recitation, "Look for the Bright-ness," by Johnnie Webb. Another appropriate responsive reading of scriptural readings was had.

The infant class came trooping upon platform, crowding it full of beaming faces and wriggling, yet graceful innocence. They sang together sweetly, declaring, what needed no verification, that "little tongues can utter praise, on this happy day of jubilee."

Miss Nellie Hatcher gave a charming recitation, "Address to Deity."

A pleasing song followed by Miss Crofts class. One of the number, representing ordered the saloon at No. 404 Broadway June, was crowned as queen of the year, closed. The proprieter objected and a and bore a fairy wand. The others were Harry Harkness gave a recitation, "Youth's Warning." Another responsive reading of scriptural passages followed. Then came a recitation, "A Short Ser-mon," by Etta Otis.

Then followed the most pleasing feature of the services. It was entitled "Summer Crowning the Graces," and was given by the girls of Miss Anna Oberholtzer's

Summer, dressed in pale pink, with her name in gilt letters on a white badge, was the center of a semi-circle of seven girls, representing the graces. They were dressed in pure white, with the names upon white badges. As they knelt, Summer crowned each in turn with a wreath of flowers, appropriate to the grace represented. Love was crowned with roses, Purity with lillies, Joy with pinks, Hope with hawthorne blossoms, Patience with daisies, Humility with violets, Fidelity with ivy leaves. After being thus crowned by Summer, they arose, and each sang, explaining the appropriateness of the selections, and drawing lessons from the flowers named. All joined in a closing verse of praise to the creator of summer and its blessings.

The pastor of the church, Rev. G. W.

Crofts, then baptized several children. He made a brief, interesting address on the passage in Psalms 37:37—"Mark the Perfect Man, and Behold the Upright; For the End of that Man is Peace." As For the End of that Man is Peace." As an illustration, he cited interesting facts from the life of the late ex-President Wheeler. Mr. Crofts read portions of a personal letter from a friend in La Crosse, who was in boyhood a playmate with Mr. Wheeler. This friend wrote concerning the boyhood of this distinguished man, and the purity of his life. Mr. Wheeler was a poor boy, and rose by merit. This friend has testimony that he never was known to tell an improper story, he never was profane, never used tobacco, in fact was a model young man. Mr. Crofts preached a very short but very practical sermon to the little folks, from these incidents thus gained by the letter. The services closed with a responsive reading, singing of coronation, and the pronouncing of the benediction.

Making Ready For Manawa.

The first coat of plastering is on Hotel Manawa and as soon as it dries the second coat will be put on. The outside painting of the hotel is all completed, it being done in three colors. The flag staff is in position.

As the hotel nears completion the question naturally arises when will the Manawa motor railway be completed. In order that there might no longer be any doubts about the motor line in the minds of a few unbelievers, a BEE representative called on Mr. W. M. Lamphere for information. That gentleman pleasantly ushered the BEE man into his apartment at the Pacific house and stated he could have seen cific house and stated he could now see no reason why the motor line should not be completed in about two weeks.

Mr. Lamphere is connected with Mr.

J. K. Graves, the gentleman who has guaranteed to build a motor railway to Lake Manawa and is now at the Pacific house awaiting the arrival of Mr. Graves.

Mr. Lamphere was among those instrumental in placing the advantage of Council Bluffs before Mr. Graves and that gentleman's becoming interested in that gentleman's becoming interested in that gentleman's becoming interested in this city.

"The delays are overcome and all the iron on the road," said Mr. Lamphere, as he took his seat by the window. "I think that work will commence this week, as all of the material is either here or on the road. I expect Mr. Graves here in a day or so, and if no delay occurs the road will probably be completed by a week from next Sunday. There is little grading to be done, none in fact that will cause delay. The iron was ordered, paid for and part of it was snipped when the mill broke down. Mr. Graves then succeed in obtaining the balance from another source. The whole cause was only a matter of unforscen delay, which has now been overcome. I've remained here and have seen how impatient the public were getting, consequently have done what I could to hurry matters up a little. Everybody seems impatient at the delay. The rails are of steel but we speak of it as iron. The line will be put in good shape. Mr. Graves is a gentle-man of wealth and influence and I only regret that there are not hundreds of others like him also interested in the future of this city. Lake Manawa and the southern part of this city cannot forsee the advantages of the motor railway now. It will one up to residence property now. It will open up residence property wonderfully. The Baldwin noiseless motors are on the road as well as part of motors are on the road as well as part of the cars. The cars are to be about equally divided, part being open with side curtains while others are closed. They will be large and comfortable. The motors are first class. One is named Omaha while the other is Council Biuffs. Mr. Graves has a cable line in Chicago, one in Minneapolis and St. Paul, one in New Jersey besides a contract in St. Louis and all in Lincoln. His cable is could be any in the Lincoln. His cable is equal to any in the United States, it is the Rasmussen cable "Will Mr. Graves put a steamer on Lake Manawa! 'I cannot answer that exactly. He had a $3,000 steamer built for a gentleman who delayed somewhat in calling for it. Mr. Graves concluded he'd try to have the contract annulled and ship it to Lake Manawa, but on Mr. Graves return home, the gentleman was there after the steamer, and would not listen to Mr. G's proposition. If he can, he will probably build one this winter for next spring that will seat a hundred persons, and be finished in fine style with the best of upholstery. Hr. Graves always has the best of everything. The people here only expected iron rails for the Motor line, but he has furnished steel. It is only a small matter to lay the track. Over 9,500 ties are here of the 10,800 ordered and in probably three days the entire material will be on the ground ready for us to put in position.

Returned With Honors.

All of the Council Bluffs delegation that went to the firemen's tournament at Sioux City have returned. The Independent Hose team of this city bringing home a good portion of the stake money, the amount being $459. Council Bluffs has always been very fortunate in securing good runners in the teams sent to the state tournament in previous years, and the team this year is no exception by any

The Independents in the :49 class won first money; in the :43 class they made the best time, but unfortunately Charley Nicholson in making the coupling lacked just half a turn to compiete it; in the :46 class, the state race, there were three ties for second money, and the second and third moneys were divided among the three teams.

The Bluffs City engine won first money on time, throwing 100 feet in 3.50, and got second money on distance, the Chariton steamer beating Bluffs City. The Chariton is considered the best in the state. In the sweepstakes race the Bluffs boys did not start, as Nicholson hurt his hand badly in making a coupling the day previous and his hand was badly swollen. In the free-for-all on Saturday the Bluffs and the Fremont teams doubled up picking out the best men in each and won the race. This race gave the Independents $150.

The attendance throughout was large and the Bluffs boys all returned home well satisfied with their trip.

This year's team is considered one of the best that ever left this city. Some of the other teams had "ringers" taken from outside of the city the team was credited to, and Council Buffs was the one whose entire number were legitimate representatives.

Among those of the Bluffs team who displayed extraordinary powers of endurance is George Beard, eighteen years of age. Charlie Nicholson, the manager, offered to run him against anyone from 300 feet to a half mile, but could find no

Illegal Fishing.

Vesterday a couple of the members of the Fish Protective association went to Big lake fishing and found at the outlet of the lake where the Missouri river backs into the lake a hoop net. It was so arranged that it was impossible for a single fish to get into the lake, and where the net did not occupy the full width of the channel brush had been put in so the fish were forced into the net. The net was brought to police headquarters and the owner can have the same by proving property.

Certain persons who have recently been fishing in Honey Creek lake state that illegal fishing continues notwithstanding the raids on the fishermen and the trials resulting in their being found guilty and fined. It is stated that William Robinson, who is now under bonds after being found guilty of illegal fishing in Honey Creek lake and has filed an appeal to the supreme court, is obstructing the lake at the mouth of the Boyer.

Fishermen's Kheumatism.

John Bohn and William Steinkopf are great sportsmen and enjoy fishing and hunting as well as any one. On Saturday they went to Honey Creek lake on a freight train. On nearing, they were so auxious to get to fishing that they con-cluded to jump off the train before it pulled up for them. Steinkopf got down on the steps of the caboose and jumped. He rolled like a ball and down the em-bankment he shot into the lake. Bohn followed, but kept his feet for several rods, taking steps about thirteen feet long, until finally he had to succumb and found himself all in a pile. They now move about very quietly and when asked what's the trouble say they have rheuma-

HEARTLESS CRUELTY. Few persons realize how thoroughly they are controlled by prejudice even to their own disadvantage. For many years the treatment for rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica and headach has been by some outward application, and therefore, without stop-ping to think that the origin of these trou-ples must, from necessity, be internal, the weary sufferer continues to rub, rub and find no relief. Athlophoros is taken internally, and as a proof that this is the correct principle, it cures surely and quickly. The statement of those who have been cured ought to convince the incredulous.

Palmyra, Neb, August 3d, 1886.

I believe I have been greatly benefitted by Athlophoros. I keep it in the house all time, and if I feel a twinge of theumatism, I take a dose. I have not had to take any for months, and hope I am permanently cured. I have not hesitated on recommending it largely and have helped others with it.

Mrs Geo Hoffman, Cedar Falls, Iowa, says: "My husband was cured of rheumatism by the use of Athlophoros. Three bottles of that medicine cured him entirely so that he has not had an ache from rheuma-tism since, and that is now over a year ago. For twenty years previous there was never a time that he was free from pain, Doctors nor medicine could drive the disease away. With the sciatic rheumatism in his right side the doctors said he would always have it and they did not think there was any cure. He was suffering very much from a severe attack when Athlophoros took hold of the disease at once, and by the time he ad taken three bottles he was entirely well and went to work at once snd consequently incurable. It is impossible to describe her sufferings. Her body from the crown of her head to the soles of her feet was a mass of decay, masses of flesh rotting off and leaving great cavities. Her fingers festered and three or four nalls dropped off at one time. Her limbs contracted by the fearful ulceration, and for several years she did not leave her bed. Her weight was reduced from 136 to 60 lbs. Perhaps some faint idea of her condition can be gleaned from the fact that three pounds of Cosmoline or ointment were used per week in dressing her sores. Finally the physicians acknowledged their defeat by this Black Wolf, and commended the sufferer to her all-wise Greator.

Her husband hearing wonderful reports of the use of Swirr's Specific 68. S. S., prevailed on her to try it as a last resort. She began its use under protest, but soon found that her system was being relieved of the poison, as the sores assumed a red and healthy color, as though the blood was becoming pure and active. Mrs. Balley continued the S. S. until last February; every sore was healed; she discarded chair and crutches, and was for the first time in twelve years a well woman. Her husband, Mr. C. A.
