

SEVENTEENTH YEAR.

LONDON IN GALA ATTIRE,

The Great City Literally Painted Red in Honor of the Jubilee.

THE SERVICES FOR TO-DAY.

Protestants and Catholics to Celebrate the Event Separately—Precautions Taken Against Outrages—Thanksgivings.

The Jubilee.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, June 20.—(New York Herald Cable-Special to the Bee.)—In western phrase, literally and not metaphorically, the town was painted red all the evening, positively 100,000 red fires burning in the city, on the embankments and thoroughfares, in the hands of immense masses of sight-seers, who obstructed everywhere vehicular traffic and the sidewalks. By daylight every where was to be seen to-day red cloth, principally from windows of the line of the procession, and on the balconies and platforms along which it is to pass. Nearly all the myriad illuminations have been this evening rehearsed. London at 10 p. m. looked, from Primrose hill, St. John's wood, as if between Victoria tower, parliament houses and St. Paul dome immense fires were consuming the shops and the mansions. These illuminations are, in many instances, costly and elaborate, but, to be frank, are conventional and commonplace. The electric light is not used. Hundreds of buildings reproduce the faded candle and oil lamp glories, in colors, clusters and alphabetical arrangements, which belonged to the old Cremona gardens and the Vaux hall and Niblo's gardens in your city at the time Victoria was crowned. American inventions and original designs are largely lacking in the London illuminations. The mottoes are trite. Flags are displayed and grouped without taste.

LONDONERS VERY UNEASY.

That which ought to strike many foreign visitors who walk the professional thoroughfare is an appearance of London being in a state of siege. The city is being protected against themselves and disquieted against the possibilities of felonized Watt Tylers and Jack Cades. Along Piccadilly, St. James Water, Water Place, etc., and in the adjacent side streets, extra shutters, new fastenings and boarding—or, as called here, headings—have been extensively erected. The shopkeepers have not forgotten the Sunday and Saturday riots of the day last year when looting was coincident with, perhaps not the result of, realistic processions. Your reporters have found great symptoms of uneasiness among the people about the coming events of jubilee day.

A GREAT JAM EXPECTED.

At least 8,000,000 people will endeavor to squeeze themselves into areas calculated to comfortably furnish seats for spectators for less than 1,000,000. The balconies meant for families will be used by packed eight-seers. At least 500,000 have been paid for seats on improvised stands and amphitheatres hastily built of green wood.

A SECTARIAN RENAISSANCE.

Some sensation was created at the abbey to-day by the return of the day last at the Catholic peers, commoners and many guests of that faith. Several Irish guests have joined the Parnellites in also withdrawing.

THE CATHOLIC SERVICES.

About half of these absentees will be at a musical high mass at the cathedral at Kensington at 10 a. m. A covered canopy has been erected from the interior of the main entrance, about fifty yards. It found the gorgeous sanctuary had been fitted with two thrones, the right one to be occupied by Monsignor Ruffa Seila, envoy extraordinary from the pope to the queen, and the left one by Cardinal Manning, who, surrounded by his canons and monastic attendants, will officiate at the eight-year-old Lord O'Hagan, son of the late Irish lord chancellor. On the altar will be the Lord Bishop of Northampton, assisted by Rev. Lord Charles Thynne and the Lord Bishop of Ameyca, assisted by Rev. M. Fanning. Among the congregation will be representatives of the principal Catholic families of England, headed by the Duke of Norfolk, Marquis Butte, Earl of Dunblair, Lords North and Howard, etc., etc. After mass will be given an exposition of the blessed sacrament, at which a "Deum" will be sung. At the end of the service "God Save the Queen" will be given on the organ, the whole congregation standing, and while leaving "Compline" will be played. Rev. C. Coe, of the cathedral, informs your reporter that the whole service had been submitted to her majesty, who approved. He added: "She expressed herself pleased to see her Catholic subjects joyfully celebrating the jubilee and thanksgiving at the same hour as the Protestant services, conducted in Westminster abbey."

HOW WESTMINSTER ABBEY WILL LOOK.

American tourists familiar with the latter, or all having pictures of its interior, can readily fancy how it will look to-morrow by mentally placing the royal dais in the center nave, between the poet's corner and opposite the entrance, while against the sides of all the nave will be rising galleries, built by the queen, covered with red cloth, with seats one inch wide. From these a few only can see well, but all can hear, provided there is no suffocation. To American visitors at the abbey in past it would be absolutely unrecognizable. It looks as if the queen were going to lay the foundation stone rather than take part in the solemn ceremonies of the walls. They have looked down upon historic scenes some six hundred years. For all that the abbey will have to do with the ceremonial the queen (might as well have had it performed in the main building of the American exhibition, and really spectators outside the abbey will to-day more graciously illustrate the victorious era than those within it.

DISPARAGING COMMENTS.

One who is an aristocratic Tory, but an enemy to funkynism, told me thus: "Imagine to-morrow's scene as it will be handed down to posterity. The abbey itself transformed partly nobles, partly green men will be conspicuous by their absence. The funkyniks of the major and minor sort of obscure members of parliament, their still more obscure wives, parliamentary clerks—these are the personages who will figure as representatives of all that is characteristic of the British nation in the jubilee year of Queen Victoria."

A Radical Member of Parliament is Responsible for this Comment.

"Probably the most painful fact in connection with the jubilee fete is the bitter cry which arises from numbers of industrious workmen who are striving hard to make two ends meet and find themselves compelled to lose three or four days' work with the concomitant pay. A poor remembrance of the jubilee if it consists in less food and increased worry. Even a brilliant state parent will not compensate for this."

A Gorgeous, Poetic and Realistic Preacher to the London Poor has Just made the following remarks which, during the procession to-day, may doubtless well up in 10,000

The Nation's Naval Trophies.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Popular attention having been directed to the captured flags in the custody of the war department, there has been some inquiry concerning the disposal of the flags captured during the rebellion by the United States navy. The proposed return of the banners captured in the field suggested a return of those taken on the water.

SECRETARY WHITNEY PUZZLED.

The Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Whitney, was called upon to-day to present President Cleveland's jubilee congratulations. Her majesty expressed her sense of the kind feeling always manifested toward her by the American people. Other diplomats carrying congratulations were received after the customary form.

WATCHING FOR EXPLOSIONS.

Scotland Yard officials have telegraphed instructions to Glasgow to watch the public buildings in the city to-night.

CELEBRATED IN THE PROVINCES.

PETERMARTINZBURG, Natal, June 20.

Thanksgiving services were held to-day in honor of the queen's jubilee.

Praise From Austria.

VIENNA, June 20.—The Official Gazette to-day contains an article on the jubilee of Queen Victoria, which will say: "Millions of voices throughout her world-wide empire will extol the queenly, womanly virtues of Victoria. The day marks a long epoch in the political welfare of her realm. The whole world sympathizes with the festival of a woman whose life reveals those virtues every quarter of the globe. This sympathy is most cordially shared in by the Austrian sovereign. The virtues of Victoria throughout the world recall those of our own great empress, Maria Theresa. Both went through life showing blessings emanating from official circles, and the memory of Victoria, like that of Maria Theresa, will be blessed as long as history exists."

England and Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 20.—The Russian newspaper, commenting on Queen Victoria's jubilee, say the British people's love for their queen is merited by the internal reforms and improvements of the masses which have been effected in England during the fifty years of her reign. Some of the papers take occasion to remark that the relations between Russia and England are not better, and hope they will improve and the two nations become sincerely friendly.

Curings at Cork.

CORK, June 20.—Victims in this city were illuminated and decorated this evening in honor of the queen's jubilee. The crowds mshed all the lighted windows, shouting "to hell with the queen," and cheering for Parnell. The police, who were peeted with stones, charged and dispersed the mob.

Great Enthusiasm at Valparaiso.

VALPARAISO, (via Galveston), June 20.—Great enthusiasm is manifested by the British residents here in celebration of the queen's jubilee to-morrow. All English houses will close to-morrow.

Boston's Celebration.

BOSTON, June 20.—Some time ago the council granted the use of the great hall for a jubilee in honor of Queen Victoria's jubilee to-morrow night. This brought out a protest and petition to rescind the action. The council considered the matter this afternoon and by a vote declined to change the date, but granted the use of the hall to the old hall to-night by those opposed to its occupancy by Englishmen.

Chicago Jubilee Banquet.

CHICAGO, June 20.—A notable gathering of over two hundred of Chicago's most prominent merchants, lawyers, journalists, politicians and divines assembled to-night at a banquet in honor of Queen Victoria's jubilee. Throughout the evening music and addresses alternated between the speakers, who were men and her queen, and outbreaks of patriotic American sentiments. Among the many speakers were: Ex-United States Senator Charles F. Smith, Mayor Roche, J. V. Farwell, Judge Cary, General Beem, and General Stiles, of Chicago.

A Girl at the Head.

[Copyright 1887 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, June 20.—(New York Herald Cable-Special to the Bee.)—The Vassarites and women students at Cornell, with the "Hall Columbia" bachelorettes of arts and all other feminine students in America, have a jubilee trophy in the rank, given to-day at Cambridge in the classical course to a girl, Miss Agnes Ramsey. She has beaten all the other students in the classical course, and is one of either sex to pass in the first division. What is additionally remarkable is that her father, Sir James Ramsey, a Scotch baronet, and her uncle, Prof. George Ramsey, of Glasgow university, each obtained first class in the classics when they took degrees at Oxford. Miss Ramsey was just reached twenty years and several of her male competitors were older. Her proficiency in Latin or Greek was equal. Her male constant was were gallant enough to cheer her name on the list when it was put up, and doubtless they are wondering if she will continue president in constructing Ovid's "Art of Love."

Frenchmen Very Indignant.

PARIS, June 20.—The Paris newspapers express indignation over the sentences decreed at Leipzig against the Alsatian member of the Patriotic league convicted of high treason for assisting in the agitation to keep Alsace an annexed territory. A League of France, the members of the league have signed an appeal to President Grevy begging him to intervene for the release of Koehlin. It is not thought probable that Grevy will accede.

FOR ARMY OFFICERS.

The Generosity of Virginia's Two Per Cent Shanks.

New York, June 20.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Army and navy officers in this city and elsewhere are receiving circulars from a firm of usurers in Wheeling, West Virginia, who offer to discount their accounts with the army or navy department at the exorbitant rate of 2 per cent per month. The firm which is to engage in this unscrupulous business is the H. Forbes & Co. The firm announces that it intends to do business "on the square" and at the lowest possible rates. It refers to any of the banks of Wheeling, any of the county or state officers, to the collector of the district court of the United States for the district of West Virginia, to J. N. Camden, late United States senator from West Virginia, and to General B. F. Kelly of Washington. Accompanying the circular is a private letter of instructions asking officers to send to the firm the first accounts for the month which they desire to discount, filled in and signed precisely as they are returned to the firm. Each account is to be endorsed "blank." This firm suggests that it would be agreeable for it to have the officers draw the pay themselves out of the treasury, and forward it on payment of interest due and forwarding of next month's account, endorsed in like manner. A general order of the service, and especially disapproved by a United States senator, as Camden was when the firm gave him assistance, could be obtained if he give his countenance to such a scheme.

The directors of the Omaha base ball association held a meeting at the sporting headquarters of Penrose & Hardin last evening, for the purpose of taking steps to check and subvert the incipient crusade against Sunday games. Just what course was adopted has not been made public, but enough was shown that the directors are determined that these games will be so conducted as to give the least possible offense to any class or creed.

Local Sporting Tips.

Messrs. H. A. Penrose and John Petty leave for Sioux City this morning to attend the Iowa state association shooting tournament. It is more than probable that Penrose will shoot a match with a noted Louisville crack before his return.

The Omaha Rifle Club will open their season's shoot at their range northeast of the city Friday.

They will have a telegraphic match with the Chicago team, and will shoot the majority of the best known clubs in the country before the season is over. Omaha has more fine roosters than any city in the country of the same size. There will be grand pigeon shoot under the auspices of the Omaha gun club at the fair grounds on the 4th, which will be participated in by members of all the local clubs. Ticket No. 52,749 drew the capital prize at the late Louisiana lottery, and one share, calling for $15,000, was sold in Omaha. The Omaha gun club will meet the Lincoln again at Association park this afternoon and Wednesday afternoon. Then they go to Hastings and Denver for a series of contests at the fair grounds, August 10 and 12, under the auspices of the State Breeders' association. The prospects are good for a large number of entries, which, of course, are confined to the state. The Knights of Pythias will have a picnic at Papillion, Thursday, the 24d. Round trip, 50 cents.

SAD ACCIDENT AT KEARNEY.

Three Young People Drowned While Boating on the Lake.

ALL THE BODIES RECOVERED.

A Newspaper at Dakota City Pled By Lightning—The Illinois Central's New Line—Nebraska and Iowa News.

Triple Drowning Accident.

KEARNEY, Neb., June 20.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Last night about 11 o'clock occurred the most heartrending accident on Lake Kearney, when Nicholas Anderson, Miss Hilda Friebe and Miss Dora Ruffelt were drowned. At about 9:30 Anderson hired a boat, taking the two young ladies with him, going to the north end of the lake. The boat house keeper heard them singing until nearly 10 o'clock, and when midnight came, not hearing from the party, he started out on a hunt for them, finding the boat turned over and hats lying on the water. An alarm was at once given, but the night being dark, nothing could be done till morning. By using drag hooks all three bodies were recovered by about 6 o'clock this morning. The bodies were taken in charge by the county coroner, Dr. M. A. Hoover, who impelled a jury to find that death was caused by a accidental drowning. Mr. Anderson was twenty-nine years old, a Dane by birth, and had lived in Kearney for the past four years, working in Switz's wholesale furniture store. Miss Ruffelt came here a short time ago from Osage, Ia., where her parents are, and was soon to have been married to Edward M. Friebe, a German, who was at Grand Island. Where the young folks were drowned the water was about fifteen feet deep and the lake only about forty yards wide. It can never be known what caused the accident. The whole town is in excitement.

Starting a New Line.

SIoux CITY, Ia., June 20.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Saturday an engineering party was started from Cherokee toward Sioux City by the Illinois Central, a large company started another party eastward from James Station to meet the first one. This line will swing south of the Illinois Central and give it a more direct and a shorter line to Chicago and the south, and it probably forestalls the sale of the present line from Leavenworth to Chicago, which is owned by Chicago & Omaha railway. The latter company has never fulfilled the conditions of its grant by coming to the Iowa Pacific, and the new line means to meet its ways. The new line will also include considerable territory covered in the survey of the Sioux City & Northern Pacific, which is owned by the latter company. To obstruct the building of that road may be the purpose of the Central in this survey.

A Newspaper Struck By Lightning.

DAKOTA CITY, Neb., June 20.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—During the progress of the storm this morning the North Nebraska Eagle office, the newspaper published in that city, was struck by lightning, the north end of the building being entirely demolished.

CLINTON, Ia., June 20.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Red Dillon, tried for the murder of Tim Maloney on the street here a short time ago, was to-day sentenced to five years in the penitentiary at hard labor.

A Farmer Sui Generis.

TRAEER, Ia., June 20.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—G. W. Peach, a farmer living near here, cut his throat last night and was found dead in his bed. Financial troubles are supposed to be the cause of the deed.

A Dane Drowned.

CLINTON, Ia., June 20.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Peter Petersen, a Dane, was drowned while bathing in the Mississippi at this place yesterday.

Worse Than First Reported.

VIENNA, June 20.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—Later particulars show that the recent ferry accident at Sams, on the Danube river, was much worse than was at first reported. The boat was fearfully overloaded, having 400 persons on board. It is stated that the boatmen were intoxicated, and the panic on board was fearful. The bodies recovered give evidence of fearful death struggles in their tattered clothes and disparted faces. It is estimated that 300 persons were drowned. Over 200 bodies have been recovered. The recognition of bodies by friends on shore is attended with heartrending scenes.

Maxwell Will Hang.

ST. LOUIS, June 20.—Maxwell, alias Brooks, the murderer of Freiler, is to be hanged. The supreme court has today reversed its decision of court. The prisoner was notified by his attorneys yesterday and was very much dejected.

Maxwell Will Hang.

Maxwell will now, it is said, move for a rehearing of the case. If this fails an attempt will be made to get it before the United States supreme court on constitutional points. The date of execution is fixed for July 12.

Endorsed Too Much Paper.

PHILADELPHIA, June 20.—Sloan & Sons, cotton brokers, who suspended payment, were obliged to close their doors on account of the insolvency of the Washington Manufacturing Company, whose paper it had endorsed to the extent, it is said, of $250,000. The assets will be sufficient to cover the amount. The proprietor of the Washington Manufacturing Company said he believed the company would pay dollar for dollar.

Passed the Ecclesiastical Bill.

BRUSSELS, June 20.—The senate at the diet of Hesse has passed the ecclesiastical bill, settling the conflict between Hesse and the Vatican. The arrest of Deputy Kraker on Saturday evening is attributed to his being a member of a secret society, the center of which is at Breslau. Jones, who was arrested at Murgurg, and Markus the student arrested at Breslau, are members of the same society.
