Wheat Opens the New Week Both Dull and Lower.

OPERATORS STILL NERVOUS.

Corn Weak at a Lower Range of Prices-Oats Moderately Active Under Large Offerings-Market Quotations.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, June 20.- [Special Telegram to the BEE. |- The wheat market was very dull to-day, and prices averaged lower. Trade is still nervous from the effects of the panic, and there is as yet small disposition among operators to branch out. The sudden burst of activity in cash wheat observable immediately after the collapse has given place to a quieter feeling, though considerable is being done, and the advance in ocean freight has tended to check new business to a limited degree. But enough wheat will leave Chicago to enable the now crowded elevators to handle grain that is received here, and in a short period everything will be running smoothly in the accustomed channel. The average decline in prices in this market up to 1 o'clock was 1%@2c. The best prices were obtainable at or soon after the opening, when June was quoted at 71%c, July at 72% @72%c, August at 74%, September at 76% and December at 80%. There was only a limited demand, and as the offerings were liberal, the market steadily settled. A good deal of property held since the reaction for a more favorable market came out, and the bears were operating with considerable nerve. The market having no solid support, gave away, and the lower prices got the weaker the situation looked. The factor of the greatest weakness was an apparently well grounded report that carriers were selling out their wheat, the banks evincing a disposition to call their loans. The bulk of offerings of June and July were generally supposed to be for the account of generally supposed to be for the account of the carriers and banks, but as inquiry was limited it was not found possible to dispose of very heavy lines on the decline. The local stocks decreased during the week about three quarters of a million bushels, being now nearly 17,000,000 bushels, and the bears are operating on the theory that these stocks will prove an influential menace to the market until they are worked down to a smaller aggregate. The outside markets are weak and lower in sympathy with Chicago, and cables quote the foreign markets as inactive. From the figures above given, the decline was only checked by occasional mild railies, and the 1 o'clock range was close to the botand the 1 o'clock range was close to the bottom quotations, being 70% for June. 71c for July, 73% for August, and 74% for Jupperember. The depreciation was greater in September than any other month, being a full 2c. The market was not strong at any time.

Reports of rain in the west, "121 points in lowa," and lower prices for wheat, had a weakening effect on corn to-day, and during the regular session there was a drop of %@14c, in all tutures. A fairly good trade was witnessed and in early dealings there was quite free selling of September and October on country orders.

was quite free selling of September and October on country orders.

Oats were only moderately active and the speculative offerings were largely increased owing to the change in the weather conditions. Prices were weak and lower. June and July oats showing a break of ½c, and August and September of ½c. At 1 o'clock June was quoted at 25%c, July and September at 25%c, and August at 25%c.

Provision trades opened weak in a slow manner. The number present in the pit was quite large, but there was little or no disposito do anything, and a quiet feeling held full possession. The day's business, in fact, barely reached moderate volume, and barring a strong undertone the market was practically featureless. Lard averaged and closed a trifle under Saturday's prices, but in short ribs there was no change.

prices, but in short ribs there was no change. Pork was held steady at $22.00 for cash and June. Holders of the product were inclined to take a strong view of the situation and were in no wise disheartened over the limhas yet been reached, again breaking the rec-ord of twenty-five years. There seemed to be no cause for the break beyond the generord of twenty-live years. There seemed to be no cause for the break beyond the generally accepted theory that the banks were calling their wheat loans, thus throwing a great load of cash property on a weak and reluctant market. The shorts were the principal buyers on the afternoon board. There was no special excitement. Wheat was demoralized; June sold from 63c to 68%c, closing at 68%c; July sold early at 71c, fell to 70%c, closing at 70%c. August opened at 73%c, fell to 72%@72%c, closing at 73%c; September fell from 74%c to 74%c, closing at 74%c. Corn was weaker; June closed about 35%@35%c, July 35%c bid, August 38%c bid, September 39%c bid. Oats were easier; June about 25%c, July 25%c bid, August 25%c asked. Pork was quoted at $2,200 for cash or June, with no trading. Lard declined 2%c and closed at $6,25 for June and July, $6,37% for August, $6,47% for September. Short ribs ruled easier, June and July closing at $7,30@7,32%c, August at $7,42%c, and September at $7,52%.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, June 20.-[Special Telegram to the BEE. !- CATTLE-Texans were about the only stock selling, and such sold a shade stronger than last week. Dressed beef operators have meat on hand sufficient to last a week. Every market is full, and even chill room is also full. If there were no cattle for market these days there would not be a scarcity of beef. During the last week the scarcity of beef. During the last week the very best native steers, averaging 1,500 lbs and upwards, sold at from $4.40 to $4.60; good and useful at $4.00@4.25, and fair to good grassy and part grassy steers at $3.25@3.87½, the latter good enough for the dressed beef trade. Shipping steers, 1350 to 1500 lbs, $4.00@4.55; stockers and feeders, $1.60@3.20; cows, bulls and mixed, $1.50@3.20, Hoes—There is very little difference now between light and mixed, both selling around about $5.00@5.05; heavy and fancy butcher weights, $5.07½@5.10; Yorkers, $5.00@5.05. A few lots of coarse and common light sold at $4.90, but good sorts were worth $5.00.

FINANCIAL

NEW YORK, June 20 .- | Special Telegramto the BEE. |-STOCKS-The stock market was dull and disappointing. The news was all bullish and operators inclined to work on that side for a turn. London was a fair buyer, and the fact that foreigners continue to absorb moderate amounts of new issues of bonds was regarded as a good indication of how they felt regarding American security. The recent panic in wheat prevented western speculators from trading in stocks with their accustomed freedom, and New Yorkers have to look to other quarters for their business until things are adjusted, which will Ibe in a short time. The bulk of business is confined to professionals, who appear to be trading in about twelve stocks, and keep the market narrow. The favorites were Lake Shore and Reading, and both advanced 34 per cent, the former on reports of increased earnings for June and the latter on the belief that the difficulties in the way of the reorganization plan will be removed. Pacific Mail advanced % per cent, for which it has been noted, and jumped two points, but receded 3 points with the same agility. The rest of the list was steady to firm, but without new or important features. The market eased off fractionally during the last hour. As money was up to 7 per cent there was no particular pressure to sell except by weak holders, who usually drop out when the rate for money is bid up. The total sales were 159,811 sharer.

OMARA LIVE STOCK.

Monday, June 20. Cattle.

The receipts of cattle were light and the market was dull and slow. There is very little change in the market since Saturday. prices ranging about the same.

Hogs.

The receipts of hogs were liberal for the first day of the week. In addition to the fresh receipts there were 36 loads of stale hogs, making a total of about 4.300 offered on the market. The opening was very slow and dragging. The buyers were not very well represented on the market and those that were on the market were not very anxious about buying. However, all but nine loads were sold before the market closed. The prices ranged about the same as the later sales on Saturday and the market might be called about steady with the general market on Saturday. There was a better feeling on the market at the close as a light run is anticipated for to-morrow, both here and in Chicago.

Sheep. There were none in, and no fresh receipts. Receipts.
