LOOKING FOR LOWER WHEAT.

Prices Expected to Decline Because the Market is Oversold.

WORKING TO A LOWER LEVEL

A Firm Undertone in Corn and Trading at improved Prices-Dry Weather Reports Boom Oats-Quotations.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, June 27 .- | Special Telegram to the BEE | - Light money in New York, heavy selling by two or three strong local houses, and cables depressed the wheat market early and kept it depressed until after 12 o'clock, when values hardened and a sharp advance near the close carried prices back to the level, a shade above Saturday's closing, and 500%c above inside prices realized. Trading was on a timited scale and the absence of excitement was a marked characteristic of the market. July opened at 60%c, sold down to 60%c, and rested at 60%@60%c at 1 o'clock. August opened at 71%c, settled to 7134@71%c, and at 1 o'clock stood 72%c. The range for September was 73%@74%c. The last quotation of the long session was 744c. The upturn right at the close was atpributed to bad crop reports from various sources, the principal cause for complaint being too much heat in the northwest and chinch bugs. It is probably true that the market is oversold. The speculative public has been working the theory that values were reasonably certain to work off to a lewer level. Foreigners, too, have been thinking that way, and beyond a doubt they have been parting with a portion of the wheat bought for July on the great break, believing that they can secure grain later on more advantageous terms. They want every bushel of wheat originally bought, but the prospect of cheaper prices was too great a temptation for them. This, with free speculative selling here and in New York, has made the rank and file of speculators and the market pecullarly susceptible to nervous agitation, The speculative market for corn was pevaded by better and armer undertone today. There were no surface indications of any attempt to built the market, but ail of the surroundings were more favorable for holders, and after a weak and fractionally lower opening, prices were given a little boost. The improvement, which amounted to \( \frac{1}{2} \) (@ \frac{3}{2} \) (c, was maintained, or nearly so, up to 1 o'clock, when the quotations were \( \frac{1}{2} \) (@ \frac{3}{2} \) (c, was maintained, or nearly so, up to 1 o'clock, when the quotations were \( \frac{1}{2} \) (@ \frac{3}{2} \) (c) to \( \frac{3}{2} \) (3 \) (c). September corn was in good demand, the premium on which over July widened to \( \frac{3}{2} \) (c). September closed at \( \frac{3}{2} \) (c) at 1 \( \frac{3}{2} \) (c). September closed at \( \frac{3}{2} \) (c) at 1 \( \frac{3}{2} \) (c). September closed at \( \frac{3}{2} \) (c) at 1 \( \frac{3}{2} \) (c). September closed at \( \frac{3}{2} \) (c) at 1 \( \frac{3}{2} \) (c). September closed at \( \frac{3}{2} \) (c) at 1 \( \frac{3}{2} \) (c). Trading was of a larger volume on both local and order account than Saturday. The estimated receipts for to-morrow were larger—\( 285 \) cars—but there was a corresponding increase in the charters by lake shippers, room for \( 335,00 \) bushels of corn being takes.

Oats were boomed \( \frac{3}{2} \) (@ le to-day on reports of dry weather in the west. The shorts covered outstanding contracts freely, and toward the close there appeared to be some investment buying, while the longs, having a pront in their trade, realized. As in corn the outside figures were maintained to the close of the regular session. July rested at \( 25 \) (c, Au, ust at \( 25 \) (c, and September at \( 25 \) (c. The bulk of day. There were no surface indications of regular session. July rested at 25%,c, Au .ust at 26% and September at 26%. The bulk of business done, as usual, was in the more deferred deliveries.

In the provision market the interest developed was centered mainly in short ribs. Lard stracted more or less notice, but it scarcely attracted more or less notice, but it scarcely held its own with ribs, which, owing to the Sunday fire at the stock yards, were in active demand from short sellers and partles who considered it advisable under the circum-stances to provide for outstanding contracts. Buyers of this class were both numerous and urgent in their calls, and as a con-sequence ribs experienced an actual ad-vance of 17½(@22½c on Saturday's closings. Lard sympathized with this article and sustained an improvement of 2½(@5c, in both of these lines trading was chiefly in August and September, while the rence between July and August was somewhat wideped. At the close at 1 o'clock July lard was 15c and July ribs 7½c under the August market. For cash and June delivery pork was again quoted at $22,00. In the entire trade there was a better showing of speculative life than on the closing days of last week.

of last week.

AFTERNOON SESSION—Wheat was firmer;
June closed at 69%c, July at 69%c, August at 72%c, September at 74%c. Corn was firm;
June 86c, July 86%c, August 88%c, September 89%c. Oats were active and higher; June 26c, July 26%c August 26%c, September 26%c asked. Pork was 822.00 for June, Lard advanced 5@7%c; July 86.42%, August 86.55 bid, September $6.65. Short ribs were excited and 7%c 10c higher; July closed at $7.52%,
August at $7.67%, and September at $7.77%.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, June 27 .- | Special Telegram to BEE!-CATLE-Out of the 8,000 on sale at least 3,000 were Texans, and the latter also sold a shade higher than at the low fig-ures of last week. Native butchers' stock, especially old cows, sold as low as at any time. Light bulls and rough stock generally sold no better than last week. There were but a few lots of stockers and feeders on the market. Light little things sold as low as last week. Veal calves sold at about the low range of last week. Should the run prove as heavy as last week shippers need not look for any improvement. Shipping steers, 1,350 to 1,500 lbs, $3.80 @ 4.45; 1,200 to 1,350 lbs $3.00@415; 950 to 1,200 lbs. $3.30@3.75; stockers and feeders, $1.60@3.00; cows, bulis and mixed, $1.50@3.00; slop-fed steers, $4.00@4.25; Texas cattle a shade lower; steers, $2.65@3.55; cows. $2.25@2.60

4.25; Texas cattle a shade lower; steers, $2.05 (#3.55; cows, $2.25(#2.60. Hogs—Hogs were active, most of the sales at about the same as Saturday. Here and there a lot of inferior may have sold a shade off. Then again sales were made at an advance of a nickel, especially nice light weights, yet the great bulk sold around about $5.05 for the ordinary run of mixed and $5.05 for heavy. The market closed strong and about all sold.

FINANCIAL

NEW YORK, June 27.-Special Telegram to the BEE .- STOCKS-Liquidation still goes on in stocks on the New York stock exchange. The market was active but exceedingly erratic. The scare over light money, which was said to be passed Saturday, was again brought to do service for the bears and had a depressing effect on the entire list. Rates were bld up to 1/4 and 8-16 per cent and interest per diem, and for the time caused a panleky feeling, the active stocks declining 3 to 6 points. The secretary of the treasury was reported as again coming to the relief of the street, but the rumor had little effect. The failure of one small firm was announced, and added to the general feeling of distrus that prevails in financial circles, as the result of the recent stirring up in different parts of the country. There was free seiling of long stocks by demoralized bulls, also increased offerings by the bears. The latter made special attacks upon St. Paul and Louisville & Nashville, and were assisted by selling orders from London, where the feeling over colitical complications was very nervous, and timid holders showed a desire to get from under. Notwithstanding the bear raids, St. Paul only broke 1% and Louisville & Nashville 256 per cent. Gould stocks were especially heavy, Missouri Pacific declining 11/2 and Texas Pacific 12/2 per cent. Mauhat-tan was adversely affected by the decision of Judge Ingram and opened 7 points lower, reacted 2, but broke 5 and sold to 137, but railled to 130. Reading stood up under the adverse influences remarkably well and only declined 1% per cent. About 1 o'clock the market became quieter. A great deal of the selling pressure was removed and the report that $500,000 in gold had been shipped from London to New York, and more would follow, and that the rate for money there was 134 per cent for three months, caused a better feeling and railies of 3/32 points were recorded. The last hour the market again became weak and prices declined sharply. Pacific Mail headed the list, owing to large loans on it being called. The same thing was said to have occurred on other stocks and the market closed weak at almost the inside figures of the day. Money loaned at the close at 6 per cent. The total sales were 332,312 shares.

Monday, June 27.

Catle. The receipts were light to-day and there was very little doing on the market. Prices remain about the same as Saturday. The demand is light and the market lifeless.

Hoge. The run of hogs was liberal for the first day of the week. The market was slow to open, the buyers holding back at first. There was not much done before 10 o'clock in the morning. When the market did open it was morning. When the market did open it was active and the pens were soon cleared. The market was about steady at Saturday's prices, nearly everything bringing one price.

Sheep. There were very fair receipts of sheep and the market was fairly active, several loads changing hands.
