CHICAGO, Jure 22—(Special Telegrantic) the BEE, I—Whest was duil to casy, but not altogether fectureless. Yesterlay carriers and bears were predicting that Jury would be selling at a discount of & under August. Instead of the difference widening, as anticipated, it narrowed, and what chary ing over was done to-day was do is on a basis of $2\frac{3}{2}$ (20), $(a, most of the business being done at the inside. Parties who were in- tending to carry wheat, but who waited to reak to 200 per cert. (a) tending to carry wheat, but who waited to reak to 200 per cert. (b) to a mong carriers kept July wheat firm to day and advanced the price after the first half hour. Hutchisson was by all means there will be no inck of fund to care for wheat that with be delivered out on July contracts. The same is also true with regard to corn and provisions. Karely has it been possible of inter years to place midsummer loanable funds so advantageously as now. This fact, coupled with the information that for eights' were again in New York as buyers, served to impart to better tone to the general market and to stimulate public confidence.
