

BOARD OF TRANSPORTATION

That Body Holds Its First Meeting and Effects an Organization.

ITS MEMBERS AND SECRETARIES.

A Midnight Raid Made By The Lincoln Police on a Well Known Gambling House—Capital City News.

[FROM THE BEE'S LINCOLN BUREAU.]

The new board of transportation met in the office at the capitol yesterday morning and organized under the new law. As now constituted the board is as follows: William Lawson, chairman; L. A. Laws, secretary; A. H. Babcock, C. H. Willard, and Joseph Scott, commissioners; O. P. Mason, Lincoln; J. H. Ager, Ord; and W. H. Munger, Fremont, secretaries; H. M. Warring, secretary and chief clerk. It may be mentioned that the name of the board changes under the new law which went into effect yesterday from commissioners to board of transportation, and the number is increased from three to five by the addition of the state treasurer, C. H. Willard, and commissioner of public lands and buildings, Joseph Scott. Considerable time was spent by the board arranging the details of the business and familiarizing themselves with the new provisions. It follows rather closely the interstate law, and was championed by Senator Conger in the senate and J. C. Watson in the house. The board is requested to make a report to the governor on the 1st of December, and the secretary will commence on that report at once and add to it the reports made by the companies as they come in. H. M. Warring was re-elected stenographer and secretary without opposition. A new seal, as required by law, has been ordered, by which acts of the board shall be authenticated.

Petitions signed by from ten to fifty persons have been received from Creston, Howells, Leigh, Nickerson, Scribner, Stanton, Clark, W. W. Waring, Lindsey, Newman's Gray, and Pilsner in regard to lumber rates in this portion of the state and on the Union Pacific and Northwestern. The petitions are as follows, all being in favor of the petitioners: To the Honorable Board of Railway Commissioners of the State of Nebraska—Gentlemen: We would respectfully call your honorable body's attention to the rates on lumber and building material from the western markets to nearly all points in northern Nebraska, which we most assuredly believe to be unjust and certain to result in a 20 to 25 per cent higher than before the enactment of the interstate commerce law. We have been fighting these rates until we find it utterly useless and unless we have relief soon, we will be compelled to advance the price of lumber from $2 to $5 per 1,000, which would seriously affect every consumer in northern Nebraska. We would, therefore, petition your honorable body to investigate this matter and if found as stated, do your utmost towards securing reduction of the rates on this commodity which is one of the most necessary to the people of this state.

Judge Mason has taken these petitions for examination and will arrange to hold a hearing on them or file a complaint with the national commission. There seems to be some trouble with the express companies and their charges, and a complaint is likely to be filed in regard to discrimination. One member of the board intimated that express companies would be held to be common carriers and subject to the provisions of the interstate commerce law.

A GAMBLING RAID. The police made a midnight raid Thursday night on the gambling rooms over the old Quick saloon, commonly supposed to be owned and managed through John Sheedy. The police first guarded every avenue of escape, including the street adjacent to the windows, and then demanded admission, which was refused. After a siege of an hour the doors were opened and only a solitary man found in the elegant apartment. But there was a second room dark, and the door looked unbolting. An axe was secured to chop down the door, but Policeman Mitchell thought his brogans were good enough, and began to kick with such effect that the door was broken open, and striking a light six sad-eyed men were discovered, who gave the names of Frank Duolien, E. W. Johnson, Harry Wilson, John Benson, C. E. Egan, D. W. Waring, and W. H. Boch. The chips, tables and covers were hustled down to the sidewalk, and were to be carried away, when a deputy sheriff arrived with a revolver for the goods, issued by that great and good justice, J. H. Brown. The marshal delivered the property to the officer all except the chips, which could not be found. The revelry was sued out by another gambler and is a mere ruse to prevent the property from being destroyed. John Sheedy gave his personal recognizance for the appearance of the arrested parties. The morning after all appeared in police court and pled guilty to the charge of gambling and keeping a gambling house, and paid out. Dodson and Boch, as keepers of the place, were fined $25 and costs, and the other $10 and costs each. What the people are now anxious to know is whether or not the revelry of the paragon will be allowed to go by default, and the stuff converted back to the gamblers. The law and order people would like to see the matter followed up, especially as there is now a more stringent law on the subject.

NOTES. The contract for the new C street school building has been let to D. B. Howard at $24,500. The railway clerks in the offices are very busy making up the pay-rolls for the month of June. The force is constantly increasing. The county commissioners are absent in Ohio looking at court houses, in view of the new one soon to be erected in Lancaster county. Will Grant, the colored man who really caused the arrest of the Trusty for poisoning a family some days since, was in police court yesterday morning and fined for carrying concealed weapons. He said Trusty threatened his life.

AMUSEMENTS. A Grand Production of the Leather Patch Last Night. Mr. Edward Harrigan's appearance last night at the Boyd, drew a full house. It also drew an enthusiastic house, a house which laughed at and applauded almost every act which was introduced upon the stage.

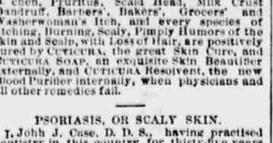

"The Leather Patch" is what may be termed a picture of life among the lowly in the great cities. It is a heterogeneous combination of Irish, Germans, Hebrews, Americans, Africans, hack drivers, bartenders and undertakers. The hero is an undertaker, and the other characters are of almost every calling under the sun. The plot is simplicity itself, and too ridiculous to be even probable. But no auditor looks for probability in Harrigan's plays. They contain convulsions with laughter, and but seldom elevate. They deal with the lower classes and afford glimpses of life which is seldom, except for a moment, visible in the melodramatic stage. At times they abound in exaggeration, but the exaggeration only conduces to hearty laughter, which is the mainspring of the undertaking.

THE BRIGGS HOTEL. THE BEST HOTEL IN CHICAGO. AT $22 PER DAY. My wife, some three or four years ago, was troubled with a peculiar kind of rheumatism, which was the worst she had ever experienced. The pain was excruciating, causing her to be unable to get up in the morning. Accompanying the trouble was rheumatism. It had passed from the shoulders and centered in the neck, and she was almost blind. The use of the BRIGGS HOTEL was recommended to her. She was entirely relieved and restored to health. This was three years ago, and there has been no return of the disease. H. L. MIDDLEBROOK, Chicago, Ill.
