DAMAGES FROM THE DROUGHT

Movements of the Live Stock Commission—A Serious Accident—Complaints Against Street Railroads—City News.

[FROM THE BEE'S LINCOLN BUREAU.]

The way-up society people of Lincoln gave matters in their line a new turn this spring. The old-fashioned set party with folded hands, and even the neighborhood or select dance or cotillon party gave place to a more stylish, extensive and elaborate gathering called receptions. Some held these in the early evening from 5 to 7, and others from 8.30 to 11.00. At the "afternoons" the house was darkened, the gas lighted and every appearance of night secured. At all of these gatherings the dresses of the ladies were especially elaborate, costing in some cases hundreds of dollars, and in others much more than some husbands could afford. These dresses followed the latest fashion to the letter, and some of them fell a little short of material. The manner of construction seemed to be a start on the train and skirt, and by the time the waist was reached the material was exhausted. Street cars, though passing the door were discarded and a hack called into requisition. There is a vagabond story about to the effect that at some of these receptions something stronger than water was offered as a beverage, and even some of the members of the W. C. T. U. in their innocence indulged in a little mild milk punch, but no cases of intoxication have been reported. But when the warm weather actually set in all these things were abandoned as entirely too exhaustive, and the exodus to summer resorts and supposed cool places began. Now Lincoln people may be found east and west at watering places. It would seem that few cities of its size distribute visitors and sightseers more widely than Lincoln. In winter southern California and Florida always receive a good delegation, and, too, they remain for months. In the summer they scatter even more widely. Several well known families are now on the Atlantic sea shore or up in the New England woods or village near their native haunts. Others are north on the great lakes or in the groves of Wisconsin and Minnesota, while a delegation has started for Puget Sound and the unknown territory of Alaska, intending to return through the National park. Nor are the mountains of Colorado without their share, which is always a large one. Nor is this all. The old world comes in for some attention, and quite a number are either on the continent or en route. Chancellor Mennett, of the state university, and Mrs. J. H. Blair, well known in business circles, started yesterday, and one of the charming things about all this going is that it is not confined to the rich alone, many in ordinary and some even in humble circumstances, have found the means to indulge their taste for travel and recreation.

convicts will themselves participate in the exercises with songs and speeches. The Lincoln street railway company is on the make, regardless of whether or not it accommodates the people on the Tenth street line. The custom has been to run a car every ten minutes, but when it comes base ball time one car is deliberately hauled off and the regular parties allowed to wait the convenience of a slow coach and have their plans cut into a failure. It gets a car at the desired time. The city will soon realize that it has given away many valuable franchises for nothing, and that the people have no rights which the street car company is required to respect. There should be some restrictions requiring the companies to do the fair thing by the people. There is another just cause for complaint. During the assembly at Crete the railroad runs an excursion train leaving Crete at 9.30 each evening and arriving in Lincoln a few minutes after 10, and there is no street car in sight of the camper. Most either walk a long distance home or hire a hack, which is expensive after 10 o'clock at night. It would pay the car company to give some attention to this matter.

SUNDAY CLOSING.

The fuss made some months since about closing stores on Sunday has all died out and to-day every store that can make any money is open and running on Sunday time, even grocery stores keeping on as usual. But no saloons offer to open their doors and Sunday is really a quiet day on the streets of Lincoln.

From the Leading N. Y. Florist.

C. F. Klunder, of No. 907 Broadway, New York, is one of the best known florists in America. Florists like other persons, are subject to the ills of life, notwithstanding the fragrance surrounding their calling, but like other persons they can be cured of their ills. Mr. Klunder writes: I cordially recommend Allecock's Poreur Plasters. I have found them, after 10 years' constant use, wonderfully efficacious in coughs, colds, influenza, back and chest. As chest protectors and shields against changes in the weather they are invaluable. My household men use a great many, and I find family are never without this never failing external remedy.
