 Northwestern depot.
 William Martin has a new five-light landau on the streets.
 No services will be held in the tabernacle church this evening.
 Colonel Daily will speak at Reel's grove to-day at their celebration.
 The patrol wagon is now in use, Charles Sanderson being the driver.
 Rapp & Allen have opened their coffee house and restaurant in the Brown building.
 The hotels are all crowded to overflowing, and have put up cots for many of their guests.
 Pools sold every day on all the races by Al Swearingen at Sherlock's, No. 404 Broadway.

Yesterday morning the burning debris of the Saturday night boire was still smoldering.
 Eisenman & Co. are putting in a new cash system, which is something similar to the one now in.
 The Pacific house yesterday had a fine menu, the same being turned out by Pryor's Joe job office.
 The Bee was yesterday morning on sale at Hotel Manawa. As usual, the only newspaper at the front.
 Thomas Davis is charged with being drunk and malicious mischief at the city "coolie"—a good place this weather.
 Those concerned in the trial of Dr.
 Cross will celebrate to-day. The case will come on again to-morrow morning.
 Harry Haworth has been presented with a banana tree, which is the only one in the city, it having been brought from Ohio.

There will be a display of fireworks at Hotel Manawa this evening, and the regular full course 5 o'clock dinner will be served.
 Some few of the retail stores will be open this morning, but all will close, and business after 12 o'clock will be generally suspended.
 F. H. Kirk was yesterday arrested at the driving park and placed him in jail, charging him with the larceny of a grip from one of the men at the fair grounds.
 A young rough named Jones, who has had considerable notoriety for disturbance of the peace, etc., and claims to be a switchman, was arrested for creating a disturbance.

A notorious "rounder" named "Jim" Price was run out of Omaha and brought two terrible black eyes to this city with him. He was run in as a "rag" but was out again yesterday.
 Yesterday some person threw some lumber out of a building on Broadway, between Main and Pearl streets, and broke down the district telegraph and telephone wires.
 The six-year old son of Matt Kuhl, in the country yesterday broke his arm by falling off a fence. Dr. Emmonds reduces the fracture, it being a compound one of the radius and ulnae.

Rev. Mr. Fleming, who is the bible agent for this county, reports for June that he visited 383 families, found fifty-four destitute, supplied forty-one with the bible and fifty-five other individuals.
 The management of the motor line is under the superintendency of W. S. C.
 Couch; the conductors are J. D. Johnson and C. Carpenter, while the engineers are Charles Lee and Mr. Jones.
 Florence Davis, as she gives her name, is in the county jail and is said to be crazy. She was arrested by the police Saturday night late, and will be examined by the commissioners to-day or tomorrow.

A large number of persons visited the driving park yesterday and took a look at the blooded horses which are there stabled in large numbers, waiting for a chance to show themselves in the races which begin to-day.
 A. J. Mardel was badly bitten by a dog belonging to Charles Lefferts on Ninth avenue. He was told there was no danger and that the dog would not bite, but as Mr. Mardel entered the gate he was attacked by the brute.
 The scandal mongers in the vicinity of the Methodist church have fond for gossip in the report that a certain business man and another man's wife were recently discovered in a compromising position in Palmer's grove.

There will be only one delivery and collection of the mails to-day, and that in the evening. The postoffice will be open from 10 to 11 o'clock this morning and from 7:30 to 8 o'clock this evening for the delivery of mail.
 The dear old grandmother yesterday suggested that it wouldn't be a bad idea to double the police force for this week. Her children were so busy "painting" Saturday night and hunting the old woman's roosters that the dear old lady wasn't aware that her suggestion was rather stale, the extra force having been sworn in Saturday.

About thirty extra policemen have been put on during the Fourth and the race this week. The entire city is now covered both day and night by the police and the crooks which will begin to put in an appearance by this morning or tonight will be given a good water. Crooks always go where the largest crowds congregate and their appearance in this city is conclusive evidence of a great gathering to-day and this week at the races.
 Pacific house is the nearest hotel to the majority of real estate offices in the city; 2 per day.
 For female diseases and chronic diseases of all kinds, call on Dr. Rice, No. 11 Pearl street, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

 three-year-old steers for sale. Will give credit to reliable parties. Enquire of A.
 J. Greenmayer, Creston House.
 Latest improved gasoline stoves at N.
 304 Main street. W. A. Wood.
 J. W. & E. L. Squire make beautiful abstracts of title and deserve the success they are enjoying.
 In this issue will be found the advertisement of A. Rink, the grocer, corner of Main street and Willow avenue. Mr.
 Rink always keeps the best in the market in his line and has a full assortment of foreign and domestic canned goods all of which are sold at the lowest possible figures. Give him a trial.

The Day We Celebrate.
 Council Bluffs will celebrate to-day in good style. The programme is extensive and the attractions many. Never before in the history of this city has there been such a fine field of horses as those at present at the driving park. The Knights of Labor have arranged a programme superior to any previous year, and with the outside military companies and other attractions the crowd of visitors to this city promises to go beyond any previous gathering. Some eight or ten towns in this vicinity have in consequence their citizens will spend the day here. It is expected that the city will be gaily decorated with flags and bunting.

The Dodge light guards will fire forty rounds at 5:30 o'clock this morning. At 8 o'clock there will be a guard mount in Bayliss park. At 9:30 o'clock the procession will form, and at 10:30 o'clock the Declaration of Independence will be read in Bayliss park, and the Hon. Jesse Harper, of Danville, Ill., will deliver an oration, closing in time for dinner. In the afternoon the races take place at the driving park at 1:30 o'clock. There will also be a competitive drill between the companies of the Fifth regiment, I. S. N. G., at the driving park, which will comprise Company A, of this city; Company C, of Glenwood; company D, of Boone; company E, of Sheandoah; also company H, of the Third regiment, from Sioux City. The "Rambler" will also have a bicycle race. One of the features at the driving park will be the day fireworks displayed under the supervision of the Mueller Music company. Chariot races also take place in the evening. The Knights of Labor display of fireworks will be given in front of Masonic hall on Broadway and Fourth street at 8:30 o'clock, after which the day's celebration will be concluded by the Knights of Labor ball.

The First Move.
 Hotel Manawa yesterday had its informal opening and the first bill of fare breakfast was served.
 The formal opening of the hotel will not take place until the upper stories are finished, and then it will be formally opened by the Congregationalists of this city.
 There were a large number of persons who took dinner at the hotel, and it was well patronized. It is a delightful place to spend the day and the veranda were crowded the entire day and evening.
 During the afternoon and evening fine music was given by the Northwestern band.
 At dinner they had the following:

Menu.
 Little Neck Clams.
 Potage a la Ithine.
 Sea Flounder Fort Sauce.
 Cucumbers.
 Boiled Capon, Cream Sauce.
 Roast Sirloin of Beef, Roast Spring Lamb, Mint Sauce, Roast Spring Chicken with Jelly.
 Fillet of Beef with Champignons.
 Banan a Fritters, Glace au Rum.
 Asparagus on Toast.

Crumbs From the Churches.
 At the Presbyterian church yesterday morning Rev. Dr. Phelps preached a sermon appropriate to the patriotic season of the year. He spoke eloquently on national privileges and responsibilities, dangers and duties.
 At the Methodist church Rev. Dr. Mc-Creary took occasion to thump horse racing and the accompanying betting.
 At the tabernacle yesterday afternoon Rev. Mr. Whitehead gave a popular sort of address in which he pictured the greatness of this country. The address was full of interesting facts concerning the material and religious growth of the land, and the great opportunities which lay before it. He urged loyalty to the flag and to God.

At the Congregational church yesterday morning the sacrament of the Lord's supper was observed, and several new members received into the church.
 Among those received by letter was one young man, who came from a Methodist church in Virginia. Two others were from the Congregational church at Glenwood.
 In several of the churches yesterday there were no evening services, the congregations uniting in the service at the Fourth street tabernacle.

The Races.
 The races begin to-day at 1:30 o'clock at the Council Bluffs Driving park. There a short time. They command a beautiful view of Lake Manawa.

A High Noon Marriage.
 HOFFMAYR-CORBALEY.
 Yesterday at high noon, Harry J. Hoffmayr and Miss Maggie S. Corbaley were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's parents in Crescent township, by the father of the bride, the Rev. J. B.
 Corbaley, in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties.
 Mr. Hoffmayr is the oldest living son of Colonel J. C. Hoffmayr, is well and favorably known to a large circle of friends, and has for several years been in the employ of the city mills as book-keeper, his father being one of the proprietors.
 Miss Corbaley is the youngest daughter of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Corbaley, and has resided in Crescent township for a number of years, where she has many warm friends and associates as well as in this city.
 The newly wedded couple will spend the Fourth at the Corbaley residence, after which they will take up their residence in this city.
