The Old and New Street Railway Lines Come Into Conflict—Gamblers Moving Out—Other Lincoln News.

FROM THE BEE'S LINCOLN BUREAU.

The judges of the supreme court met in regular semi-annual term yesterday morning. A large number of important cases are to come up. One of the first will be the mandamus case of the E. & M. railroad company against the land commissioner and governor.

The Nebraska Real Estate and Trust company has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state. The corporation shall be perpetual.

The street railway companies are coming into collision in their effort to secure possession of certain desirable streets. The old company has long contemplated the tenth street line north to the university grounds and Missouri Pacific and Elkhorn depot.

The Bee had an interview with an observing gentleman, an old newspaper man, who has traveled over much of Nebraska within the past month. His taste for news is still such that little of interest escapes him.

George Estes, an employee of the Lincoln street railway, sustained a painful and possibly dangerous injury at the car barn Monday night.

Charles H. Richards was received at the penitentiary yesterday. He came from Benkeman in charge of Sheriff Terwilliger and goes in for life.

A Husband Sells His Personal Effects and Position For $50.

St. Louis Republican: An interesting and peculiar commercial transaction was performed in Justice Spaulding's court yesterday. It was the selling by a real live man of his position as a husband, together with his personal effects, for the sum of $50.

The justice informed her that it depended on whether or not the person drawing up the agreement was man enough to stand by it. To that the man stated, slapping his hand on the table, that he was a man and would continue to be one.

When the justice then read the document, which read as follows: "For and in consideration of $50 cash, paid me this 25th day of June, 1887, by —, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, I hereby release and sell all of my rights, titles, goods and chattels of every description now in possession of —, at my residence in the city of St. Louis, state of Missouri, and I agree to abstain from any further claim for the payment to me of the said $50, that I will never appear as against the said — now or at any future time, in any of the courts, etc., of the United States to oppose her or to bring any objection to her securing a bill of divorce from me, but will allow her to get such bill at her own pleasure and will withdraw any opposition on my part whatever."

Safety From Malaria. The most vigorous constitution, and the strongest physique, are not proof against a disease, the germs of which impregnate the air we breathe, and the water we drink. The true preventive, the surest defense, is to fortify the system with a medicine which possesses specific virtues as a safeguard and remedy.
