President Cleveland does not come west soon, he may not be able to bring his high office with him.

MR. MELVILLE STONE, editor of the Chicago News, has been made a LL. D. The next we hear of Mr. Stone he will be wearing a white choker.

Is it not about time that Robert Garrett let some other fellow "deal" in that Baltimore & Ohio scheme? A change of "dealers" might produce a change in luck.

It has been so long since Chicago has been honored by the presence of a great and honest man that the whole city turned out the other day to see Roscoe Conkling.

It was in perfect accord with the eternal fitness of things that the Union Pacific of room chief should appear in the courts as the defender of the official printing swindle.

Will not Mr. Edison please attach his new apparatus for telegraphing from ship to ship to the messenger boy, so that his whereabouts may be discovered when he is wanted.

EX-GOVERNOR BULLOCK, of Georgia, thinks the republicans should nominate Rutherford B. Hayes for president.

If there was no intention to try the starvation policy on the police force why did the council amend the ordinance proposed by Comptroller Goodrich so as to prevent a transfer from the special real estate fund to the police fund?

THE projectors of Omaha motor and cable roads should lose no time in getting land owners along their lines to erect cheap dwellings for wage-workers.

MR. BLAINE, in future when he goes to Edinburgh, should take the precaution to have his hat checked so that the keepers at the gates may know the distinguished American, and he can gain admission to the city without having to wait for some one to identify him.

MR. OSCAR J. HARVEY, the defaulting treasury clerk at Washington, formerly chief of the horse claims division, was planning a neat scheme to swindle the government out of about $50,000 on fraudulent vouchers.

IF Florida King was really ambitious to take the throne as king of Bulgaria he lives again to see himself the victim of disappointment.

THE next distinguished American citizen to depart for the shores of England is the champion thug, Colonel John L. Sullivan.

OMAHA needs one thousand cottages and cheap dwellings for workingmen this year.

EDITOR DORNSHEIMER, of the New York Star, appeals to the hard working and poorly paid shop girls to contribute to the Grant fund 10 cents each.

Another democratic revenue reformer, Congressman Breckinridge, of Kentucky, has joined the as yet small circle of those who are disposed to compromise in order to secure a reduction of federal taxation and revenue.

AN international exhibition is to be held at Glasgow during the summer of 1888.

While Russia is extending her power in Central Asia, England is making little headway against her.

It seems to be a pretty general impression that, in the next war in Europe, dynamite and other destructive chemical compounds will play an important part in battles and mining and defensive operations.

It Postmaster General Vilas expects to occupy the second place on the next national democratic ticket with Mr. Cleveland.

Well-to-do widows in Yuba county, Cal., remember with complacency that Mrs. Hull is their deputy assessor.

Senator Cullom's daughter is ranked among the beauties of Washington; a tall, slender blonde, with a face like those seen in portraits of the Madonnas.

Mrs. Langtry celebrated the queen's jubilee by taking out naturalization papers preparatory to becoming an American citizen.

Mr. James Brown Potter is a peer. You can buy her photographs taken in 140 different attitudes.

There is a growing demand in this country for a more rapid transit between the east and west. It is true there has been a gradual reduction in time since the time the roads crossing the continent were completed.

There is hardly a road west of Chicago that is not advertised as "steel railled, stone ballasted, and the best equipped railway in the world."

The rates of fare are uniform throughout the United States and the volume of traffic is almost, if not as great, between Omaha and Chicago as it is between Chicago and New York.

It is reported from Washington that the president is beginning to talk quite freely concerning the campaign next year.

It is a question of the gravest kind whether Mr. Cleveland can carry the state of New York against whomsoever the republicans may nominate.
