LABOR NEWS.

Sewer Laborers Demand an Advance in Wages.

The sewer laborers employed by Messrs. Mount & Griffin, to the number of 108 men, have for some time past been dissatisfied with the wages they were receiving. Matters came to a crisis yesterday afternoon, when the work on Thirteenth and Leavenworth streets, on which some thirty-nine of the men were employed, was rendered much more disagreeable and dangerous through the presence of water in the excavation.

A largely attended special meeting of the union carpenters was held last evening at the Metropolitan hall, corner of Dodge and Fourteenth streets.

The following notice was adopted unanimously for publication: NOTICE TO BUILDERS—You having acceded to our demands for higher wages, and eight hours on Saturday, with same pay, with the standard wages of thirty cents per hour.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE GREAT BARRETT CIRCUS.

To-morrow morning at 10 o'clock the great parade of the Barrett circus will make the streets put on a holiday appearance, and in the afternoon the first of the great performances will be given.

The reputation of the Barrett circus is so well established that it is needless for us to do anything more than simply announce its coming. It is as well, though, to call attention to its wonderful unequalled features, the great Jo Jo.

Omaha is to be doubly blessed this season in the circus way, for soon after the appearance of the Barrett show we are to be visited by the greatest and biggest of all big shows, the Doris & Colvin show, circus, menagerie, museum, wild west and Roman hippodrome.

The pastor of the First United Presbyterian church will preach this morning "Light and the Duty of the State to Protect the Sabbath."

The entertainment of St. Philip's Musical Nucleus Thursday evening at St. Barnabas Guild hall was a very enjoyable affair.

Mr. C. H. Baker, General Agent Life Indemnity & Investment company, Waterloo, Iowa, is desirous of securing some good men in Nebraska to work this business.

The entertainment of St. Philip's Musical Nucleus Thursday evening at St. Barnabas Guild hall was a very enjoyable affair.

There is soon to be another break in the local railway circle.

Mr. Cooley has been in railroad life seventeen years, being a member of the Engineers of the Union Pacific.

Next Thursday the Young Men's Hebrew association will give a picnic at Reub's park, a pleasant resort southwest of the city.

Two choice lots at considerably below present prevailing prices. Must be taken soon. Also some other good bargains.

The Adolphian society of the Christian church hold a lawn festival at the residence of E. T. Gadd, 833 Park avenue, Tuesday evening, July 12.

A meeting of Castle Omaha No. 74, Knights and Ladies of the Golden Rule, will be held in St. George's hall Monday evening, July 11, at 8 o'clock, sharp.

Edward Holden, of Iowa, who has been working for over three years in the mines near O'ray, Col., was killed last Friday morning.

Funeral will take place from the residence of A. J. Hunt, No. 2723 Hamilton street, Sunday, July 10, at 2 o'clock p. m.

THE BOOM IS NOW HERE.

South Omaha the Future Porkopolis of the World.

Armour & Co. Have Bought and Are Now Here—The Most Unprecedented Boom Contemplated in South Omaha Investments.

Nothing has occurred during the years of constant progress in the prosperity of Omaha and South Omaha that has had the significance that the purchase of Armour & Co. of the Lipton packing establishment is developing.

Inhabitants will live in South Omaha within twelve months, as the numerous packing houses and manufactories will absolutely demand this influx of people, thereby convincing proof that no property for sale offers the quick returns and large profits as does South Omaha.

Men foolishly pay $800 for lots in wildcat additions when they can purchase elegant lots within six blocks of the Exchange building for $500.

Parties buying lots now get them from first hand and get the benefit of the increase in price. Now is the time to invest. Don't wait until the most desirable lots are gone.

Resting at Davenport. C. E. Mayne thinks Omaha is Good Enough Place to Live In.

When Mr. C. E. Mayne, the far-famed real estate dealer, went on his summer vacation to Davenport, Ia., several Omaha papers took it upon themselves to say that he would make his permanent residence there and look on Omaha once in a while.

Doors of Colvin Circus. Omaha is to be doubly blessed this season in the circus way, for soon after the appearance of the Barrett show we are to be visited by the greatest and biggest of all big shows, the Doris & Colvin show, circus, menagerie, museum, wild west and Roman hippodrome.

Doings in Police Court. Nellie Wilson and Eva Morgan, for various offenses, were fined $6 and costs each. They paid.

James Fischel, alias Harry Kimball, was assessed a fine of $3 and costs for peddling dry goods and notions without a license. In explaining the situation to the court, he said the reason that he had changed his name was because he had been rich and powerful in the old country, and he had yet a limitless stock of pride, and was ashamed of his poor relations on this side of the pond.

Charles Wilson is back again. He was run in by special Officer Mulhall, who found him prowling about the lumber yards in the bottoms. Wilson is a well known crook, and a dangerous man.

Tom Reynolds stole a coat from the rack in the wash room of the Union Pacific hotel on Tenth street yesterday afternoon, and had the gall to try to sell it to several men in front of the house.

Will Picnic. Next Thursday the Young Men's Hebrew association will give a picnic at Reub's park, a pleasant resort southwest of the city.

Two choice lots at considerably below present prevailing prices. Must be taken soon. Also some other good bargains.
