District and Other Courts.

The Reese case was given to the jury yesterday morning in the district court. The case has been on trial before Judge Wakeley for the past few days, and was watched by the triends of the late Joseph M. Reese with a great deal of interest. The only question for the jury to decide was whether or not Mr. Reese was of sound mind at the time he signed the will. The jury decided that Mr. Reese was of sound mind in less than five min-

B. Roehl, a butcher doing business in in the southern section of the city, filed a suit in the county court yesterday morning against S. Daukel for $350. Herman Albretch, the boy arrested a few days ago for stealing goods from the store of S. P. Morse, was before Judge Groff yesterday morning. He plead guilty and will be sent to the reform school this morning.

CNITED STATES.

M. H. Nutt, of Chadron, was brought in yesterday morning by Deputy Sheriff J. H. Showalter, and arraigned before Judge Dundy on the charge of selling beer without a license. He pleaded not guilty and was released under a $500 bond. The information in the suit of J. B. McKinley, et al vs Margaret E. Black-law et al, a foreclosure of mortgage, was filed with the clerk yesterday morning. The indebtedness is $4,000, at 7 per cent in-situate near Pawnee City.

The United States circuit and district courts will adjourn next week until Noterest from March 1882, and the property involved consists of a farm of 440 acres.

COURT IN CHAMBERS. The summing up in the case Abraham Poole et al vs. the West Point Butter and court yesterday morning before Special Master Churchill. It will reach a conclusion to do: Cheese association, was resumed in this reach a conclusion to-day, but it will be ten days yet before Special Master Churchill files his report with the clerk. The case has been dragging through the courts for nearly four years, and those who have been following it up will look for the final result with no inconsiderable interest. JUSTICE ANDERSON.

Gee Lee, a celestial citizen, appeared before the above magistrate yesterday morning and petitioned for a writ of ous-ter sagainst one C. Frank, who occupie the establishment of the rooms above Chinaman, and according to the latter's story runs a noisy, disorderly and disreputable house. A notice to quit was issued on Frank.

Yesterday was a calm and peaceful morning, comparatively speaking, before

Henry Haben, G. G. Howell, Thomas Foster, Peter Paulsen and George Bridwell were arraigned upon a charge of dumping excrement and other filth in an unlawful place, but after a thorough sifting of the case were discharged.

Mike Murphy, of Phil Sheridan street, is a physical wreck from too close an intimacy with John Barleycorn. He was run in yesterday morning for threat-ening to shoot his better half. Murphy is just recovering from a protracted debauch, and while sitting on the edge of the bed Thursday evening he suddenly pulled his gun and banged her once out of the window. Then he flourished the cannon and made sundry ominous demonstrations toward Mrs. Murphy, and she fled and had him run in. He was placed under a $500 hond to keen the she fled and had him run in. He was placed under a $500 bond to keep the

The cases of William Philips, Edward Hurley and Leo Meyer, for violating the gambling law, were dismissed on the grounds that the alleged offenses were committed on July the 2nd, or three days previous to the day on which the law became operative.

HIS TOP COAT.

Mr. Hunsucker Contributes His to a Stranger.

A tall, slender shabbily dressed man, with a scraggy growth of beard upon his face through which the breezes have been soughing for at least a month, and carrying a bamboo walking stick in one hand and a dark linen duster in the other, dropped in at Fred Hunsucker's saloon, 412 South Thirteenth street Wednesday afternoon, in much apparent haste. One would have thought from the stranger's nervous impetuosity, that he was on his way to the stock exchange with a big tip. In a sort of superior condescending way he asked:

"Will you please allow me to lay my top-coat in here a short time until I run up to the Union Pacific headquarters and see about some freight cars?'
Hunsucker replied that he wasn't running a check room, but that he might take his coat in the back room and leave it, if he was a mind to, he did not want it hanging in the saloon.

The stranger stepped in the back room as directed, remaining there a moment or so; but emerging minus the coat, In the course of an hour the shabby gen-teel business man returned, walked through the saloon, remarking that he'd take his coat, and stepping into the back room, came forth again with the garment, as Hunsucker naturally supposed upon his arm.

He floated out and nothing more was thought of the episode by Hunsucker un-til he came to close up at 12 o'clock, when he himself stepped into the afore-said back room to get his own coat; a nice, new, light gray cutaway, which he had hung up there in the afternoon, as is his custom these incinderating days. It may be imagined Mr. Hunsucker in-dulged in a choice lot of expletives, some of them much choicer than elegant, when he discovered that his bran new Benny had flown, and in its stead, hanging like a flag at half mast, was the shabby gen-teel's old faded duster. Mr. Hunsucker was mad, of course, and went home in his shirt sleeves. This morning he came down to the station and reported the case to Chief Seavey, and wants the man who stole his coat looked up if it costs more than his whole wardrobe is worth. In the pocket of the coat Hunsucker lost was his Savings bank deposit book and his check book on the First National, containing several checks, the payment of which, however, has been ARRESTING A BRUTE.

A Hard Tussie With a Woman Beater.

Yesterday morning word was sent to the police station that a man was attempting to kill a woman at the corner of Twentieth and Pierce streets. Officer Gilligan on Thirteenth street was informed of the matter by Officer Ormsby, while the pa trol was out on another call. When the latter returned Officer Ormsby rode to scene, Jim O'Brien, the driver, making the run in about four minutes, the best run ever made by the wagon. At the street in question a crowd of people were found, among them a brutish-looking man with heavy beard and red face, whom the crowd seemed to desire to treat to bodily castigation. His victim treat to bodily castigation. His victim was soon found, a petite handsome woman who displayed a large contusion on the back and front of her neck where the brute had caught her in his vise like grip. How she got away from him, seems a mystery because he is one of the most powerful men the police have handled in many a day. The woman's name is Mrs. Schlenk, and she tells the story that Jensen encay. The woman's name is Mrs. Schlenk, and she teils the story that Jensen entered her house and demanded beer. She told him she had no beer, and he immediately seized her with wicked intent when she succeeded in effecting her escape. Officer Gilligan arrived on the scene about the same time as the wagon, and Jensen was put into the patral. As he landed on the into the patrol. As he landed on the floor he turned and harrowly missed kicking Officer Gilligan on the head. Both the officers then bestowed attention upon him, which was kept up until the during the ride he made frantic efforts to bite, scratch, bruise and escape from the

The Striking Painters.

From present indications, it would appear that the strike among the painters will erelong die a natural death. Out of the 300 men who struck there are only about fifty remaining in the city who are out of employment. "You see," said Mr. Holden, the strikers' representative to a BEE reporter, "some of our men have left the city, and a great number are at work in the union shops or doing contracting work on their own account. For the most part the latter han not much money to start in with, but we have been helping them out. I am still negotiating with the master painters for a settlement, and will eventually succeed I trunk." ually succeed, I tnink."

A grand basket pienic and excursion to Calhoun will be given on Sunday next for the benefit of the strikers. The proceedings will be under the management of the Calumet Giee and Social club. The Musical Union band will furnish the music, and other arrangements for a pleasant trip have been efficiently at-tended to. Trains will leave St. Paul depot, corner Webster and Fifteenth streets, at 8:15 and 10:40 a.m., returning at 4:45 and 7:40 p.m.

Rail Notes.

Messrs, A W. Dickinson, general superintendent, St. Louis; W. B. Dodrige, division superintendent, Kansas City; J. W. Dolby, assistant division superintendent, Kansas City; J. Irvine, master mechanic, St. Louis; and S. Bartlett, superintendent of the car service, St. Louis, are in the city for the purpose of inspecting the company's property.

Mr. S. H. H. Clark, vice-president and general manager of the Missouri Pacific, of St. Louis, came in yesterday morning via the Rock Island.

The 10 o'clock express, B. & M., for Lincoln, went over the Union Pacific yesterday morning, owing to Thursday night's wreck on the first named road-Mr. W. F. Chapin, eashier at the freight depot of the B. & M. went to Lincoln yesterday morning, where he was called by the death of his venerable father.

W. A. Austin, of Concordia, Kan., has been appointed freight agent of the B. & M. vice Major McClintock, resigned, and will take charge Monday morning next. A traiop, name unknown, was dragged beneath the wheels and killed in attempting to board a moving freight train at Plattsmouth yesterday morning.

The Turners Excursion. The excursion of the Omaha Turnverein to Rural park, near Plattsmouth. next Sunday, promises to be a magnifi-cent affair. The committees in charge bored earnestly for its success the splendid programme they have prepared will be appreciated by all. In order to see that no disturbances of any nature shall occur, the committee has arranged for a large number of representative citizens to take charge of the grounds and see that the best of order is preserved. From present indications the affair will be a huge success, and at-tended by hundreds of Omahans.

The musical programme is in itself a credit to the management, and all who attend can count on a good time.

Cheap excursion to Boston. Tickets good for three months. Address R. W Patton, Omaha.

Look to Bezezecha.

D. C. Patterson, the real estate agent, offers a reward of $50 for the arrest of the party who suggested or engineered the Papillion mortgage forgery. Bezezecha, the German who came so near turning the trick, now says that he had three accomplices, that they did all the planning, and that he was but a tool in their hands. However, Bezezecha isn't as big a fool as he looks, and is fully capable of managing just as stupendous a fraud all by himself. He couldn't have been drilled to do the work he did and do it as well and unerringly in a month. He is naturally a man of a limitless stock of low cunning, and it is seen in every glance of his restless eyes.

The North Omaha Sewer. The building of the north branch of the North Omaha sewer will be immediately pushed and carried out with all possible dispatch. The contract was let yesterday to Thompson & Delaney. The latter s already well known in this city, while Mr. Thompson is from Kansas, and has recently done all the sewer work in Sioux City. This contract is the largest eash sewer job ever done in Omaha, involving $40,000.

A Nuisance.

Much complaint is made of a gang that is in the habit of congregating in the rear of the Tenth street engine house, and "rushing the growler," and otherwise making themselves obnoxious to respectable people. They are warned that it would be best to "go hence."

Sunday Observance.

There will be a public meeting under the auspices of the "Sunday Observance association" in the Tabernacle Congregational church on Monday evening next at 8 o'clock for the discussion of the Sunday question. Speakers from var-ious churches will be present.

At about 3 o'clock this afternoon an un known man was overcome by the heat, while walking along the postoffice pavement. He was removed to St. Joseph's hospital, and is still in an unconsciou of the Pullman Company.

As stated in these columns a few days

The contracting carpenters to the number of about seventy met at Clark's hall yesterday afternoon to consider the nine hours' question and also to decide whether eight hours should be the rule on Saturdays. A discussion took place on the subject and a resolution was passed adopting nine hours per day, Saturdays included. The contractors were unanimous on this point and as a number of the men are in favor of the uniform nine hours there will probably not be any difficulty in adjusting matters

Shooting Accident. The danger of playing with firearms was evidenced at the United States saloon, South Omaha, when Mrs. Kunzel, wife of the proprietor, after getting into a playful southe with James Formanek, her brother-in-law, about the possession of some money, picked up a revolver, and, pointing it at Formanck's head. pulled the trigger. She was considera-bly horrified to see her brother-in-law fall to the ground, apparently dead. Dr Ernhaut was immediately called in, and found that a 32-calibre ball had entered at the side of Formanck's neck and lodged under the skin at the back. The wound was pronounced serious, though not necessarily fatal.

Jumped the Track. The Union Pacific company were put to considerable inconvenience last evening in the moving of their trains, in consequence of engine No. 1156 and three cars having left the track on Fourteenth street. The accident was said to have been caused through a "lip" or expansion existing at the junction of two rails. Engine Foreman R. P. Morris was slightly bruised. Both the main lines were blocked to such an extent that it was necessary to use the old main line on the lower track for the admission and discharge of trains.

Another Union Pacific Accident. Whilst Jerrry O'Brien was yesterday morning engaged in removing false portions of the bridge, which is in course of construction on the Union Pacific road at Seventh street, one of the beams fell on his right foot and inflicted a serious bruise. O'Brien was taken to St. Joseph's hospital, where his injuries were attended to. MCCURD'S CONDITION.

A Vicious Dog.

Shortly before dark last evening John Ellis, a well known colored man, was badly bitten by a bull dog belonging to Sam King, the proprietor of the saloon on Dodge, near Twelfth street. Ellis entered the saloon to pay a bill, and a dis-pute arose as to the correct amount. While disputing with Bartender Hill the dog rushed at Ellis and bit him about the body and legs. Judge Berka issued an order for the killing of the dog and Detective Horrigan executed the decree.

FOR PARENTS.

The axe has fallen among our Boys' and Childrens' Clothing and is making havor with the prices of some of them. Those who visited us during the past season must have noticed that since the enlargement of our store, we carried in this line a much larger stock than formerly. Naturally, of such a big assortment, we have more left, especially of the better grades, and we are determined to close them all out before the opening of our new juvenile department, which next season will be on the second floor of our building. A large line of Boys' and Childrens' suits of all sizes—some very fine goods and elegantly made—also a lot of knee pants and long pants are marked down to one-half their value.

EXTRA.

A manufacturer who heard that we are doing a large business, and thought that we could dispose of most any quantity of goods, sent us last week a big lot of striped summer coats-Mens' and Boys'-with instructions to sell them for his account. We did not want to accept them, as the lot is too large and the season late, and told him so, but he wired us to dispose of them at any price we pleased, so we have decided to mark them 15c APIECE. It is almost giving them away, but it is not our loss. They are new patterns and all sizes.
