

THE DAILY BEE. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Daily Edition including Sunday...

The Utah State Movement. The action of the constitutional convention of Utah, recently held, has attracted wide-spread attention...

for opening the bids had arrived not a single proposal had been received. The reason for this lack of interest on the part of San Francisco property owners is tersely stated by the Call of that city as follows:

ing on his fitness for the place. Stripped of all side issues Mr. Seavey is legally and in fact chief of police. He has been duly appointed by the police and fire commission which has exclusive authority to make the appointments.

(STATE JOINTS). Kearney has a real estate boom. Seward's cannery is in operation. Hebron has a Masonic hall under way.

was removed and he discovered the snail and followed like a wildman, snoring and snoring on the jaw and choked the treasurer till he refunded.

West Division High school has an extraordinarily fine botanical collection on exhibition. Many of the specimens are rare and are neatly kept and well mounted.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, Douglas County, s. s. Geo. B. Tschuck, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company, does solemnly swear that the actual circulation of the Daily Bee for the week ending July 15, 1887, was as follows:

Philadelphia got a $1,000,000 for her post-office site and there is no probability that any available or proper piece of sufficient size can be bought here under $600,000 or $700,000.

The boom of Governor Hill, of New York, for the presidency has taken on new life. It is asserted in that state that the friends of Hill are at work openly in opposition to the re-nomination of President Cleveland.

The Rev. Dr. Savidge delivered a very able sermon yesterday to the industrious young clothing gentlemen who earn and are certainly entitled to a half day's holiday out of seven.

The Union Pacific company complies with the Grand Island fire department by tendering the members a special train and a free ride to and from the Kearney tournament.

The Wood River Gazette seeks location for a benefit growing out of the work of the American Red Cross.

Practical Farming. Practical Farming is no animal kept on the farm that is not better cared for, so far as relates to health, than the hog; he is frequently kept in a dark cellar, or in a crenel with only a small amount of light from one side of it.

UNLESS a Manitoba wave rolls over this section of the country pretty soon, Omaha is liable to lose its reputation as a summer resort.

It is gratifying to know that Colonel Dan Lamont was not compelled to send out an official denial of the accident to the president's train.

THE people down in Nuckolls county are evidently possessed of the improved custom of dealing justly to murderers.

Boston is becoming quite English in the extreme. The city has purchased 155,000 Gladstone bricks to be used on the new court house, the bricks coming from the kilns of the "grand old man."

Some heartless or poverty-plinched mother in Hastings dropped her baby on the doorstep of the Hogie residence.

THE NATIONAL SCHOOL EXHIBIT. Practical Illustrations of the Training of the Deaf and Dumb.

Another mistake being made, which is in feeding everything to swine without regard to its nature. The feeding of oily swill is not only highly disagreeable to the whole neighborhood, but it is getting to be a matter that is becoming dangerous to the life of the hog.

It is quite possible that there is some warrant for the distrust with which the action of the convention has been received, but it may fairly be doubted whether in dealing with the question of the admission of Utah as a state congress should be asked to go below plain and palpable facts to seek out possible motives, or be required to consider assumed designs which are as likely not to have as to have existed.

That fraudulent printing contract was signed and sealed, but it has not been delivered yet.

Editors Have Rights. Boston Courier. Has there not been enough of this talk concerning the relation of editors to would-be contributors?

It makes little difference to what political party defaulter Harvey, of the treasury department, belonged. What is wanted in the treasury is a system of carrying on the business of the government where fraud can not be perpetrated.

With regard to what might follow statehood in the case of Utah, that is a matter which must take care of itself, subject to the operation of the forces and influences which the new order of things would inevitably produce, or which are certain to come in time.

There is very little probability that the effort of a San Francisco editor to boom Governor Stanford for presidential honors will receive anything more than the merest passing attention.

There is no doubt that some of the railroads are gradually growing indigent to such an extent that they are unable to meet their obligations.
