Wheat Remains Quite Sick on Very Discouraging Bear Talk.

PRICES GRADUALLY DROPPING.

A Bulge in Corn on Bull Talk About the Drought—But Little Doing in Provisions—General Quotations.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, July 16.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—No decided improvement has yet entered the wheat market. It is still sick, quite so. The predictions of 70c for August seem in a fair way to be verified. Before the speculative day was ten minutes old the market was within ⅛c of it. August opened at 70⅝c. There were sales sparingly at 70⅝c and then prices dropped straight to 70¼c. The talk in pit centers was on about 12,000,000 bushels of old wheat in elevators here, with the usual set phrases about the country being on the verge of harvesting a crop of unknown proportions, but certainly one of the largest ever known, etc. The receipts to-day were only forty-seven cars, of which forty-three were winter.

Corn was firm though the receipts were 120 cars. August opened at 37⅛c and kept close to 37c for half an hour. Afterwards corn was strongly bulled on "drought," and the shoots in August. This option went to 37½c during the hour, but more deferred futures remained very steady. The corn crowd was also taking light receipts for Monday. Wheat was helped up to 70⅝c, partly by the bulge in corn and partly through the strength contributed by purchases by local scalpers on the basis of a large decrease in next week's visible.

Short ribs opened at $8.15, fell to $8.07½, and recovered to $8.15. Again there was a moderate trade in them. Before noon the shorts in corn got pretty well filled up, and from 37½ the market went back to 37⅛c for August, and stayed there or thereabout with a good deal of persistency. While August was making an advance of ½c, September only moved ⅛c, proving pretty conclusively that there was a "short" demand for August. The receipts Monday are estimated at 100 cars. Anything in the shape of a general rain between this time and that will knock the pins from under prices in very short order.

The session developed nothing out of the ordinary in wheat. After the sales at 70⅝c about 11 o'clock the tendency was to lower prices, though little changed hands after that time lower than 70⅜c. News, either locally or from the outside, was very scarce. There was a very little showing of dispatches from the northwest indicating good progress in harvesting and a fair outcome per acre. At 1 o'clock wheat closed at 70¼@70⅜c. Toward the close a heavy tone made itself manifest in ribs, August being at a standstill at $8.12½.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, July 16.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—CATTLE—As is customary, the general market actually closed on Friday night. For the week past trade has been very unsatisfactory for sellers, with a decline on the ordinary run of fat cattle equal to 25c per 100, making the price on the best fat cattle as low, if not lower, than for any time this season. Texas trade has ruled fairly good the past week. Values have dropped a point or two one day and then advanced a point or two the next day, native butchers' stock selling all the week at about the lowest prices remembered. The stocker and feeder trade is suffering from drought in the country and the low prices for fat cattle. Reports from parts of Illinois and Wisconsin say the drought will ruin farmers and partially those who follow stock raising. A load of stock came in to-day from the droughty section in Illinois emaciated from the want of feed and water. The cows and calves sold at $1.40, the heifers at $1.25, and the steers at $1.75. It is said that as high as $20 a ton has been paid for hay in some parts to save the young lean stock and the cows from starvation. Shipping steers, 1,350 to 1,500 lbs, $3.60@4.10; 1,200 to 1,350 lbs, $3.40@4.20; 950 to 1,200 lbs, $3.00@3.50; stockers and feeders, $1.50@3.00; cows, bulls and mixed, $1.50@3.60; Texas cattle, yearlings and mixed, $1.75@2.10; steers, $2.40@3.30.

HOGS—The market opened with another big boom on. The "plungers" rushed in and paid as high as $5.75 for one lot, while others of the same ilk paid as high as $5.70, and nearly all of the early lots realized $5.60@5.65, but later on, and especially about 10 to 11 o'clock, lots that cost the "plungers" $5.60@5.65, were freely offered at $5.50@5.65. Of course salesmen who held on to the last were left and had to sell against the speculators' loss or carry his stock over until Monday. During the week values have advanced 35@40c and the legitimate demand has been good. It would seem from to-day's events, however, that a halt has been called in the advance for the present.

FINANCIAL.

NEW YORK, July 16.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—STOCKS—The market to-day was dull with on 75,111 shares traded in. London was a fair buyer of Reading, Lake Shore and its usual specialties, but the general disposition was to go slow. Shorts were the principal buyers, and advances of ⅛@1 point were recorded. The bank statement showed an increase in the reserve of $1,575,650, and brings the holdings of the banks above legal requirements to $7,928,100. The feeling in the room regarding the future is still mixed, but many of the best posted were inclined to buy good stocks on breaks. Money was easy, and $500,000 in gold arrived from London to-day. Closing prices, compared with those of a week ago, show declines of ⅛@¾, except on Manhattan, which advanced 5 points. Business with Chicago stock houses was generally small, some not trading in more than a few hundred shares.

GOVERNMENTS—Government bonds were dull but steady.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Saturday, July 16.

Cattle.

The receipts of cattle were light and as compared with yesterday show a falling off of 300 head. Good medium weight native steers are a little strong and in better demand but there were no very good ones in to-day. Western cattle are dull and do not show any advance. Common grassy cows and small steers are not wanted by the butchers and are very slow sale. There was some inquiry for feeders and several loads changed hands.

Hogs.

The run of hogs was heavier than usual for Saturday. The market opened at an advance and active. There was a good demand and the pens were cleared before mid-day. The market was a strong 5c higher and closed with a firm feeling.

Sheep.

There was nothing doing in the market.
