THE BEE PUBLISHING COMPANY, PROPRIETORS. E. ROSEWATER, Editor.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, J. A. S. County of Douglas, J. B. Tschuck, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company...

Sworn to and subscribed in my presence this 10th day of July, A. D. 1887. N. P. FEIL, Notary Public.

State of Nebraska, J. A. S. County of Douglas, J. B. Tschuck, being first duly sworn, deposes and says that he is secretary of The Bee Publishing Company...

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 10th day of July, A. D. 1887. N. P. FEIL, Notary Public.

DENVER is beginning to talk about paving her streets. Omaha is the best paved city west of New York.

ROTHAKER and Morrissey want to have Seavey fired. Would it not be much better for the community if Rothaker and Morrissey were fired?

It is a lively race between the heat and the water as to which will claim the greatest number of victims. Meanwhile the coroner smiles with ghoulish glee...

GREAT minds always run in the same channel. Every time Rothaker writes an attack on Seavey, Morrissey is inspired with the same thought...

The Chicago Sunday Tribune reported more than seventy cases of sunstroke, over twenty-eight proving fatal, in that city on Saturday last.

If the sturdy policemen of Omaha want to wear wreaths of roses upon their heads as well as badges upon their breasts...

Mr. McSHANE's editor has discovered that a party of highly moral and respectable citizens are about to invest in a kettle of tar and a barrel of feathers to be applied to the body of the offensive chief of police.

In spite of the injunction issued by Judge Groff, the Republican keeps on inserting the official advertisements of the board of public works. This is the cheekiest bit of enterprise we have ever seen.

Now that they are murdering missionaries in Alaska, let us hope that three of America's noble sons, Senators Allison and Vest and Congressman Tom Reed...

Now comes a man who on his dying bed in Holyoke, Mass., is alleged to have confessed to having seen Miss Jennie Cramer, the girl whose body was found in the river at New Haven, Conn., in 1878...

It does not seem probable that a man with a heart no larger than a point of a pin could have held this secret for this length of time...

The Lesson of the B. & M. Disaster. Official investigation of the circumstances attending the fatal and destructive collision at Havelock relieves Engineer Bowser of the charge of having been asleep...

The Ohio Dilemma. Both of the political parties in Ohio are in a dilemma. The democrats, who will hold their convention in Cleveland this week...

The testimony that has recently been supplied by the principal cities of Maine, so clear and authoritative in its character as to admit of no denial, showing that the prohibition law is being systematically disregarded...

What is the testimony on the other side? Minnesota has but recently put into effect a high license law, and the latest figures show a reduction in the number of drinking places from 2,396 to 1,806...

A Jewel of Consistency. A professional liar ought to have a good memory. An editor who wants to exert any influence must be consistent.

The Race is Well-Nigh Extinct. Some people claim that the president ought to go to St. Louis, and that Andy Jackson would go under similar circumstances. Well, there are no more Andy Jacksons, and never will be.

The Bee and the Masons. The Bee's denunciation of the Masons who originated the charges against Seavey as a "gang which is notoriously in bad odor and disrepute" may prove a boomerang.

Time to Call a Halt. It is about time that the law-abiding and reputable citizens should discountenance the infamous course pursued by the Herald and Republican with regard to our police. Their editors have demoralized the council by mischievous and vicious advice...

Prominent Persons. Rose Cochran is spending the summer feeding her ducks and chickens on her ideal farm at Yonkers.

Iowa Items. Creston has granted a franchise for a street railway. The Story county soldiers' reunion will be held at Nevada August 4 and 5.

An Abandoned Bride. Sensational Scene at a Wedding Festival in North Dakota. St. Louis Globe-Democrat: Miss Miller, a very popular young lady in North St. Louis society...

Small Farms. Or How I Make a Living on 'Forty Acres. Since we are admonished to relate our failures as well as our successes, perhaps I should tell you that I don't make money on forty acres.

The Race is Well-Nigh Extinct. Some people claim that the president ought to go to St. Louis, and that Andy Jackson would go under similar circumstances.

Will Tackle Aristotle. The Concord School of Philosophy is now about to seize hold of Aristotle in its large and reckless way and will scatter his disjointed fragments all over the United States.

The Duke's Lament. "I'm reduced to despair." "Quoth the duke, with a stare, 'When the prince gets his tips from the wild Woolly West'..."

State and Territory. Nebraska Jottings. Grand Island's cannery will be ready for the corn crop. Hastings will put $15,000 in extensions of her water mains.

Abraham Thiessen, the Jefferson county Mennonite, who went to Russia to look after some claims of his country, and spent six months in jail there, has returned home. His mission was barren of results.

The death of Frank Coy, the Davenport druggist, was a terrible shock to the community. While going down stairs in the early morning, Friday, he tripped over a lamp in his hand, he slipped and fell to the floor.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: Miss Miller, a very popular young lady in North St. Louis society, and living on Warren street, has had a sad experience. Not only is she sorely disappointed by the death of a faithless lover at the very last moment, but disappointment being witnessed by the clergyman who was to have aided in making her a bride and by scores of guests...
