

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS OFFICE, NO. 12, PEARL STREET. Delivered by carrier in any part of the city at twenty cents per week.

STARTING FOR THE SALOONS. Three New Informers Swear that Prohibition is not Prohibiting. GETTING READY FOR COURT. A Neighboring Fight over the Front Gate—A Son Goes Hunting for His Father with a Gun—The Guards Benefit—General Tuttle Here.

MINOR MENTION. N. Y. Plumbing Co. Reiter, tailor. Summer goods cheap. David Tostevin has arrived from the east.

New Saloon Detectives. There has been little public attention drawn of late to the saloon injunction cases. There has been no change noticeable in the situation, and matters have apparently drifted along with patient waiting on both sides for the coming of the 25th of July.

Work on the new sash and blind factory of Messrs. Strook Bros. is progressing finely. F. U. Peterson and Christina Libel were yesterday married by Justice Schurz at his office.

Notices have been served on the first batch of saloon men, that the depositions are to be taken of Smith and the other informer who gathered the facts relating to the first batch of saloons. These depositions are to be taken with a view of having the temporary injunctions made permanent.

Jack Waggerup, a colored man, while drunk, staggered up to a private residence and insisted on the door being opened. He tried to unlock it with his boot, but before he had got through the patrol wagon came up and he was taken in. It cost him $8.10 in court yesterday.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wanted, at once, 100 to 200 barrels of carrots. Call on or address J. Y. Fuller, 39 Pearl st., Council Bluffs, Ia.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

the son in, and kept him behind the bars. The judge concluded that the best way to dispose of the case was to put the young man under $300 bonds to keep the peace, and take from him a promise to swear off drinking, and stay entirely away from the old folks. The wife was also given a warning to control her unruly member, and stop gossiping about her husband's relatives.

Battle Flag Tuttle. General J. M. Tuttle, commander of the G. A. R., department of Iowa, arrived in this city last evening to attend the soldiers' rally, which takes place this evening in Masonic hall. He was met at the depot by the committee on invitation and with the Dodge Light guards, headed by the Fifth regiment band, as a guard of escort proceeded to the Pacific house, where he was received by the reception committee.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

And now before I introduce General Tuttle let me tell you in a few words why he has so endeared himself to us. When the committee in charge of the national reunion at St. Louis proposed to invite the man who occupies the presidential chair to sit as our chief presiding officer, General Tuttle was the first man to object, and we honor him for it.

Wall Paper Painting and Decorating. No. 13 PEARL STREET-COUNCIL BLUFFS, IA.

$1,000,000.00 To Loan on Improved Real Estate in Omaha money on hand - Lowest Rates Odell Bros & Co. 103 1/2 Pearl St. Cor 15th & Farnam Sts

C. R. ALLEN, Engineer, Surveyor, Map Publisher Over No. 12 North Main St. county maps, of cities and counties

LATEST NOVELTIES In Amber, Tortoise Shell etc. Hair On ornaments, as well as the newest novelties in hair goods. Hair goods made to order Mrs. C. L. Gillette 29 Main St., Council Bluffs, Iowa. Out of town work solicited, and all mail orders promptly attended to.

CROCKERY, LAMPS, GLASSWARE, FINE POTTERY. W. S. HOMER & Co., NO. 23 MAIN ST., COUNCIL BLUFFS, IA.

REAL ESTATE. Vacant Lots, Lands, City Residences and Farms. Acre property in western part of city. All selling cheap. R. P. OFFICER, Real Estate & Insurance Agent, Room 5, over Officer & Pusey's Bank, Council Bluffs.

Only Hotel in the City with Fire Escape. Electric Call Bells. Accommodations First Class, and Rates Reasonable Max Mohn, Proprietor

BEST LIGHT LIVERY IN THE CITY. The finest of driving horses always on hand and for sale by MASE WISE. Star Sale Stables and Mule Yards. Broadway, Council Bluffs, Opp. Dummy Depot. All Stock warranted as Represented.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE. The only SEAMLESS shoe in the world. Finest calf, perfect fit, and warranted. Congress, Button and Lace, all styles low. As stylish and durable as any shoe costing $5 or $6. W. L. DOUGLAS, 109 N. 3rd St., Chicago, Ill.

Pleasant to Taste, Prompt in Action Always Reliable ST. FRANCIS ACADEMY. Cor. 5th Ave. & 7th St., Council Bluffs.

ON 30 DAYS' TRIAL. ELASTIC TRUSS. Has a feel different from all others. It cures chills, colds, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, lumbago, sprains, strains, etc. It is a perfect cure for all these ailments. It is a perfect cure for all these ailments. It is a perfect cure for all these ailments.

WILLIAM WELCH, OFFICES: No. 415 Broadway—The Manhattan, Telephone No. 93. Na. 615 Main Street, Telephone No. 93.

STONE & SIMS, Attorneys at Law. Office in the State and Federal Courts. Rooms 7 and 8 Shugart-Beno Block. COUNCIL BLUFFS, IA.

THE XXXX CROSSINGS XXXX ARE ALL RIGHT!

For Everybody to Come to HARKNESS BROTHERS' Grand Mid-Summer Sale! SPECIAL: We shall close out without regard to cost everything

In Summer Dress Goods, Wash Goods, Hosiery, Etc. Come Early And Secure the Best Selections. We are Headquarters for Carpets of all Kinds. HARKNESS BROS., 401 Broadway, Council Bluffs. N. B.—Special attention given all orders by mail.

Pianos and Organs. Persons wishing to purchase instruments will find it to their interest to call on us. Instruments Tuned and Repaired. We never fail to give satisfaction. Over 20 years' Experience in Piano and Organ Work. Swanson Music Co. No. 329 Broadway, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

C. J. COLBY, Real Estate Broker and Dealers. Council Bluffs Office, Masonic Temple, Omaha Office, No. 111 North 16th Street. Particular attention given to investing funds for non-residents. Special bargains in lots & acre property in Omaha & Council Bluffs. Correspondence solicited.

BECHTELE'S NEW HOTEL. Best $2.00 a day house in the west. LOCATION, THE BEST, FIRST CLASS TABLE, SAMPLE ROOMS and ALL MODERN CONVENIENCES! Regular :: Boarders :: Reduced :: Rates.

SPECIAL PRICES for 30 DAYS. On Furniture, Household Goods, Stoves, etc., to make room for Fall Stock. Goods Sold on Installments. A. J. MANDEL, - - Nos. 323 and 325 Broadway. Council Bluffs, Iowa.

A. RINK, No. 201 Main St., Council Bluffs, Iowa. A COMPLETE ASSORTMENT Fancy and Staple Groceries Both Domestic and Foreign.