

THE DAILY BEE. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Daily (Morning Edition) including Sunday... $10.00 For Six Months... 5.00 For Three Months... 2.50 For One Month... 1.00

THE PUBLISHING COMPANY, PROPRIETORS. E. ROSEWATER, EDITOR.

The Latest Monopoly.

The latest thing in the monopoly line is the combination of envelope manufacturers, and most appropriately and suggestively it takes the title "Standard."

The excuse for favoring this combination, which one of the manufacturers embraced in it is said to have admitted is a great monopoly, is that the manufacture of envelopes for the past two or three years has yielded very little profit.

AND still they come. Another leading Chicago packing firm—Underwood & Co.—has invested and located in Omaha.

FIDELTY HARPER, the Neopolitan of finance has been granted two many privileges in the Cincinnati jail, which has necessitated his being sent to the jail at Dayton.

KEEP Jefferson square for the people. It can be beautified by fountains, monuments, evergreens and rare shade trees.

THERE is a German adage, "If you go with bed dogs you will get up with fleas." This adage commends itself forcibly to such members of the city council as are training with rowdies and thugs who happen to be connected with certain Omaha newspapers, whose coarse, vulgar and vicious conduct has aroused general resentment among respectable people in the community.

A good deal of unnecessary disturbance is being worked up over a little strip of ground known as "No Mans Land" south of Kansas adjoining the Indian nation.

It is rather amusing at this time to note the frantic effort to create a park commission for Omaha by the very parties who were instrumental in having the park provisions of the charter stricken out by the judiciary committee boodlers last winter.

DURING the trial of the boodle sardmen in New York Mr. Ira Shaffer wanted to shoot Mr. Pulitzer because of something the World said about him.

THE coroner's jury in the Havelock railroad accident should be given free transportation over the Burlington and Missouri River road during their natural lives.

Omaha that the supervision of our public schools will remain in competent hands. Now that Mr. James has been re-elected for a term of three years he can with impunity assert himself as superintendent, and carry out without fear or favor such reforms in the school system as he believes to be necessary for the elevation of the educational standard.

THE board will cheerfully clothe him with ample power for choosing the material with which to carry on the practical work of education, and co-operate with him in making the public schools of Omaha the model for the country.

A Zealous Subsidy Advocate. A Chautauqua gathering is a rather odd place to discuss the subject of ship subsidies, but the zealous advocates of that policy are not particular about time or place.

Ex-Governor Long, of Massachusetts, is in favor of subsidies, and in addressing the Chautauquans of South Framingham a few days ago he made this his theme.

THE board is a little too hasty in calling this election. It should first inform itself about the provisions of the new election law, which govern the conduct of special as well as general elections in metropolitan cities.

THE BEE, in an effort to wit, unwittingly pays a compliment to Kansas City. It says: "Omaha may not pack as many hogs as Kansas City. There are not as many hogs in Omaha as there are in Kansas City."

Joking aside, the time is near at hand when Omaha will not only overtake Kansas City in the great hog race, but leave it behind. To-day Chicago stands first in the packing industry, Kansas City second, and Omaha third.

WHILE denouncing the chief of police as a fraud, the Republican keeps at the head of its local columns the fraudulent inscription, "official paper of the city."

DEAN GARDNER, of Trinity church, is reported to have said at the Sunday observance meeting that he thought he could play base ball as well as the Omaha club. This is hard on the club, but we are proud of the Dean.

OSCAR Wilde has become editor of the "Lady's World," at London. Stepiak, the celebrated nihilist author, will visit the United States in September.

THE Concord School of Philosophy ought to engage a reliable baseball umpire to settle disputed points.

ing and drinking, be cleanly of person, and get all the fresh air that time and circumstances will permit, are simple and common sense rules, which if carefully followed, will enable ordinarily healthy people to get through the hot season without serious discomfort and with a minimum of danger from the effects of heat.

THE cheering information comes from Europe that Buffalo Bill still sits with his knife, and that Red Shirt holds out as resolutely against gallies as ever. It was feared that slattery might turn the heads of these simple Americans.

THE confirmation of Edward Dickinson as general superintendent of the Union Pacific railroad is precisely what was expected. Nevertheless the rapid advancement he has made in the past twelve years from the position of clerk of a division superintendent to the place he now occupies is as remarkable as it is deserved.

NEBRASKA JOTTINGS. McCook is building a creamery. Omaha is the porcupine of the prairies. Fremont and Beatrice are moving for free mail delivery.

Red Cloud will soon illuminate with ten electric light towers. Webster county is putting the finishing touches on the new jail.

Hastings is hurrying to the front as a summer resort. A swarm of chinch bugs are now doing the town. The natives find pork picking among their guests.

Norman Rapapoe has turned loose a wild and grizzly Jokeloo in Hartington, and the natives are stumped as to the age, sex, color or previous condition of the mammoth aggregation.

Mr. Ed Shannon, a runaway wife from Norfolk, was caught by her husband in a hotel in Sioux City Saturday. So was her paramour, Will Frank.

Independence boasts of corn ten feet high. A company has been formed at Wilton Junction to bore for gas.

REMOVAL OF THE SALOONS IN SIoux City, and the consequent "removal of the temptation to drink," has not had a wonderful effect on the morals of the town.

THE territory is now enjoying its regular annual "constitutional." Traveling men will form a stock company and build a hotel at Aberdeen.

when he gets through with the Pacific investigation committee from which he hid like a rat, he won't feel so bitter. Hot Weather Squib. Chicago Times. If President Cleveland wants a second term, he had better make a change in the management of the weather bureau p. d. q.

Hot Weather Squib. Chicago Times. The cheering information comes from Europe that Buffalo Bill still sits with his knife, and that Red Shirt holds out as resolutely against gallies as ever.

THE Jubilee Bell. St. Paul Pioneer Press. Queen Victoria is said to be quite dejected because she finds the bills for entertaining her royal guests during the Jubilee amount to over $1,000,000.

Rapid Advancement. Chicago Sun. The confirmation of Edward Dickinson as general superintendent of the Union Pacific railroad is precisely what was expected.

NEBRASKA JOTTINGS. McCook is building a creamery. Omaha is the porcupine of the prairies. Fremont and Beatrice are moving for free mail delivery.

Red Cloud will soon illuminate with ten electric light towers. Webster county is putting the finishing touches on the new jail.

Hastings is hurrying to the front as a summer resort. A swarm of chinch bugs are now doing the town. The natives find pork picking among their guests.

INDEPENDENCE boasts of corn ten feet high. A company has been formed at Wilton Junction to bore for gas.

REMOVAL OF THE SALOONS IN SIoux City, and the consequent "removal of the temptation to drink," has not had a wonderful effect on the morals of the town.

THE territory is now enjoying its regular annual "constitutional." Traveling men will form a stock company and build a hotel at Aberdeen.

THE location of a Congregational college at Fargo is assured. A $40,000 building will be erected.

Dakota are called to assemble at Big Stone Creek on the 27th of July, and to remain there three days at least, during which time business will be transacted and pleas entered on the part of the general public.

THE question of putting streets ordered paved, in good condition before the paving of the same, is attracting considerable attention from those whose duty it is to work upon them.

THE filling, as it is now the practice, only tending to resort to, and this, in his opinion, would never be the company's business required to obviate settling.

ONE of the clauses of the ordinance is that which requires that the filling of trenches in paved streets or alleys shall be done by floating river sand, except when otherwise directed by the chairman of the board of public works.

THE cable line has three gangs of men at work at different places along their line, and the one on Hartington is now being pushed forward as rapidly as possible.

UNDERWOOD'S Packing House. Boyd's packing house has again changed hands. It was sold some time ago by its original proprietor, James E. Boyd, to Joseph D. Her, who, with a company, it was thought, intended to turn it into a large brewery.

UNDERWOOD'S Packing House. Boyd's packing house has again changed hands. It was sold some time ago by its original proprietor, James E. Boyd, to Joseph D. Her, who, with a company, it was thought, intended to turn it into a large brewery.

UNDERWOOD'S Packing House. Boyd's packing house has again changed hands. It was sold some time ago by its original proprietor, James E. Boyd, to Joseph D. Her, who, with a company, it was thought, intended to turn it into a large brewery.

UNDERWOOD'S Packing House. Boyd's packing house has again changed hands. It was sold some time ago by its original proprietor, James E. Boyd, to Joseph D. Her, who, with a company, it was thought, intended to turn it into a large brewery.

UNDERWOOD'S Packing House. Boyd's packing house has again changed hands. It was sold some time ago by its original proprietor, James E. Boyd, to Joseph D. Her, who, with a company, it was thought, intended to turn it into a large brewery.

UNDERWOOD'S Packing House. Boyd's packing house has again changed hands. It was sold some time ago by its original proprietor, James E. Boyd, to Joseph D. Her, who, with a company, it was thought, intended to turn it into a large brewery.

HIGH SCHOOL CANDIDATES. A Little Information Necessary for an Intelligible Understanding. There seems to be a very general desire on the part of those most deeply interested in our scholastic affairs to know the names of the fortunate pupils of the grammar schools who were promoted to the high school at the June examinations.

THE question of putting streets ordered paved, in good condition before the paving of the same, is attracting considerable attention from those whose duty it is to work upon them.

THE filling, as it is now the practice, only tending to resort to, and this, in his opinion, would never be the company's business required to obviate settling.

ONE of the clauses of the ordinance is that which requires that the filling of trenches in paved streets or alleys shall be done by floating river sand, except when otherwise directed by the chairman of the board of public works.

THE cable line has three gangs of men at work at different places along their line, and the one on Hartington is now being pushed forward as rapidly as possible.

UNDERWOOD'S Packing House. Boyd's packing house has again changed hands. It was sold some time ago by its original proprietor, James E. Boyd, to Joseph D. Her, who, with a company, it was thought, intended to turn it into a large brewery.

UNDERWOOD'S Packing House. Boyd's packing house has again changed hands. It was sold some time ago by its original proprietor, James E. Boyd, to Joseph D. Her, who, with a company, it was thought, intended to turn it into a large brewery.

UNDERWOOD'S Packing House. Boyd's packing house has again changed hands. It was sold some time ago by its original proprietor, James E. Boyd, to Joseph D. Her, who, with a company, it was thought, intended to turn it into a large brewery.

UNDERWOOD'S Packing House. Boyd's packing house has again changed hands. It was sold some time ago by its original proprietor, James E. Boyd, to Joseph D. Her, who, with a company, it was thought, intended to turn it into a large brewery.

UNDERWOOD'S Packing House. Boyd's packing house has again changed hands. It was sold some time ago by its original proprietor, James E. Boyd, to Joseph D. Her, who, with a company, it was thought, intended to turn it into a large brewery.

UNDERWOOD'S Packing House. Boyd's packing house has again changed hands. It was sold some time ago by its original proprietor, James E. Boyd, to Joseph D. Her, who, with a company, it was thought, intended to turn it into a large brewery.

BABY'S SKIN. Infantile and Birth Humors. Specially Cured by Cuticura. Cuticura Remedies.