THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: FRIDAY, JULY 22, 1887.

creased business in May is reported. Only a moderate speculative business is re-ported to-day in oats, there being but few or-ders either way and not much inclination on the part of local operators to branch out. August oats were offered very freely early, and this, to ether with the depression in cash new No. 2 oats, caused a weak opening. The slight shirikage in values, however, was recovered, and the closing quotations for futures were steady at about yesterday's latest blus. In the provision pit there was no decided disposition to put prices down. The con-tinued liberal marketing of hogs, accompanied by another neavy decline in the same, made the feeling, of course, weak; yet, un-der the circumstances, the trade appeared to der the circumstances, the trade appeared to be able to command good support. Lard was boucht freely by one of the heaviest general operators on the floor, while for short ribs the demand was both general and active. The market, all things considered, was remarkably strong, though for lard prices at the close showed a decline from yesterday of 24(@5c, and short ribs of 5c. For Augustdelivery lard sold at $6.524(@6.57)4, and shortribs at $7.673(@7.75. The same month closedat $6.55($6.57)4; for lard, and at $7.7234 forshort ribs. Both September lard and shortribs ranged loc over August. For Novemberdelivery lard sold at $6.55, for Decembershort ribs at $5.90, and for January lard at$6.70, and short ribs at $5.90@5.95. Cashpork was $17.00; the year $11.50, and Janupork was $17.00; the year $11.50, and Janu ary $11.90.

ket began to improve slowly. More traders were in the room, and before 2 o'clock St. Paul, which was taken by insiders, had advanced 1 per cent, Northwestern %, Mis-souri Pacific %, Lacawana 1, Reading %, Denver & Fort Worth 11. The only weak stock was Western Union, which sold down 114 per cent from yesterday's close, but rallied 1%. The firmness was continued the last hour and the market broadened slightly and closed firm, with last sales at the highest price of the day, and %@1 point above yes-terday's close except Western Union, which was % lower. Business with Chicago houses, although slightly better, was not large. The total sales were 157,370 shares, against 109,922 shares yesterday.

GOVERNMENTS-Government bonds were dull but steady to firm.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, July 21.-[Special Telegram to the BEE.]-CATTLE-The result of the big run yesterday was a decline of about 10c on good cattle and 15c on undesirable stock. Taking a lot of fine distillery-fed steers, that averaged over 1400 lbs, as comparison, that sold at $3,95, against $4,05 on Tuesday, the decline equals 10c in that quality. To-day there were not over 7,000 natives in fresh arrivals. The romainder, about 4,000, were arrivals. The romainder, about 4,000, were Texans. There was rather a scarcity of suitable natives, and as a consequence that sort sold steady, yet 15(20c lower than Mou-day. There are about 4,000 Texans on the market. Valuee are 15(20c lower than Mou-than on Monday. Native butchers' stock is as low as at any time. There were no new features in the stocker and feeder trade. Prices are very low and it was a duil market. Shipping steers, 1550 to 1500 lbs, $3.50(23.20; cows, buils and mixed, $1.00(2 2.90; buik, $2.00(23.20; stockers, and feed-ers, $1.50(23.20; cows, buils and mixed, $1.00(2 2.90; buik, $2.00(23.20; stockers, $2.50(2 3.35.

Hoos-Trade was slow, with another down turn of 10@15c, making a drop of 25@30c since Monday. Bulk sold around about $5.15@5.25, larcely at $5.20, a few lots as high as $5.30, and a few lots as low as $5.10.

FINANCIAL

NEW YORK, July 21.- |Special Telegram to the BEE. |-STOCKS-The Baltimore & Ohio deal has been officially declared off so far as negotiations with the Ives syndicate are concerned. They failed to meet their obligations at the appointed time and have been relieved of all responsibility. Garrett has succeeded in cheapening the value of his property and impairing his credit, and should he sell to other parties it will undoubtedly be at less money. In a letter he denies that he purchased the Johns Hopkins university stock, as circumstances rendered it unneces sary for him to use any of the options he held. Mr. Ives came out with as much money as when he went in, but it is said that he sold the general market quite heavily the past few days on the knowledge that the deal would fall through. New deals are now in order, and several big stories have already been started on the sounds. They all contain the shadow of a possibility, but are not at all probable. The best story started is
